PITTSBURG, Sept. 26.-Today's National came was one of the fastest and hardest fought contests of the season. Both pitchers performed in splendid fashion. Chesbro did the better work as a whole, though Newton gave but two hits up to the aixth inning. In that inning five hits, an error and two slow plays by the visitors gave the victory to Pittsburg. TOURNAMENT OPENS IN THE RAIN

Play is Merely Preliminary to Qualify for Championship Contest-Team Work Scheduled for Saturday.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26 .- (Special Telegram.)-The Transmississippi golf tourney opened on the Country club's links this morning in a pouring rain, which lasted most of the forencon. In the afternoon, howaver, it cleared off and the green dried out quickly, making good playing possible. However, the scores were not especially good, and none came near bogey, 80. Play today was merely preliminary, the sixteen making the lowest scores being those who will qualify in the championship contest tomorrow. There were seventeen of these and two will have to play off in the morning. Of the sixteen ranking next all are in the consolation. The team play will take place Saturday afternoon after the finals in the championship class. The play today was thirty-six holes, half in the morning and half in the afternoon. Scores:

Defeats Aspiring Miss Congdon of Glenview. CHICAGO. Sept. 2i.—The close contest between Miss Bessie Anthony, the present champion, and Miss Congdon of Glenview was the feature in the first round of the woman's golf championship tournament at Onwentsia today. Nineteen holes were played, Miss Anthony winning the deciding one in five strokes to her opponent's six.

On the first nine the pair were all square and the match continued evenly until the home green was reached. A two-foot put holed would have given Miss Congdon the right to play in the semi-finals, but she rimmed the hole and the match was halved. Miss Anthony won out. The first rounds in the Solace and Tyro cup were also decided, the players averaging well together.
