"I don't know whether is was or not. A chemical or a bacteriological examination of the remaining bullets in the pistol will be necessary to conclude that. This conclusion will be very difficult to reach for many reasons. All the tissues through which the bullet passed are dead. This is very remarkable indeed. The area of the dead flesh in the stomach was perhaps as great as a silver dollar in circumference. Dr. Wasdin, the Marine hospital expert, was strongly inclined to the opinion that the bullet had been polsoned." "Just a word in conclusion," said Dr Mann. MANY CHANGES IN CABINET

Only Three Remain in Office of Original Members of McKinley's Official Household.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 .- Of the eight men who entered President McKinley's capinet at the beginning of his first administration only three remain. These are Secretary of the Treasury Gage, Secretary of the Navy Long and Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. The greatest number of changes has taken place in the State department and the Department of Justice. Three men have served as the head of the State department since March 4, 1897. The State department since March 4, 1597. first of these was the late Hon. John Sherman, who surrendered his place in the senate to become the premier of Mr. Mc-Kinley's first cabinet.
