Grieved Ruler Thaws Out After Exchange of Addresses, in Which Their is Much Diplomatic Sparring.

BERLIN, Sept. 4 .- Emperor William's recention of the Chinese mission of expiation headed by Prince Chun, which took place today at Poisdam, was marked with all the severity consistent with an audience nomipally friendly.

The Chinese imperial envoy on entering the palace was not accorded a salute by the Garde du Corps. The emperor received him seated. The buttons and epaulettes of his majesty's white uniform were en veloped in crape. Prince Chun bowed thrice on entering and leaving. Emperor William remained seated during the reading of the Chinese address. Afterward however, he relaxed his stern demeanor and welcomed the envoy courteously and subsequently, accompanied by his adjutant, he called upon Prince Chun at the Orangerie. Later in the evening the emperor, Prince Chun and a dozen members of the the Spree.

The emperor had evidently arranged the entire ceremony with the view of impressing Prince Chun that the ceremony meant explation for a foul crime and only through explation had Prince Chun acquired the right to be treated with princely honors. Not until after the ceremony did the atmesphere change. Then the troops outside saluted, the bands played and the Hussars escorted Prince Chun back to the Orangerie.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.-Terms of peace in the steel strike were discussed at length | National Association of Manufacturtoday at a secret conference, at which sat officials of the Steel corporation, leaders of union labor and officials of the civic federation. Guards were resorted to in order to preserve the privacy of the proceedings, but it was evident that no conclusion was reached, and the decision either to terminate or continue the strike must be made by the strikers. The nature of the Amalgamated association conference held by the labor leaders who participated in the discussion is not known, but it is believed they made an outline of terms for President Shaffer and that they will place before him and his associates the terms resubmitted by President Schwab of the United States

It was also apparent at the conclusion of the discussion that if the conference is to peace taken, the strikers must take the initiative. NEW YORK, Sept. 5 .- The World Says: From private sources it is learned that Columbia has been chosen to defend the America's cup and in consequence of this decision there will be no race today."

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 5 .- The representative of the Associated Press was unable to confirm the report published in New York that Columbia had been chosen to defend the America's cup. The committee at its meeting last night expressed no opinion as to the selection of a defending yacht. The question before it was the arrangement of the racing problem and the lecision was not to have a race on Thurs-The trade relations with Cuba were also day. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 4.-Constitution sailed a capital race today against Columbia over a course fifteen miles to windward probable that some western city will be and back in a breeze whose force averaged about eight knots, its greatest power being twelve knots near the finish line. BIGGEST OF POOL ROOM RAIDS time. Constitution beating its rival boat Columbia won by seven seconds corrected over the course by forty-five seconds. This does not helude the allowance of twentyone seconds or more with which Constitution started. Had it not been handicapped it would have won. On the windward work it gained on Columbia thirty-two seconds when close to the finish line its balloon aloft. Columbia was compelled to haul stitution refused to be controlled and flut-

Hampered by Tangled Sail.

In taking in spinnakers about twenty and it took several minutes to get it on While flapping aloft the balloon jib WILL KEEP OUT OF NEBRASKA topsail had no opportunity to exert its utmost drawing power. All this time Columbia's ballooner was doing good work and its victory was due to good judgment. There is no question that the old main sail and the altered head sails of Constitution which it carried today had much to do with the im-

The handicap at the start seemed to be Constitution allowed itself to be forced on the wrong side of the line, was compelled to gybe around short on its heel and then to take the other cud of the line, a deadly handicap. This and the splitting of its balloon jib topsail certainly lost it the race. Had it not been for these mishaps Constitution would have beaten Columbia by a small margin, beyond the one minute and eleven seconds time allowance over the thirty-mile course. There will be no race for the yachts tomorrow and, while the challenge committee held a meeting this evening, no announcement of future races was made. This morning in Newport harbor there was scarcely a breath of air stirring. There seemed little prospect of a race until 1:30 p. m., when a light southwesterly wind set in. This soon freshened into breeze and the outlook seemed flattering for a good race. Constitution, with Nat Herreshoff on board, in addition to the regular amateurs and professionals, was the first to slip its moorings at noon and beat out to the starting line. At 1:40 p. m. sails were hoisted on the Narada announcing that the course would be south southwest fifteen miles to windward and return. The sea was smooth. The from the bank, burying a force of laborers starboard tack with Columbia to windward. The sailing master of Columbia repeated his trick of bearing right down on his rival as if to ram it, shaking the wind out of its sails and then luffing up and clearing it by the smallest of margin. The manouver he repeated three times and finally luffed across the line forty-seven seconds after the starting gun. Constitution had plenty of room to tack, but not caring to come into such close quarters with the enemy Deny the Charges Against Them gybed and crossed the line twenty-two seconds after the handicap gun,

Columbia Has Advantage.

Both yachts stood on the port tack toward the Narragausett shore, Columbia in the lead. For nearly half an hour the yachts stood on the port tack, with the wind freshening as they sailed shoreward, until it attained about a nine-knot force. At 1:23 Constitution went on the starboard tack, followed immediately by Columbia By this time the sails of Constitution had afternoon at which it was decided that none dence. The evidence differs little from the stretched and it was seen that the old mainsail was far superior to the new one and Shaffer gave the word. Constitution again at 1:50 went on PACKING HOUSES ARE IMMUNE the port tack, standing than the minutes they held this board and then ensued a succession of short tacks. At 2:09 Columbia for the time on the port tack, crossed the bows of Constitution about an eighth of a mile ahead. For nearly an hour the yachts continued to make short tacks. The result was far different from the same manouvers en Monday when Columbia beat its rival nearly five minutes on a heat out to windward of ten miles. Constitution gained a board tack it had considerably diminished the gap. Quite a fleet of steam yachts
