FLOWERS IN EVERY DESIGN

Are Used More Lavishly Than Ever Before in This Nation's History.

CANTON, O., Sept. 19.—Never before on this continent has such a floral display been shown as that in West Lawn cemetery...

The vault was lined with the rarest and costliest flowers, a multitude of floral pieces was spread on the ground before the door...

Nearly every country on both hemispheres was represented by an offering. The number of those from the United States is almost beyond counting...

Against a streamer of black satin which swung against the leaves was the following inscription: "Requiem Eternam Dona ei Domine."

Beside the black streamer floated one of red, white and blue and another of red, white and green, the colors of Italy...

Standing a short distance from the vault to the south was a small cradle covered with white and purple asters...

From the Republic of Cuba came an enormous representation of the flag of the Republic, a wreath of red roses and lilacs of the valley...

From the Knights Templars of Minnesota came a great shield, five feet long and three feet wide, formed of white asters...

From Melville E. Stone of New York there were sent flowers from Savannah, Ga., from Duluth, New Orleans and from dozens of other cities...

The management of the Orpheum theater announces that the house will be thrown open on Saturday night for the benefit of those who wish to visit and inspect it...

There will be merry doings at Boyd's theater on Sunday, matinee and night, when Myron B. Rice will present Mark E. Swan's latest farce, "Whose Baby Are You?"

The month of September is the best in the year and the Minnesota lakes the best in the world for fishing...
