

BRYAN ADVISES ROOSEVELT

Suggests That He Declare Himself Against Renomination. GIVES HIS IDEA OF THE PATH OF GLORY

Lincoln, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—In an editorial which will appear in the Commoner tomorrow, Mr. Bryan advises President Roosevelt to lay aside all aspirations for election to the presidency at the end of his present term.

The fondest aspirations of Mr. Roosevelt have been realized, the highest honor which any man can attain in any country now his. With what spirit will he enter upon the discharge of his duties? The answer to this question is of tremendous importance to him and to his country.

Mr. Roosevelt will find that there are many things that can be best accomplished by an executive officer who is under no temptation to use the patronage of his office to promote his own re-election.

It is a wise fact that the republican organization does not favor the president's re-election. It is a wise fact that the republican organization does not favor the president's re-election.
