PROCLAMATION OF MAYOR.

To the Patriotic Citizens of Omaha:

Our hopes and our fears over the heroic struggle for life of our beloved president are at an end. The assassin's builet has completed its deadly mission. A noble life has gone out and the people of this great nation for a third time are plunged into mourning by the act of a cowardly assassin. The name of William McKinley is now enghrined in the hearts of a patriotic people, forever to be associated with the honored names of Abraham Lincoln and James A. Garfield.

It is fitting and proper that the citizens To the Patriotic Citizens of Omaha:

The Board of Governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben held a special meeting yesterday and decided that the carnival will be declared off on the day of the president's funeral, whenever that may be, and it was further determined that in case the funeral is held on the date set for parades or of the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, these events will be postponed until the following day. PASS FROM MOSES UNTO JOSHUA.

Dr. Stmon Preaches on the Effects of The New Year services at the Harney street temple yesterday morning were of an impressive character, long to be remembered. Solemn as these services naturally are, yet yesterday they seemed unusually sad. Rabbi Simon, realizing the situation, converted the exercises into a memorial service in memory of our beloved president. The regular "silent devotion" was prefaced by the following few words from Rabbi Simon:

"It is told in our literature that when the great Rabbi Jehuda passed away and his pupils had not the heart to announce it to the world, it fell to the task of a certain scholar to break the sad news gently, and he said: The angels on high and men below were contending for the ark of the covenant. And the angels won." Let us take his bones-yea-the lesson of a beautiful life nobly lived. The example of a patriotic citizen, the exemplary devotion of a loving husband! National Calamity. On receipt of news of the president's death Bishop Scannell of the Roman Catholic diocese of Omaha issued the following order, directed to all priests under his jurisdiction:

OMAHA, Sept. 14.—The great crime, which has deprived the nation of the chief magistrate, has also outraged in a special manner the Divine law, while it is, at the same time, the manifestation of a spirt of lawlessness that is a grave menace to the public welfare.

As an act of reparation for so great a crime, and to beg the Divine protection for our country, you are requested to say after mars each day, for a month, five Our Fathers and five Hail Marys.

"The president's last words were characteristic of his whole life," said the mayor. "His career was guided and directed by a supreme power. 'Thy will, not ours, be done' was the prayer which William Mc Kinley uttered in life and death. It will always be associated with his memory." "The death of the president should have no material effect on the nation." said General John C. Cowin. "In William McKinley the United States loses one of its noblest ons. He cannot well be spared. Such men as the lamented president form the nation's strength. His life was so admirable that every loyal citizen, regardless of political affiliation, mourns his death. Mr. Roosevelt is a capable man and a man in whom the nation has confidence. He will make an excellent president."

In speaking of the effect the president's death will have on the nation Senator Joseph H. Millard said: "Président Mc-Kinley's wise administration of affairs has left the nation in such an excellent condition that his removal should not bring about any evil effects. The nation can ill afford to lose such a wise executive, but Mr. Roosevelt has had wide experience. He will probably ask the McKinley cabinet to remain with him and I apprehend but little change in the policy of the administration.

Senator Millard will probably attend the funeral. Congressman E. J. Burkett wired to the senator and the two men will doubtless go to Washington together. Mayor Moores will accompany Governor Savage to Washington in case the governor decides to go. Governor Savage and his staff had planned to go to Buffalo on Nebraska day, but it is likely that their plans will be changed that they may be present in Washington next week to pay tribute to the memory of the dead president. General Charles H. Manderson, who is a warm personal friend of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley, is in Buffalo at present and will doubtless attend the funeral. General John C. Cowin will probably join the Omaha party at the funeral.

Many hair preparations are "fake" hecause they are merely scalp irritants. They often cause a dryness, making the hair brittle, and, finally, lifeless. Dandruff is the cause of all trouble with hair. It is a germ disease. The germ makes cuticle scales as it digs to the root of the hair. where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing the hair to fall out. To cure dandruff, the germ must be killed. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Newbro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ, thereby leaving the hair to grow luxuriantly.
