SCHLEY COUNSEL MUST KNOW

Will Ask if Howson Made Prejudiced Remarks as Reported. LETTER WILL BE SENT HIM FOR ANSWER. IT WILL THEN DEVOLVE ON PROSPECTIVE BOARD MEMBER TO DENY OR ACKNOWLEDGE STATEMENT—WORKSHOP FOR CONSTRUCTION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—During their conference with Acting Secretary Hackett today Messrs. Rayner and Wilson, attorneys for Admiral Schley, advised Mr. Hackett that a communication would be sent him this afternoon, relative to certain statements reported to have been made by Rear Admiral Howson, a member of the court of inquiry, in regard to the Schley-Sampson controversy. The letter to Secretary Hackett will enclose copies of interviews purporting to have come from Admiral Howson, stating among other things that the battle of Santiago was won by Sampson, while the latter's presence was unnecessary at that fight and that Schley deserved no credit for the victory.

While the request of the counsel of Admiral Schley for a list of witnesses will be submitted to Judge Advocate Lemay as a matter of fact, it has already been determined at the department that the request will be completed by the attorneys furnished Admiral Schley's lawyers. Possibly this will not be done until after the return of Captain Lemay to Washington. Lieutenant P. W. Wells, who was flag secretary to Admiral Schley during the West Indian campaign and ordered to Washington to assist Admiral Schley in the preparation of his case. This action was taken at the request of the admiral, who said he desired the assistance of Lieutenant Wells because of his knowledge of all the correspondence during the time he (Schley) was in command of the flying squadron.

The Navy department has decided that the Schley court of inquiry shall be held in the gunners' workshop at the navy yard. The workshop is a large, new building and well adapted to the requirements of the court.

Clemens rushed into the station about 12 o'clock last night with coat of and wild eyes, and while his hands did a wild mill act he told the police that he and Carl Farris were in a resort on the east side and that he had sent Tim Collins, a hack driver, with a receipt for $125. When Collins returned Farris rushed out to the hack, jumped in and both drove away. He wanted them arrested and wanted his money quick. The police were notified to bring in Collins.
