

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis sells drugs. Stockert sells carpets and rugs. Fine A. B. C. beer. Neumayer's hotel.

Get your work done at the popular Electric Laundry, 54 Broadway. Phone 187. Mrs. George W. Lane of First avenue has gone to Sterling, Ill.

Miss Fanny Brown is home from a visit with relatives and friends at various points in Indiana. J. C. Lange and daughter, Miss Zenta, have gone on a visit to Duluth and other northern points.

Mrs. F. E. Fuller and son Norman are home from a two months' visit with friends on the Pacific coast. Mrs. Thomas Metcalf and daughter Della are home from a visit of several months with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Lawrence Browne of Boone, Ia., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Messmore of Fourth street. Miss Brewer of Denver and Wayne Blanks of New Orleans are guests at the home of Miss Lane.

Mrs. H. H. Van Brunt and sons Harry and George are home from Madison Lake, Wis., where they spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallace and family of Bluff street have returned from Clear Lake, where they spent the summer.

The ladies of the Epworth League of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs will picnic at Manawa Thursday, September 13. Twin Brothers' campmeeting, independent Order of Odd Fellows, will meet this evening for work in the patriarchal degree.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Swan and daughter, Miss Lillian, are on a western trip, which included the Buffalo exposition. Miss Adel Carl of the city schools is home from Excelsior Springs and St. Joseph, where she spent the summer vacation.

John Jay Frailey, the Shakespearean orator of this city, will be the closing attraction September 11 at the mid-summer Chautauque at Excelsior Springs. Miss Vera Stark is home from St. Paul, Minn., where she spent the summer with relatives. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. F. Inden of St. Paul, who will visit here.

C. A. Atkins has resigned his position as local manager for the Nebraska Telephone company to accept a more lucrative position with the Erie Telephone company at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The County Board of Supervisors is slated to open the regular September session Monday, Sept. 3, at 10 o'clock. An adjournment will be taken to Tuesday an account of today being a holiday.

Meyer H. Pearlman, proprietor of the Novelty cloak store, located at the corner of Chicago and New York city, where he will purchase his supply of fall and winter goods from the most interesting trade in Council Bluffs and vicinity.

W. C. Unthank of the transfer department is spending the summer at a resort in the west. He will visit the Pan-American exposition and return by way of Cleveland, to attend the annual meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic.

William Baumgartel, flute soloist with Hubby's band, who has delighted thousands with his playing at Lake Manawa this summer, will leave today for St. Louis, where he has an engagement with Seymour's band at the exposition.

Mrs. Louise Hackmeier, who was brutally assaulted by an unknown tramp Saturday night, had recovered yesterday from the effects of the shock and the fright she received. The police have been unable to secure any clue to her assailant.

As far as is known, the fellow secured no booty, evidently being after money only. William Thompson, alias Bert Tracy, and W. G. Clark were arrested last evening charged with attempting to hold up Jim Johnson, a small boy, the employ of I. Mueel, an ice cream dealer. The alleged attempted holdup is said to have taken place in the alley back of Mueel's place of business.

Ass Akers, a stranger, was arrested last evening after an attempt to enter the Thielstraw residence on Pierce street. Akers raided the family's ice chest and was seen by Attorney General B. Snyder, who notified the police and caused the fellow's arrest. At the city jail Akers said he would have entered the house if he had been able.

N. Y. Plumbing Co., telephone 234. Night with Dudley Buck. A musical program, comprising selections from the popular compositions of Dudley Buck, was enjoyed by a large congregation in the Broadway Methodist church last night.

The choir of twenty-eight voices, under the direction of Ned Mitchell, was assisted by Mrs. L. P. Hayes and Mrs. Warner L. Welsh, sopranos, Miss Anna Getty, contralto, and Clyde B. Aitchison and Claus Lewis, basses.

ANOTHER MAIL EACH DAY

Business Men Rejoice in Improved Postal Facilities.

NEW ROUTE TO BE STARTED TODAY

Henry Frohardt Takes Charge of Route One and P. J. Emig of the Latest Number Fifteen.

The additional mail carrier recently granted by the department to the Council Bluffs postoffice will assume his duties today. Henry Frohardt has been appointed to the position from the substitute list and will take route No. 1, comprising all north of Broadway to city limits, between First street and North Broadway inclusive.

The appointment of an additional carrier has made necessary a revision of the routes and increases the number to fifteen. The installing of an additional carrier means considerable to the business men of the city, as it makes it possible for the carriers to have an additional delivery and collection, thus giving the implement and jobbing district five deliveries a day.

The carriers for this district will leave the offices at 7:30 and 9 o'clock in the morning and at 1:30, 3 and 4:45 in the afternoon. The remainder of the business section of the city will have four deliveries and collections. A large portion of the residence district which has been receiving one delivery daily will, under the new arrangement, have two.

The new route will be known as No. 11, and will be in charge of carrier P. J. Emig. It is practically a subdivision of route No. 1, but will also include territory that has not hitherto enjoyed the benefits of free delivery.

This makes the second additional carrier which has been secured by Council Bluffs during Postmaster Treynor's incumbency. The new route will be known as No. 11, and will be in charge of carrier P. J. Emig. It is practically a subdivision of route No. 1, but will also include territory that has not hitherto enjoyed the benefits of free delivery.

Light and Andover Are to Sail on Manawa Under Changed Regulations. The light wind which prevailed at Lake Manawa yesterday again prevented any decisive race between Kid and Andover, although two attempts were made to sail the course within the time limit of one hour and five minutes.

At a conference last evening between the St. Joseph yachtmen and the committee of the Council Bluffs Yacht club it was agreed to extend the time limit to one hour and fifteen minutes, the limit for second class boats. This agreement was reached after Messrs. Van Brunt, owners of Kid, had suggested that the time limit be taken off altogether, so that a race could be had irrespective of the vagaries of the wind.

The proposition would not accept this proposition and the time limit was extended ten minutes instead. Mr. Van Brunt agreed that if he should win the cup this time to return next year with a boat similar to the yacht sailed at Lake Manawa, as he conceded that it was almost impracticable to match two boats so entirely different as Kid and Andover are.

In the morning an attempt was made to sail the race, but as Kid, which led, took 40 minutes to make the course, one it was useless with the light wind prevailing to sail it the second time and expect to come within the time limit.

In the afternoon the time consumed in sailing the course once was 40 minutes. Kid crossed the line one minute behind Andover, but rapidly overhauled it and rounded the course the first time four minutes and fifty-seven seconds ahead of the Manawa boat. Both races were pretty exhibitions of sailing and the skippers of both yachts got all they could out of the light wind that was blowing.

Mr. Van Brunt left for St. Joseph last night as his presence is required at Lake Contrary today. This will handicap the crew of Kid somewhat, as Mr. Van Brunt was the skipper and sailingmaster of the St. Joe yacht.

Mr. Van Brunt and J. H. Van Brunt expressed themselves last night as greatly pleased with the treatment accorded them here and while disappointed at the failure to pull off a good race, had nothing but words of praise for the local yachtmen.

Marshall for Labor Day. Gas Lotts Succeeded by E. B. Gardiner of Typographical Union. E. B. Gardiner of the Typographical union will head the Council Bluffs contingent in the Labor day parade in Omaha this morning.

At the meeting of the labor organizations of the city yesterday afternoon Gas Lotts was deposed from the position of chief marshal and Gardiner selected in his place. The previous arrangements for a parade here before boarding the cars for across the river will prevail.

The parade will form at 8:30 a. m. on Willow avenue, right resting on Pearl street. The line of march will be as follows: Down Pearl to Fifth avenue, thence to Main street, thence to Broadway, thence to First street, continuing on Broadway to Chicago and Northwestern depot, where special cars will be provided for the trip to Omaha.

The parade will form in the following order: Trades and Labor assembly, Typographical union, Carpenters' union, Switchmen's union, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Car Repairers' union, Bricklayers' union, Carpenters' and Joiners' union, Plumbers' and Steam Fitters' union, Federal Labor union, letter carriers, Tailors' union, Retail Clerks' protective association, Journeymen Barber's union, Blacksmiths' and Horseshoers' union.

Gravel roofing, A. H. Read, 541 Broadway. Costly Fire Threatened. Excellent work on the part of the fire department last evening prevented what might have proved a costly blaze. Shortly after 8 o'clock a frame summer kitchen in the rear of the residence at 824 Third avenue, occupied by Fred M. Loomis and family, burst into flames.

10 from the family residence, 3003 California street, Omaha. Burtal will be in Walnut Hill cemetery in this city. Miss Kingsbury grew from childhood in Council Bluffs and had but recently removed to Omaha. She was 19 years of age.

EAGLES HAVE A HIGH FLY Thousands of People Applaud Their Sports at the Driving Park.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 people attended the Eagles' picnic at the Driving park yesterday and watched the members of the Council Bluffs aerial flap their wings and gloriously have a high-octave time.

There were sports galore, including base ball games, trotting races, bicycle races, sprinting for fat and lean men, fancy shooting exhibition and exhibition chariot races by members of the Norris and Rowe show, who were in the grandstands was transformed for the occasion into a miniature midway and there was plenty to eat and drink.

The events to which the most interest was attached were the trotting races with owners driving. In the first half-mile pacing race was won by Seth May, but he was set back, as his horse perished in trotting, and the event went to Al Wells with J. Booth second. Alberman Billy Boyer had intended entering in this race, but backed out at the last moment when it was whispered that Al Wells was provided with a spring and an electric battery in his cart.

The judges gave the time as 1:23, but the general opinion was that the race was not so hot as it appeared to be. The crowd anyhow enjoyed the race and that was what it was for.

In the half-mile trotting race John Crow carried off the first prize, with William Alstrand second and Jack Pinnell third. The time was given as 1:49.

The half-mile running race was won by William Woods' entry with Al Wells's blue blooded Kentucky second. Al Wells disappoined a large crowd of his friends by not appearing in the saddle himself as it was announced he would.

John Dye, a young man hailing from Kansas City, proved he was a bike rider of no mean caliber and won the quarter-mile, half-mile and two-mile events and captured second prize in the one mile, which was won by A. Turner of Omaha. The 100-yard foot race was won by W. C. Ross, with A. Utterback second. Time, 10 1/2.

Charles Scanlon carried off first prize in the fat men's race, with John Stockert a close second. The exhibition race between two of his ponies. The ball game between Dr. Wyland's Indians from Underwood and the Owl club of this city proved an easy victory for the Indians, 20 to 5.

FOUR MORE BODIES ARE FOUND Twenty-Five in Total of Known Death List for Steamboat Explosion.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—The bodies of four more victims of the steamboat explosion on the Delaware river last Wednesday, were found today, making a total of twenty-five bodies so far recovered. Three of them were identified as Clara Wells, aged 12; Nellie Ballentine, aged 23, and Elizabeth Gillison, aged 25.

Four persons are still missing and six lie at the morgue awaiting identification. The missing may be among the unidentified, as several of the bodies were burned beyond recognition.

REV. ROBERT BAGNELL CALLED Sioux City Clergyman is Wanted by Metropolitan Temple, New York.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Sept. 1.—Rev. Robert Bagnell, pastor of the First Methodist church of Sioux City, has been called to the chief pastorate of Metropolitan temple, New York. He has not accepted the call.

FAIR AND WARMER AGAIN That is the Nebraska Forecast for Today and Tomorrow's is Much the Same.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Forecast for Monday and Tuesday: For Nebraska and Kansas—Fair and warmer Monday; Tuesday fair; southerly winds. For Iowa and Missouri—Fair Monday and Tuesday; northeast winds.

For Illinois—Fair Monday and Tuesday; warmer Tuesday in northeast portion; light north winds. For North Dakota—Fair Monday; warmer in eastern portion; Tuesday showers and cooler; variable winds.

For South Dakota—Fair Monday; warmer in eastern portion; Tuesday cooler and partly cloudy; southern winds, becoming variable. For Colorado, Wyoming and Utah—Generally fair Monday and Tuesday; southerly winds. For Montana—Fair in eastern, showers and cooler in western portions; Tuesday showers in eastern portion; winds becoming westerly.

For Arkansas—Fair Monday, except showers in southeast and warmer in western portion; Tuesday fair, variable winds. For Oklahoma and Indian Territory—Fair Monday and Tuesday; east winds. For New Mexico and Arizona—Fair Monday and Tuesday; variable winds. For Western Texas—Fair Monday and Tuesday; variable winds.

Local Record. OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA, Neb. Official record of temperature and precipitation compared with the corresponding day of the last three years:

CANADA'S CRACKS ARRIVE

Other Riflemen and the Officials Welcome Them as Seagriff.

TEAMS FOR IRELAND-AMERICA CONTEST Are to Pick Them Today—Hilton Trophy Match First.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Fresh from their work on the Ratcliff range during the last week the Canadian riflemen arrived at Seagriff, N. J., today and are quartered alongside of the Irish team in the front row of tents, near the clubhouse on the New Jersey state camp grounds.

The representative riflemen of the Dominion of Canada received a hearty reception when they arrived. Governor Voorhes, General Spencer and the majority of the military and civilian rifle shooters met the visitors at the railroad station and greeted them enthusiastically.

Major J. Amos of the Thirtieth regiment of Hamilton, Ont., is in charge of the Canadian marksmen. Tomorrow the Canadian visitors will compete in the Hilton trophy match, which will be shot in stages at 200, 500 and 600 yards. It is expected that this will bring out the best points of the newly arrived marksmen, as all the best military shooting teams of the United States will be competitors.

Captain Wilson of the Irish team and General Spencer of the New Jersey Rifle association will make known tomorrow the names of their respective teams in the Ireland-Canada match, which will take place next Friday.

Governor Voorhes and General Spencer have arranged for the disposition of the Ulster rifle team and a badge valued at $50, donated by William T. Braithwaite of the Ulster rifle team, to the New Jersey State Rifle association. The Ulster rifle team will become the property of the member of the New Jersey rifle team who shall make top score twice, not necessarily in succession, in the Hilton trophy match, and the Braithwaite badge will be awarded to the man who shoots highest marks twice in the interstate military contest for the Solator of Marathon bronze trophy.

FEW HEAR THE EXPLANATIONS Half-Hundred Men in the Crowd at South Chicago's Steel Workers' Meeting.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Not over fifty men attended the meeting tonight called by the steel workers of South Chicago to explain to the other labor unions the reason they desired to obey the orders of President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association. The Iron Molders and Horseshoers' unions were the only outside organizations that sent representatives to the meeting, although all the labor unions in Chicago had received invitations.

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

RIVER POWER AT KEOKUK Iowa Plan to Harness Mississippi for Benefit of Manufacturing Plants. KEOKUK, Ia., Sept. 1.—Preparations are being made at Keokuk to utilize the enormous power of the Mississippi river that is now going to waste. Before reaching Keokuk the river flows swiftly through a gorge in the limestone that is twelve miles long and from 80 to 150 feet deep. The current there is so rapid that river boats are unable to pass through except at high water.

HICKEY SAYS STRIKE IS LOST Former Vice President Tells Bayview Lodge as Much and Scores Shaffer.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 1.—Charges that the Amalgamated association has misrepresented the attitude of the United States Steel corporation toward organized labor in order to get the men out on strike were made by former Vice President Hickey at the meeting of the New Jersey State Rifle association, which he reported, in a cool, unimpassioned manner. Mr. Hickey gave the members the result of his trip to Pittsburgh, where he went for the purpose of investigating the situation in regard to the steel strike and the situation as it came up before Hickey was that the strike appears to be lost and it may take years to repair the damage to the association which has already been done.

Mr. Hickey's report was listened to by all the men with respectful attention. He made no recommendation to the lodge, but to its future action, but it is believed that his speeches may cause a change in sentiment not only in Bayview but in other places in the Fourth district.

Nearly all the members of the lodge were present and the speaker was called a number and he was reported to be away working in other places turned up in time to attend the meeting. Among these was Corresponding Secretary Dole, who had been working for the Republican Iron and Steel company in Chicago. President Joseph Redford of the local lodge presided at the meeting and when it had concluded he stated that there had been no vote taken, although no one had questioned the accuracy of any of Mr. Hickey's statements. That his remarks were reported in full to the general officers of the association and that it may result in bringing Associate Secretary Tighe here again or some other representative of the grand lodge, was the belief of many of the members of the association.

Will Award Officers Order. President Redford stated that so far it appeared to be the opinion of the majority that the men should not return to work until they had been ordered back by the national officers. Mr. Hickey had nothing to say of the conference in Pittsburgh with President Shaffer and other officers. The conference had definitely resulted in giving to which President Shaffer was charged with violating the constitution in ordering the strike. Many other matters dealing with the past history of the association were brought up for discussion. Hickey's mission in the east was mainly to ascertain the exact situation of the strike and learn every detail of the New York meeting.

The object of the meeting, said President Redford, was not to vote upon the question of returning to work, but to listen to the report of Messrs. Hickey and Cooper, who have been in the east to see what is the real situation. The strike has now been on here for two weeks and during that time the members of the lodge here have heard absolutely nothing about the real situation from the national officers. All that we have known we have seen in the newspapers and last week a number of the members had a meeting and decided to send Messrs. Cooper and Hickey back east to hear absolutely nothing about the real situation, but I have no idea what the action of the lodge will be or whether there will be any action taken.

Hickey Makes Censure Thorough. Mr. Hickey opened his remarks with a review of the conferences of the representatives of the United States Steel corporation preceding the strike in which he said that Messrs. Morgan and Schawb often tried their policy toward organized labor. Mr. Hickey went into these details for the purpose of showing that Secretary Tighe and President Shaffer had misrepresented the facts when they appealed to the members of the association to strike on the ground that the steel corporation was determined to crush organized labor and ruin the Amalgamated association. He maintained that the proposition offered by Mr. Morgan had been fair and should have been accepted right there by President Shaffer if he had had the interests of his fellow workmen at heart.

Hickey reported that 72 per cent of the mills were now working and that, in his opinion, it was practically lost. "I obtained these facts from a man high in office in the east," said Mr. Hickey, "who was present at the conference, and I afterward confirmed the statements by the members of the executive board, Judge Gray, former president of the Federal Steel company, who was present at the conference and he is now a high official of the United States Steel corporation. He himself was in favor of signing the scale for all the mills in the combine, but this did not meet with the approval of Mr. Schawb, who thought it too radical a move."

Best Offer Ever Made. Mr. Morgan then offered Shaffer four additional mills for which he was willing to sign the scale as an experiment, and then he told Mr. Shaffer that if the organization kept faith in these four mills and lived up to the agreement he would pledge his word that in two years every mill in the combine would be included in the contract with the Amalgamated. This was the most reasonable offer that has ever been made to the association and it was clearly the duty of President Shaffer to have accepted it. Then, instead of doing this, he turned it down flatly in a speech in which he declared that all must be signed or none. He apparently wished to impress the officials of the association with the belief that the association would compel them to sign, whether they wanted to or not. The corporation would not be forced in this manner and they broke off the conference. Since that time there has been no conference or offer of a compromise and the nearest anyone representing the association has been able to get to Mr. Morgan or Mr. Schawb was by long distance telephone to their private secretaries."

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

and should have been accepted right there by President Shaffer if he had had the interests of his fellow workmen at heart. Mr. Hickey reported that 72 per cent of the mills were now working and that, in his opinion, it was practically lost. "I obtained these facts from a man high in office in the east," said Mr. Hickey, "who was present at the conference, and I afterward confirmed the statements by the members of the executive board, Judge Gray, former president of the Federal Steel company, who was present at the conference and he is now a high official of the United States Steel corporation. He himself was in favor of signing the scale for all the mills in the combine, but this did not meet with the approval of Mr. Schawb, who thought it too radical a move."

Best Offer Ever Made. Mr. Morgan then offered Shaffer four additional mills for which he was willing to sign the scale as an experiment, and then he told Mr. Shaffer that if the organization kept faith in these four mills and lived up to the agreement he would pledge his word that in two years every mill in the combine would be included in the contract with the Amalgamated. This was the most reasonable offer that has ever been made to the association and it was clearly the duty of President Shaffer to have accepted it. Then, instead of doing this, he turned it down flatly in a speech in which he declared that all must be signed or none. He apparently wished to impress the officials of the association with the belief that the association would compel them to sign, whether they wanted to or not. The corporation would not be forced in this manner and they broke off the conference. Since that time there has been no conference or offer of a compromise and the nearest anyone representing the association has been able to get to Mr. Morgan or Mr. Schawb was by long distance telephone to their private secretaries."

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

Hickey accepted President Shaffer of having printed a constitution for the Amalgamated association in which three important clauses were eliminated. He said that President Shaffer assumed an attitude of defiance during the Pittsburgh conference last week and had little to say in answer to questions put to him. The other members of the executive board, however, seemed to be in accord with Shaffer's views.

BIG REMOVAL SALE

September 10 we will remove to our new location, 17 and 19 South Main Street. From today you can buy anything in our store at a Big Sacrifice as prices in some instances have been cut squarely in two. An especial cut in prices has been made in

CLOAKS, SUITS, JACKETS, GOLF SKIRTS, UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, MILLINERY, WAISTS, ETC.

This great sale will save you money. Come in and inspect our goods and get prices. We want to clean out everything to avoid moving the goods and the people will get the benefit.

NOVELTY CLOAK STORE, 536 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

will be the most profitable ration for her. Careful arrangements are made that no drugs or medicine are given any of the cows without the consent of the superintendent. As each cow is milked the milk is given to the superintendent, who weighs and samples it. The daily samples are mixed and tested each week by the Babcock tester. The cream from one day's milking of each herd is churned once each week and precautions are taken in testing and sampling to insure accuracy. The value of the dairy product is figured at 22 cents a pound for butter, allowing 85 per cent of butter fat to the pound of butter. One of the most interesting things in connection with the test is the exhibition of samples of butter from the cream of the different herds. No artificial coloring matter is permitted and it is evident from the showing made that the Guernseys, in particular, do not need any.

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

The following table shows how the various herds stand after three months of the contest. This statement includes the totals of each herd up to and including the week ending August 31:

Prizes are offered as follows: "A prize shall be awarded for the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter fat considered, as determined by the Babcock test." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit, butter alone considered, as determined by the churn." "For the herd showing the greatest net profit in total solids and in loss and gain of live weight."

