Holds Public Reception During the Exposition and is Accorded Great Ovation-Passes Through with Invalid Wife This Spring.

President McKinley's charming person ality and eloquent oratory are by no means unknown to Omahans, for he has visited this city four times within the last ten years, twice before and twice since his election to the presidency. The first of these four visits was in August, 1892, when Major McKinley was governor of Obio. It was on the evening of August 5, just after the republican state convention at Lincoln had nominated Lorenzo Crounse for governor, that Major McKinley fired the opening gun in a great tional exposition. It was signalized by the national and state campaign in Omaha.

McKiniey's name had at that time at-tained such eminence that no less than 20,000 people gathered on the High school grounds on that night to hear the Ohioan more people could not find foothold within speak. A large platform had been erected at the southeast corner of the High school and from there Major McKinley delivered an address that held the close attention of the multitude gathered about him for nearly two hours A report says "the proceedings were uninterrupted, save by the rumble of the cable trains and the applause form from which he was to speak. Presithat rose and fell under the spell of the speaker's magnetic utterances."

General Manderson, General Cowin, Edward Rosewater and a few other friends.

It was estimated that fully 12,000 people crowded into the Coliseum that night to hear the man who was then looked upon as the nation's next president. The great A. Miles, Senator John M. It was 8 o'clock when the Ohioan entered the hall and passed down the aisle to recrive one of the greatest ovations ever given to a public man in this city. When the applause and cheering subsided Senator Thurston introduced the speaker, concluding the introduction as follows: "He (Mc-Kinley) is now fighting to save the life of American industry, as he then fought to save the life of the American commonwealth. The author of the Wilson bill is McKinley holds his levees and receives his ovations from the people of the United I have the honor to present to president alighted from the train and mixed this magnificent body of my fellow citizens the next president of the United States."

Governor McKinley spoke little more than an hour. Save for a brief reference to the pension question, he confined himself strictly to the tariff. After his address he was given an informal luncheon at the Millard hotel and the following morning he left for the east.

At Omaha Exposition.

Inflammatory Harangue Against the Government Draws Motley Crowd and Shuts Of Passage-Threats Agninst the Police.

George Baird and R. McCaffrey were arrested last night by Officers Shields, Drummy and Mitchell at Sixteenth and Chicago streets for causing the blockade of the sidewalk and street. Baird has been making socialistic speeches at this place for several weeks and frequent complaints have been made of the streets being blocked. Last night 200 or 300 people had congregated. Officer Shields attempted to disperse the crowd and requested Baird to cease speaking. This the latter refused to do and his arrest followed. As soon as Baird was arrested B. McCaffrey mounted a box and proceeded to talk. The officers then arrested him. It is said that the speakers have been making highly inflammatory speeches and were swearing at the people and each other in a general tirade. Before the arrests were made last night a crowd of men was discussing the shooting of President McKinley, when a man walked up and shouted:

the speakers were very wild and excited

"Yes, and more of them will be shot be fore many days."

Before he could be captured the man ran toward Jefferson square and disappeared in the crowd.

About twenty-five socialists followed Baird and McCaffrey to the station and were very indignant at the action of the police. It was only after being threatened with arrest that they dispersed. Chief Donahue said last night: "I have no objection to these people speaking, but I cannot allow them to blockade the street." Baird and McCaffrey were released on their own recognizance to appear this morning at 9 o'clock. After their release about 100 socialists congregated at Jefferson square and expressed themselves very forcibly concerning the arrests. They said the country was ruined and that free speech was denied the people. It is their intention to have another meeting tomorrow night, when they say they will have a "crowd present which the police will be unable to disperse." The police say they intend to put a stop to public speakers blockading the streets and sidewalks, no matter what may be the subject of their discourse.

I was sore over the pit of my stomach, and was a physical wreck. I was constantly spitting mucus, as the mucus would rise in my throat and mouth all the time.

"I got hold of one of Dr. S. B. Hartman's pamphlets and saw Peruna recommended. and I purchased some and began to take it, and from the very start I commenced to improve. When I commenced to take Peruna I weighed 140 pounds. After taking five bottles I am as strong as ever and weigh 160, and can do as good a day's work as I ever could. I recommend Peruna to all suffering humanity.

the world what Peruna has done for me. Burgin. Do not accept any substitutes for Peruna. of the best doctors we have in our country. Do not allow any one to convince you that and they did me but little good, if any. there is anything "just as good." There When I began with your medicine I could is only one systematic catarrh remedy not lie down at night, my cough was so and that is Perupa.
