LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

Over 7,000 persons are employed in the fishing industry on the Mississippi river and its minor tributaries.

The United States government is having a machine constructed at Washington that will displace thirty expert mathematicians in the bureau of coast survey, which calcu-lates the movements of the tides.

Harry White, secretary of the Unite Garment Workers, has brought suit for $19 000 damages against two members of the union at Rochester, N. Y., for charging him with having sold out a strike at Rochester The Machinists' Journal, the official organ of the International Association of Machin-ists, estimates that up to the first of this month the nine-hour strike of the union has proved successful in 75 per cent of the shops involved, compromised in 15 per cent and lost in the sector.

lost in 10 per cent. The new automatic weaving loom, in-vented by a mechanic in Burnley, England, is more of a revolutionizer than was at first reported. One person now operating four looms can easily attend to eight, and at the same time produce 12% per cent more per loom by the obviating of stoppages than under the present system.

under the present system. The strike of the car builders of the Dela-ware. Lackawanna & Western company at Scranton. Pa. was declared off. The Buf-falo, Dover & Kensington strikers having agreed to ablde by the action of the Scran-ton strikers, this means the strike on the whole system is at an end. The men went out May 4 for a nine-hour day at a ten-hour rate. They return without gaining any concessions. any concessions

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers never solicits a member, yet a large ma-jority of the locomotive engineers of the United States belong to this union. The total membership of this organization is 27.628. Every member of the engineers' union is required to take out life or accident in-surance in the company which is main-tained by the order. The policies run from $1,600 to $4,600 as the upper limit.

$1,500 to $4,500 as the upper limit. "Let me look into your hat, please. I must also inspect your clothing. Now, take off your shoes, while I look inside for the union label." Hereafter delegates to the New York Central Federation union cannot pass into its weekly meetings without ex-amination on the above lines, spoken by the sergeant-at-arms, who is instructed by resolution adopted three months ago to in-spect every labor representative's hat, cost, pants and shoes and to deprive him of both seat and yote in the body unless he cast show by the label that his clothing is union made,

And forgotten vows come back with the blies that we used to know, When she thought them true and I though It too, a long and a long ago.

After the lost are lost, and after the dead what makes us prone to forget but the tenderest words they said?

Why is it we ponder no more on their mor tal mistakes and faults. While memory, tearful and just, their vir-tues only exaits? Away on the moonlit hills the winds where

Away on the moonlit hills the winds where the dark trees nod
Chant their evening bynn that the heavens declare the glory of God.
And the katydids sing to the rose, and the filles in languor blow.
While I face the ghost of a dream that died and the follies of long ago.
