Governor Again.

BOSTON, Oct. 4 .- The Massachusetts republican state convention, held here today, nominated a full state ticket and of the company, they were told, adopted a platform of principles. Governor W. Murray Crane was renominated. Sam; vel J. Elder of Boston was made permanent chalrman. In his address, as in the one delivered later by Senator George F. Hear, there was mer resorts, allowing stop-overs at Detroit, reference to the assassination of President McKinley and to legislation that has been suggested in view of that tragedy. Concluding this division of his speech, Mr. Elder said:

"One thing more, the right of free speech must not be denied; full and fair discussion of public men and political issues are a and G. M. Watts of Davenport. It is unpart of our heritage. But caricature, denunciation, foul abuse and contemptuous ridicule of the American president, from whatever source they come, must cease." The platform was reported by Congressman Lovering and unanimously adopted. Points in the Platform.

The platform also favors an amendment to the constitution of the United States that shall give congress the power to regulate the hours of labor.

Attempts to disfranchise negroes are condemned as un-American and in violation of the fifteenth amendment to the constitution, and it is declared that lynching and the unlawful taking of life must be stopped. The platform also pronounces in favor of "such laws as shall visit an adequate and severe penalty unon any person or persons who shall murder, assault or threaten the life of the president or vice president." It asserts that "the public highways be to private or corporate use unless the people receive full value for the franchise." Consideration is recommended of a proper system of initiative and referendum in local

Parks Says No.

George Parks makes the announcement that he will not be a candidate for mayor on the democratic ticket next spring. He says that he started the talk of his candidacy as a joke, but as the matter commenerd to take a serious turn he deemed it advirable to make a positive announcement. This statement of Parks is not considered to be in good faith by some of the democrats and they look upon it as a near political trick. Jack Parks, a brother of George Parks, is a democratic candidate for assessor in the Fourth ward and it is asserted that if Parks is elected assessor his brother may change his mind about being a candidate for mayor. With Parks out of the mayoralty race the field is open, as only Ensor and Hoctor are now avowed candidates on the democratic licket. Appraisers Make Report.
