Crane Company Makes Real Estate Investment and Will Build.

BUYS GROUND AT TENTH AND HARNEY

New Structure is Planned to Cost $60,000 and Will Be of the Up-to-Date Variety-Orchard-Wilhelm Company Branches Out.

The Crane company, wholesale dealers in plumbers' supplies, will erect a $60,000 businces building at the northeast corner of Tenth and Harney streets.

A strip of ground having a frontage of chased from Jesse Lowe of Chicago. Immediately east of this ground a lot 132 feet long and having a frontage of forty-four feet on Harney street was purchased from E. G. Maxwell of Michigan. A two-story brick store and flat building stands on the corner sixty-six feet of the ground the new building is to occupy. The price paid for the ground, 132 feet by 110 feet in area, was $37,500. It is estimated that the building

At present the Crane company occupies quarters on Douglas street between Tenth and Eleventh streets. For some time the company has been contemplating the erecbranches. The company has its headquarters in Chicago, Branch establishments are maintained in the following cities: San Francisco, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, St. Paul, St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Portland, Los Angeles and Sioux track along Harney street. The Orchard and Wilhelm Carpet company has purchased from the T. G. Northwall company a large warehouse at the southeast corner of Eleventh and Nicholas streets. The building is three stories and a basement in height and is 122 feet long and 66 feet wide. It contains 35,000 square feet of floor space. The price paid for the building was $20,000 cash.

The Crane company will secure ample trackage facilities by the extension of a

A Handsome Store.

One of the handsomest retail stores now in Omaha is the newly constructed jewelry store of Brown & Borsheim at 222 South Sixteenth street, they having just completed the new front in their store, which gives them very bandsome and attractive show windows. The interior of the store has been beautifully frescoed in light blue and newly furnished with antique oak. Their entire stock of diamonds watches, jewelry, etc., has been doubled, making it as large as any in Omaha. They will now appreciate a call from all their reasonable prices" is this firm's motto.
