quoted several of these. One, transmitted from the Texas to the Brooklyn read: "On afterthought the captain thinks it unsafe to put a collier between battleships." Another from the Texas read: "Do not think it safe to collier. The two ships will surely crush her. Captain Harber replied that he remembered there was some talk of the collier, but he could not recall what it was. Speaking of the signals observed off Cienfuegos he said his supposition, as that of the other officers, was that they were between the Spanish forces. Captain Harber was also questioned closely concerning the rate of speed of the fleet on the sail from Cienfuegos to Santiago on May 25.

Witness is Rolled.

He said the weather was fresh and the sea moderate; that it was hard for small vessels, but it was "nothing much." He thought the Teyas could have made from ten to twelve knots. Mr. Rayner had the witness reading logs of the Massachusetts. Iowa, Brooklyn and other vessels concerning the weather at that time. Mr. Rayner read a report from Captain Higginson say-MRS.
