GAIETY ATTUNED TO WEDDING MEASURES

Many Things Attract Attention, but None Outshines the Ceremonies that Unite Young People in Holy Wedlock.

Thanks to the matrimonial activity, the fashionable world has plenty to do these autumn days and still more to think about, for it is the new bride or the young woman about to be given in marriage that has received chief attention from those who have entertained of lais. From all indications and the number of cards that have been issued recently the pro-nuptial and postnuptial affairs will continue to afford enday and its consummation united two of the bride and her father. of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Allen. Something more than the usual interest was attached of the young people and the prominence of both families, and though the season has but opened, the event promises to remain one of the most brilliant of the year. It was a pink wedding and beyond the aims that were banked about the altar, the bunches of pink bridesmald roses tied with white sating ribbon to the ends of the four front pews, reserved for the members of the families and a few special guests, constituted the only decoration of the church. Just at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered, Mr. Clarke with his brother Mr. Gordon Clarke, entering by the east The remainder of the party adpirance, the ushers, Mesers, Frank Crawof and Lynn Sherwood, Wing Allen and Cleaviand of Denver, all gowned in pink.
