Excursion Boat Owner Denies Responsibility for Accident to Caleb

Haley, Former Employe.

The owners of the Jacob Richtman, now in charge of the United States marshal. have filed answer to the libel of Caleb Haley in his suit to secure $10,400 for injuries received by an explosion on that boat in the summer of 1900.

The respondents deny responsibility for the accident, claiming that the explosion was not the result of any carelessness on the part of the owners or employee and could not have been provided against, and in support of this contention they assert that the boat had been inspected by the Fosters 0 1 0 0 2 0 2 0 1-612 1 Superior 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 0-3 4 5 government inspectors at St. Louis and pronounced sound.
