JAMES MACARTHUR IS HANGED

Murderer of Captain Oliver Dotson Pays Penalty for Crime at Butte, Mont.

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 6.—A special from Deer Lodge, Mont., says: James MacArthur, alias James Fleming, was hanged here this morning for the murder of Captain Oliver Dotson last February. The execution was witnessed by nearly every sheriff in the state and a large number of invited guests.

The crime for which James Fleming suffered the death penalty is one of the most remarkable in the history of criminality, involving a most revolting and diabolical conspiracy.

On August 8, 1899, Eugene Cullman, an English lawyer, was given possession of the body of the late Captain Dotson. The body was taken to the city of Butte, Mont., and placed in the hands of the coroner.

Early in January of this year Fleming was released. On February 15 he was seen at Washington, D. C., in the company of a man who was believed to be the assassin of the late Captain Dotson.
