BABY SHOW MAKES A HIT

Prize Contest of Beauty and Weight in Ak-Sar-Ben Carnival Grounds.

SHAM BATTLE A FEATURE FOR TODAY

Everything is in readiness for the Electrical Parade Wednesday Night-New Midway Attractions Added to the List.

PARADE DATES.

Wednesday—Daylight parade. Wednesday Night—Electrical parade—the big feature of the week.

Two hundred little tots lined up on three parades, and only one of them cried!

The baby show was one of the big features of the carnival yesterday. Fond mamma by the score crowded through the gates, each confident that her own little one was the prettiest baby in the world.

It was a new thing for the babies. They tugged at their pink toes, laughed, waved their chubby little arms, sucked their thumbs, made goo-goo eyes at each other and evidently thought it great fun.

The prize offered for the handsomest baby boy, between 2 and 3 years old, was won by Master Harvey Bryant, 817 North Twentieth street.

Next the handsomest baby boy, not over 1 year old, was Edgar George Harrison, 323 North Twenty-eighth street, South Omaha.

The handsomest baby girl between 1 and 2 years old, was Miss Lenora Shepard, 1504 Binney street.

The handsomest baby girl not over 1 year old, the judges said, was Miss La Rue James 1814 Webster street.

The handsomest baby girl between 1 and 2 years old was Miss Helen Barber, 2915 South Twenty-fourth street, South Omaha.

The handsomest baby girl not over 1 year old, the judges said, was Miss Myrtle Hill, 3104 Leavenworth street.

The handsomest twins under 3 years old were Herbert and Hertha Schroder, Twenty-first and J streets, South Omaha.

The sweetest prize was given to Abigail Rickerby, 624 South Sixteenth street.

One poor mother said: "My baby has the most beautiful disposition you ever saw and I didn't see why they didn't give it a prize."

Another said: "My husband forgot to wind the clock this morning and I didn't get down until it was nearly all over."

Last night the street illuminations were turned on in full force and the greater part of the downtown district was as light as day.

The illuminations on the city hall, the Bee building, the court house and numerous other prominent structures were exceedingly pretty.

The street illumination is on a more elaborate scale this year than last—and good critics say that it wasn't half bad last year.

Many Features Today. The sham battle which is to take place on Douglas street near Seventeenth street this afternoon, advance announcement of which is made in another column, is expected to prove a great attraction.

Last night the carnival grounds were crowded more than at any other time since the opening. It was an orderly crowd and the big policemen patrolling here and there had nothing to do but look yet it was not a dull crowd by any means, and more than one pretty young woman will be busy for

TRYING DAY FOR SHAFFER

Protesting and Angry Strikers Besiege His Office Constantly.

THREATEN TO FIGHT ON SINGLE HANDED

Declare They Will Heed Strike Order if It Sacrifices Unionism, but the Defeated President Only Laughs at Them.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 16.—It was a turbulent day for President Shaffer here. Several officials of the Amalgamated association. The headquarters of the organization were crowded today from morning until evening with delegations of strikers awaiting word from the leader regarding the settlement of the strike. President Shaffer arrived in his office early in the day and remained until 6 o'clock tonight. He had difficulty in seeing all who came and finally arranged to see individual delegations from each lodge under promise that what they learned from him was to remain secret, except when the subject was brought before the lodge and in the lodge room. The callers at the general offices were all more or less excited and many were deeply incensed. Many of the strikers declared they would not respect the order calling the strike off until they were given full particulars of the settlement. Others were calling boldly for the resignation of President Shaffer and another class of strikers was demanding their withdrawal from the organization. The most worrying feature to President Shaffer was the presence of newspaper men in the headquarters. He finally ordered them from the building. His order was obeyed, but on his promise that an official statement of the settlement would be given out later some of the men withdrew. The statement was not given out after all.

Shaffer Shuns Public. At 6 p. m. President Shaffer left for his home. He looked neither to the right nor to the left. He seemed depressed and wanted to avoid the attention of the press. The organization tried to get a meeting called among the angry men and making a plea for quietness and patience. They insisted that the settlement would not prove so bad as reported. Some of the strikers were ready to give any inkling of the terms granted or how it affected the men on strike. Those who were finally permitted to see President Shaffer departed from headquarters looking decidedly displeased and muttering much against what had been told them.

Before leaving his office President Shaffer announced that he did not think it was necessary to make a statement. He said he was satisfied that some would be forthcoming from the manufacturers, as they had given him assurances that they would not reveal the conditions of the deal. One of the officials other than Mr. Shaffer said it was not natural that nothing would be said about the settlement. He said that it was galling enough to be beaten, without talking publicly about it.

Some Strikers to Fight It Out. A meeting of the tin workers of the Star mills was held during the afternoon and the matter of the strike settlement was taken up. After the meeting the men announced that they had decided to remain out and keep up the strike until they had heard from President Shaffer. They added that if the settlement was such as to make the Star mill nonunion they would refuse to return to work and would fight the battle single-handed.

The strikers at the Monongahela plant of the same company have taken similar action. When these facts were presented to President Shaffer he only laughed sarcastically. He offered no comment. At the Painter mills the strikers had no objection to the Amalgamated which work. It had been reported that about a dozen old men had applied for work, but none had been taken back. The strikers at the Linsley & McCutcheon mills applied for work and about a dozen were re-employed. The American Sheet Steel works reported that the old men had returned at Pleasanton, Ohio, and the officials decided to hold off until Wednesday before accepting any of the old men.

Steel Hoop Plants All Clear. The American Steel Hoop company reported of the five plants in Ohio which were idle all operating today. These plants included the upper and lower mills in Youngstown and the plants in Warren, Girard and Greenville. These plants are all union and the strikers at the American Sheet Steel company were stated that by the starting of the additional union mills yesterday the company was turning out 85 per cent of the normal tonnage. Before the strikers returned they were getting 100 per cent of the normal tonnage. The reports from the National Tube works show that over 4,000 strikers in McKeesport asked for work there in the various plants during the day. Of this number about 4,000 were employed. The other 2,000 were not employed, owing to the mills not being ready for them. It is expected that they will all return to work during the week.

The indications that the Amalgamated association shortly and form an independent organization are becoming stronger. Many of the more important workmen are active in suggesting this course and in giving united aid to those who are standing out in the Star and Monongahela plants.

Outs and Ins. A committee from the coupling tap department in the tube works at McKeesport requested that Superintendent McKeesport re-instate the twenty men discharged this morning. He refused, and the couplets voted to stay out in a body. That department was running with a small force tonight.

Two thousand five hundred men went in on the night turn at the tube works. The mill will be picketed. Tonight it is reported that many discharges were reported in other departments. The men say they must go back in a body. Union lodge of the National and Shaffer lodge of the Boston rolling mill voted to stay out or go back in a body. Superintendent Ayres told them he could only treat with them as individuals. The committee learns from the Shaffer lodge that the men could go in or stay out and would be recognized by the Amalgamated in either case. If they stayed out they would get strike benefits. Union lodge decided to retain an independent organization. Many lodges are disgusted with the sympathetic strikes. The majority threaten a local tieup, but it is not believed possible.

Million in Wages Lost. As a result of the strike in McKeesport the Wood mill is probably lost to McKeesport and Delmar is lost to the union. More than $1,000,000 was lost in wages, as follows: Nine thousand five hundred tube men out five weeks, $75,000; 900 men out eleven weeks, $180,000; 700 Delmar men out nine weeks, $63,000; total $1,008,000.

The report from Wheeling tonight says: "The settlement of the steel strike without giving publicity to the terms of agreement has resulted in a rather chaotic state of affairs here. At the Riverside and Bellaire mills there has been no compliance with President Shaffer's order to return to work. The standard will be an Association mill and will start Wednesday. Ten mills at the Laughlin plants in Martin's Ferry started today and more will be started tomorrow. The Riverside and Bel-laire workers were organized after the strike was called. At the former District Vice President Walter Larkins has advised against going to work until the situation is definitely understood. Bellaire men sent a delegation to the Amalgamated association headquarters in Pittsburg today and on their return Chairman Davis stated on the behalf of President Shaffer that the Bellaire mill would start as a union plant. Newcastle, Pa., reports that the Shenango tin mills were tonight ordered to resume operation tomorrow morning. This is said to be because the men at the Monongahela and Star mills at Pittsburg refused to work on the basis on which the strike was settled.

WADE MONUMENT DEDICATED

Ceremony at Gettysburg Marks Feat-Hon of Iowa Relief Corps' Patriotic Work.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 16.—The dedication of the Jenny Wade monument took place today in the National cemetery here. The monument was erected by the Women's Relief Corps of Iowa to the memory of the only woman killed during the battle of Gettysburg. The shaft is twelve feet high and surmounted by a fine statue of Jennie Wade.

The inscription on the face of the monument is: JENNIE WADE. Killed July 3, 1863, While Making Bread for Union Soldiers.

On the opposite side appears: Erected by the Women's Relief Corps of Iowa, 1901. The Wade family motto, "Whatever God willeth must be, though a nation mourns," is on the third side and on the remaining side the simple epitaph, "She hath done what she could."

Those who took part in the program are all Iowa women. Mrs. Sadie H. James of Centerville, department president; Georgia B. Worke of Davenport, Mrs. Colonel Springer, Mrs. Christian Snyder and Mrs. Georgia Wade McClellan of Delmona, a sister of the dead girl; Mrs. Margaret F. Hinman, Mrs. Joss Allen of Davenport, treasurer, and Miss Estelle Hoppe of Iowa Falls.

Before the adoption of the resolution J. Breen, attorney for the board, gave a lengthy opinion. He said that it was unfortunate for the patrons of the schools, but the law did not permit of the erection of a school building unless there was money on hand to pay the cost. He further advised the board to abandon the matter for the time being. The suggestions of the attorney were heeded and the board adopted the Loechner resolution. The board adopted the Loechner resolution. The board adopted the Loechner resolution.

Additional rooms for the accommodation of pupils in Albright, Mella's and at the Lincoln school are needed and the buildings and grounds committee will look after this. Mr. Loechner presented a resolution on the death of President McKinley, which was unanimously adopted and at his suggestion the schools will be closed on Thursday.

Nellie Walsh, Miss Maud O'Neill and Elsie Montgomery were transferred from the assigned list to the permanent list. The Misses Nelson, Galbraith and Clark were placed on the assigned list. A seventh grade school will be established in Albright. The board also decided to rent a piano for the Corrigan school.

Miss Fitzgerald, Miss Conroy and Mr. Clauson were given until next Monday night in which to present suitable certificates of competency to the board.

Two Attorneys Employed. Members of the Taxpayers' league have raised a fund for the employment of help in the proposed investigation of the Board of Education. W. C. Lambert and A. H. Strickock have been secured as attorneys to look after the interests of the league and an expert to check the books in its view. It is proposed by the league to have the books checked for the past twelve months and a notation made of all seemingly extravagant expenditures. When the expert reports these notations will be investigated and if there is cause for action it is stated that the attorneys for the league will be instructed to prepare evidence in shape to be used in the courts or before the grand jury. It is asserted that the league now has some evidence of extravagance which has been turned over to the attorneys in question.

Adkins Stands Pat. Although notice was served on Saturday at six o'clock that they must come in by Monday noon and pay the license fee of $1,000, there was only one response and that was from the saloon at 2802 N. street. In looking over the list given to the chief by Acting Mayor Adkins it was found that an error in numbers had been made in two instances. While investigating this matter the chief of police found a saloon not on record. Last night Mayor Adkins said that he proposed to proceed at once and close every saloon not provided with a license. Steps toward this end will be taken today. The $1,000 paid yesterday goes to the school district funds.

Republican Candidates. Three republicans are in the field for the nomination for county commissioner.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Bond Maturity Engages the Attention of the City Council.

PROBABLE NECESSITY OF REFUNDING

Board of Education Defers High School Building—Two Attorneys Employed to Investigate Board.

A meeting of the city council was held last night, the feature being the consideration of bond maturity. According to a statement submitted by City Treasurer Koutsky there will be due at the state fiscal agency in New York on October 1, $44,830. Of this sum there is scarcely $2,000 on hand to meet the obligation. In order that the matter might be more fully discussed by the finance committee it was allowed to lay over until tonight, when an adjourned meeting will be held for the purpose of taking action in order that the treasurer may make provision for taking up the bonds falling due.

It will be necessary, so it is stated, to issue refunding bonds for the amount and under the new charter, can be done without a vote of the people, the council having the power to authorize such an issue. The bonds for improvement districts where there has been no litigation will be floated at 6 per cent interest, but in the disputed districts, those having been declared illegal by the courts, general indebtedness bonds will be issued. The council bonds will bear 4 per cent interest, as this is all the charter allows. On the Twenty-fourth street paving alone there is $20,000 coming due and about $1,100 curbing. Other districts in dispute will be included in this issue of general bonds. For the 6 per cent bonds the finance committee expects to secure a premium, but it is thought that there will be no great demand at this time for 4 per cent South Omaha bonds.

There will be no attempt on the part of the city at this time to borrow money for these payments, as it is thought that the refunding bonds will be sold. The proposition of Mrs. Minnie Oliver to settle her claim against the city for $1,500 was referred to the city attorney and finance committee. Mrs. Oliver has a judgment against the municipality for $2,400, which has been standing some time.

A communication was read from an attorney in Sarpy county regarding the sewer. This matter has been gone over so often that it has got to be a standing joke in the council. One member suggested that the note be referred to the managers of the corporations who use the sewer, but as there was no second it went to the judiciary committee.

Property owners on Twenty-fourth street from A to Q street will be compelled to lay permanent sidewalks. This is another old story, but Acting Mayor Adkins brought the matter up again last night and the proper resolutions were passed.

Six new residences, to cost $50,000, will be printed, as the council issued the order with the sanction of the acting mayor.

Attorney A. L. Sutton asked that the Louis Hutter judgment of $150 be paid at once in order to avoid any more law suits and the accumulation of interest. There is now $87 due Hutter on interest on this judgment. The finance committee and the city attorney will look into the matter and report at a future date.

Charles Weber put in a claim for $100, alleging damages to his horse, buggy and himself by reason of a washout on Thirty-second street. The streets and alleys committee will take Mr. Weber's claim under advisement.

An ordinance was passed compelling certain railroads to maintain electric lights at crossings within the city limits. The ordinance providing for the grading of E street from Twenty-third to Twenty-fourth streets was sent to the city attorney for his approval and consideration.

Steps were taken to have the city ordinances revised and at the suggestion of Vansant, Attorney H. L. Cohn was employed to do the work at a cost not to exceed $200.

The city clerk will at once advertise for bids for the purchase of $18,350 worth of certificates of indebtedness. Bonds were submitted by Street Commissioner Clark, City Prosecutor Henry C. Murphy and Sanitary Inspector Jones. These were referred to the finance committee.

Adjoined until 7:30 tonight.

Board Defers Building. This resolution offered by Loechner was adopted by the Board of Education at its meeting last night. In view of the fact that some of our citizens have declared their intention to prevent any attempt on the part of the board to provide a suitable high school building for the needs of our pupils I move you that the propositions in this matter be referred to the grand jury. It is asserted that the league now has some evidence of extravagance which has been turned over to the attorneys in question.
