

NO SWORD OVER HAYS' HEAD

If Southern Pacific President Reorganizes Will Be Voluntary.

OFFICIAL REFUSES TO DISCUSS SITUATION

Theory is advanced that he is in theory of restrictions under new ownership in spite of his princely salary.

From San Francisco comes a quasi confirmation of the persistent report from the Southern Pacific system is about to leave the service of that line.

No one hints, however, that Mr. Hays is to be summarily dismissed. He is to resign gracefully, according to the report.

The noted railroad president himself was approached in New York on this question and said that he did not care either to deny or confirm such a report.

He said that he did not care either to deny or confirm such a report. He repeated this mere statement in San Francisco.

That as it may, prominent railroads in Omaha are at a loss to understand any such action. In the first place, they seem to think it preposterous that either the Southern Pacific or Mr. Hays himself could thus summarily conclude a binding contract for five years.

By the terms of that agreement Mr. Hays received $55,000 per annum, the largest salary paid any railroad president in the world.

Then, again, the retirement of Hays will mean either the naming of another man in his place or the addition of his duties to those of some other president of a Harriman road.

Mr. Hays of the Union Pacific, however, is in a position to be a preposterous notion. Mr. Harriman has already decided that the auditing interests of the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific are too diverse and widely separated.

By actual distances and by the barriers of different sectional laws, to admit of consolidation under one management.

This would apply with equal strength to the executive ministrations of the two systems.

This alternative annihilated, the only course left would be the securing of another president to fill Hays' place.

Such a step would seem incredible to railroads, especially where it is noted that it is to be done at the will of Harriman.

Should this actually take place the theory which would find far the readier belief in railroad circles the country over is one that is already in existence to a certain extent.

It is to the effect that President Hays has been used as the method and mastery of his superior, Mr. Harriman, and is leaving his position of his own accord, because its tenure has grown distasteful to him.

SALT LAKE MAY SUPPLANT OGDEN. Cutoff Around Southern End of Lake May Change Terminus City.

A preliminary survey in Utah which may assume vast importance in connection with the Central Pacific road has just been completed.

It was under the direction of Messrs. Harriman and Hays and was for the purpose of ascertaining the cost of a cutoff for that road around the southern end of the Great Salt Lake into Salt Lake City.

Many surmises as to the probable meaning of this act are now rife in railroad circles. The most popular theory at present is that the Central Pacific is to be switched in southward along the lines of the survey and Salt Lake City made the eastern terminal of the line instead of Ogden.

As at present existing the eastern end of this road is a very costly one to operate, swinging into Ogden via the Klamath and Promontory mountains. It is already known that the magnates are about to spend a vast million dollars in the next few years to build 146 miles of it between Lucin and Ogden by reducing grades and curves to a minimum.

That was the original plan, but this later movement leads to the belief that Mr. Harriman is no longer satisfied with the Lucin-Ogden scheme and will now seek a cheaper cutoff to the south and a terminal in Salt Lake City. He might almost as well do this as to spend great sums on bettering the other pathway.

That either one or the other plan will be soon carried into effect is certain, as Mr. Harriman's willingness and even determination to cut down operating expenses and at once with that save time by making costly improvements of this nature have been well illustrated in the case of the recent Union Pacific alterations.

Closer Connection Eastbound. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 16.—The Chicago & Alton has decided upon an innovation in its eastbound service to make closer connection for trains from the west.

On and after Sunday, August 19, the road will put on the St. Louis limited, leaving Kansas City at 6:30 p. m., instead of 9:15 p. m., as now.

Low Rates Until September 15. CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—A proposition has been submitted to the western roads to keep the reduced rates which were in effect between July 1 and 10 and August 1 and 10 operative continuously to September 15.

to all summer resort points in northern Michigan and Wisconsin. It is expected the proposition will be voted down, but if so independent action will be taken and the rates kept in effect.

Hill Not Expected Here. General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington road returned yesterday from Chicago, where he was for one day. Mr. Holdrege says that he did not see J. Hill in Chicago and does not expect to receive him in Omaha soon.

Referring to the double-track construction work between Chicago and Omaha, Mr. Holdrege said that it now reached by contract to a point six miles west of Red Oak and that the building would be completed to that point this year.

He did not believe, however, that any further arrangements had been made of contracts let and thinks that double tracking will cease at that point for the year.

Arkansas Sends Peaches. From the Land of Cypress Knees and Pine Top Extract of Hilarity Comes Excellent Fruit.

Arkansas peaches, the first really good peaches to arrive on the Omaha market this season, are now being sold by commission dealers.

The ruling price is $1.75 per crate, with four-basket crates selling at $1.10. California peaches are to be scarce for the next two weeks, as the early varieties are about all gone and the later ones are not ready for the market.

It will be a week before the Colorado peaches arrive and in the meantime Missouri and Arkansas will be drawn upon for this fruit.

TIME GIVEN TO DISCUSSION

Lengthy Meeting of Central Labor Union at Which Little Work is Done.

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE VENTILATED

Plans for Celebration of Labor Day Are Talked Over in Detail—Fritz Wirth Arraigned on the Union Carpet.

There was a lively session of Central Labor union last night, at which much discussion was had, but little real business was transacted.

The arbitration committee's report on investigation of the sheet metal workers' complaint against George King was to the effect that the trouble had been settled to the satisfaction of both parties.

The latter part of the report was not satisfactory to the stage employees, who said that the trouble had not been settled to the satisfaction of the members of the former union requested permission for Mr. Wirth to explain the matter from his standpoint.

Mr. Wirth stated that he had no theater nor any use for a stage employee and wondered why he should be required to employ a stage employee when none was needed and none had been employed in twenty-two years.

He said that a man had been forced into his place who did nothing but draw his salary.

Need a Man Anyway. A member of the arbitration committee stated that every other beer garden and variety house in the city employed members of the theatrical workers' union the committee thought a man should be in the hall, even if there was no work for him to do.

W. H. Bell would not stand for the claims of the stage workers and said that he thought it was not right to force a man into a place where he was not needed; that the matter should be investigated fully before arbitrary action was taken.

The further the matter is looked into to force him to employ a man at $15 a week who might not do two hours' work in a week.

The report of the committee was accepted and Fritz Wirth will be required to hire the man.

The organization committee reported the organization of the plumbers' helpers.

A special committee reported that it had not succeeded in making a settlement of the work at the den of the Knights of Al-Sar-Ben and there will be a meeting Monday evening to take up the matter.

A communication was received from the Painters' union announcing that a fine of $100 had been assessed against Hugh McCaffery for continuously employing non-union painters and paperhangers.

A statement was made by W. H. Bell brought up the matter of the delegate Bell was misrepresenting facts. A hot and heavy argument followed this, in which every man had an opinion and expressed it at the top of his voice.

Delegates Kerrigan, Bell and others waxed warm and called each other names, while the president endeavored to keep the matter in a peaceful way.

Finally the matter was referred to the arbitration committee, with a dozen men on their feet scrambling for recognition.

The committee which has been soliciting advertisements in the Labor temple directory was requested to suspend operations until after Labor day.

To Entertain Delegates. A letter from the State Society of Labor and Industry regarding the entertainment of the delegates was referred to the Labor day committee amid so much confusion that no one knew what had been done.

When they realized what they had done the matter was taken from the labor day committee and referred to a special committee consisting of the president, the recording secretary and the financial committee.

L. V. Guye, from the Labor day committee, reported that the unions of Council Bluffs would unite with the unions of Omaha and South Omaha in a parade on September 10.

The parade will form in Omaha at 10:30 a. m. to march to Syndicate park, and that there will be a meeting of representatives of the local unions to arrange the order of the parade, this meeting to be held on the last Wednesday of August.

Delegate Charles Johnson from the Car Builders' union, announced that his union had decided not to march in the parade if it be true that W. J. Bryan, E. Rosewater and G. M. Hitchcock had been invited to speak.

As they were tired of having meetings and gatherings of this kind, they identified with politics would draw the wool over the eyes of the union men.

March as a Body. It was decided that the delegates to the Central Labor union maintain their organization in the parade, the union marching as a body, and that the president of the union act as marshal of the union. Ribbons to designate the members of the union were ordered printed.

Delegates from allied unions were admitted as follows: Electrical workers, S. A. Burkhouse; Fred Johnson, J. L. Carter; cigarmakers, J. D. Chubbuck; hodcarriers, Clint Jackson; stationery, Bremen, J. A. Bapst, M. M. Shirley, George Babcock.

SLIGHT CHANGES IN RULES

Knights of Columbus Admit Certain Brewery Employees to Insurance Membership.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 16.—The national council of the Knights of Columbus, in session at Cliff Haven, has changed the method of selection of state and national chaplains, making the office appointive instead of elective.

The appointment by the directors of a finance committee was empowered, the committee to have charge of all investments of less than $100,000.

The convention discussed the temperance clause in the constitution, and finally amended subdivision A of section 101 to read: "Proprietors of breweries and distilleries and all officers thereof and all employees thereof, except such as have no actual contact with the manufacture and sale thereof."

This change will enable a bookkeeper, for instance, in a brewery to become an insurance member of the Knights of Columbus. Subdivision B was also amended so as not to include druggists and their employees in the prohibited classes.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Police Asked to Assist Garbage Inspector in Interest of Public Health.

DRUGGISTS SLOW TO COMPLY WITH LAW

New Bridge Over Mud Creek is Now Open to Traffic—G. W. Robinson, Ex-Police Officer, Arrested in Kansas City.

The promiscuous dumping of garbage in alleys is causing the city officials considerable annoyance. In spite of all Inspector Jones can do persons persist in dumping refuse of all sorts in alleys and on vacant lots.

A request is to be made to the mayor to have the police keep watch for violations of the sanitary rules. It is thought that if a few arrests are made and those imposed the practice will be stopped.

Several vacant lots near the center of the city are used as a public dumping ground. Inspector Jones said yesterday that he had tried to put a stop to this practice, but could not catch anyone in the act. He suggested that an officer be detailed for this work for a few days with a view to making arrests for creating a nuisance.

Another violation of the city ordinances which is constantly going on is the burning of rubbish on paved streets. If this practice is continued arrests will follow.

The city ordinances governing the sanitary condition of the city are not now enforced to any alarming extent. The inspector hopes to be doing his duty, but the police do not assist, as it is thought they should.

Attorney Lambert Home. City Attorney W. C. Lambert returned yesterday from the Pacific coast, where he spent four weeks seeing the sights. He went to work at once upon his arrival.

While on the coast Mr. Lambert visited the salmon canneries at Astoria and says it takes only thirty minutes for a salmon to be canned after taken out of the water. From Astoria the party went to San Francisco by steamer and enjoyed the trip greatly.

The strike in San Francisco, said Mr. Lambert, has tied up all shipping and greatly loading at the docks were guarded by police. The return trip was made over the southern route.

Planking L. Street Viaduct. The planking of the L. street viaduct began yesterday. Planks of Oregon pine are being laid. It is expected that this flooring will last for some time. The grading of the west end of the bridge is nearing completion and the chances are that the viaduct will be opened for business in less than thirty days.

Druggists Are Slow. City officials are complaining because the druggists do not comply with the law and file applications for the sale of liquor. Only two or three have made any attempt to comply with the ordinance and the orders of the council in this respect, and it may be that the chief of police will be instructed to put a stop to the sale of liquor by druggists unless there is a ready compliance with the law. The fee for druggists is $10, but an advertisement the same as exacted from saloons must be inserted for two weeks in the newspaper having the largest circulation in the county.

Mud Creek Bridge. The bridge over Mud creek has been built by the Union Pacific Railroad company and is now open to traffic. On account of the building of the bridge by the railroad company it will be necessary for the mayor to veto the resolution letting a contract for this work to S. J. James. The Union Pacific is doing a great deal of work in all directions and will spend considerable money in the increasing of the bridge. Grading was going on yesterday for a change in the course of the creek. This is being done in order to allow more yardage for the road on its right of way.

Robinson Arrested. Captain Allie, acting chief of police, was notified yesterday that J. W. Robinson had been arrested in Kansas City and was being held on a charge of burglary. The police here. Robinson served until recently as a police officer. One day not long ago he struck Ed Carlisle on the head in an alleged unprovoked assault and was suspended by Chief Mitchell. Carlisle has filed a complaint charging assault with intent to do great bodily injury, and the prisoner will be brought back.

Wright, has returned to her home in Ohio. George T. East died at his home, Thirtieth and S streets, yesterday. Funeral services will be held at the family residence Monday.

The police are looking for Frank Campbell, who hired a rig from Ed W. Johnson, at day night. Campbell disappeared and descriptions of the rig have been sent to officers in neighboring cities.

Before the county commissioners today the North Omaha Improvement club will present a petition, signed by about 200 residents of the county and citizens of the northern part of the city, asking that the commissioners authorize the expenditure of the money recovered in the settlement of the claim of the county against the German Savings bank for the purpose of paving the extension of Thirtieth street from the northern limits of the city as far as the funds will permit.

It may be that the claims made for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription seem almost too great to women who in years of suffering have found no help in doctors or medicines. But it is to be remembered that the only claim made for "Favorite Prescription" which is not substantiated by thousands of women cured by its use. Its effects are truly wonderful. It wipes out past years of pain as a sponge wipes a slate.

Favorite Prescription is the great medicine for women. It establishes regularity, drives encumbering drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It is the best preparative for maternity, making the baby's advent practically painless.

When I wrote to you in March, asking advice as to what to do for my child, Mrs. Ella Reynolds, of Guilford, Me., wrote me: "I was expecting you to write me in a few days, but you did not. I was so glad to hear from you, and before I had taken it a week I was better, and before I had taken it a week my baby was born, and I was only sick three hours, and had Dr. Pierce's medicine for it has cured me."
