

DYING MAN'S QUEER SECRET

Coroner's Inquest in Case of Zedek Moss, Killed by Train.

VICTIM EVIDENTLY HAD A SECRET

Although conscious in his last moments and able to talk, he declines to give any information concerning himself.

An inquest was held yesterday morning in the case of Zedek S. Moss, the laborer who was killed by an Elkhorn train early Friday morning, and who was found in a dying condition at the foot of an embankment near the Elkhorn bridge and Fortieth street about daybreak of that day.

John Olson, a blacksmith living near the scene of the accident, told practically the same story. "I must have got there a few minutes after Trotter went away," he said. "I raised his head in my arms and gave him a drink of water, and he said, 'May God bless you.' He seemed to be perfectly conscious and spoke with no accent. From his speech I would say he was an American. I asked him a lot of questions, but he wouldn't answer any of them. He said no one wanted to know anything about him. I stayed there until two other men came and they went away."

Conductor C. E. Briggs and crew of freight train No. 40 testified that Moss was brought to the city in the caboose of their train.

Several members of the section gang with whom Moss worked testified that he lived at a farmhouse near Irvington. They had questioned the family about him, but could learn nothing. He had boarded there only a little over two months, and in that time had said nothing about his private affairs.

THE LEADING DRESS GOODS HOUSE OF THE WEST—HIGH GRADE DRESS GOODS.

50,000 STYLES NOW ON HAND.

Dress goods from reputable manufacturers; no second-class manufacturers represented in our stock. We leave them to the 24 exclusives. We are the only persons that are able to name and produce the goods of the first-class manufacturers in this town, such as Priestley, Courtauld, Lupin Courriere Rotony, Gera Arlington, Landdown, etc. You will see no last year's French Flannel in our windows at 25 per cent higher than we sell this year's. The fact of the matter is we buy, sell and devote more space and money to dress goods alone than any exclusive store has invested in their entire stock and this accounts for our selling high grade goods for less money than the small dealer.

GRAVETTES.

These are B. Priestley's goods and they come in Broadcloths, Meltons, Prunellas, Surahs, Solis, Suitings in colors as well as black and are sold by us at less than you can buy the inferior grades of other manufacturers.

Solids, $1.00, $1.50, $2.50 and $4.50 per yard.

Prunellas, 85c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.50 per yard.
