OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6, 1901.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

Never in the history of merchandising have such complete assortments of all the very finest fabrics and the very best productions been put on sale by any store at such marvelously low prices as are offered at Hayden's for Monday and all week. SPECIAL SPOT CASH PURCHASES forwarded by our eastern buyers-(right on the spot and watching for bargains)-will be thrown on the counters in the BARGAIN ROOM at about one-tenth their real value.

Dress Goods Dept.

THE LEADING DRESS GOODS HOUSE IN THE WEST. More dress goods than the combined stocks of Omaha together, and the new ones are arriving every day until the 1st day of December. Ask any well dressed linen damask, worth 50c per yard, sale lady where she bought her dress and she will tell you that she bought it at Hav-den's, where the selection is larger, the quality is finer and the prices cheaper than any other house in the west. Every dress is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded or a new dress. Priestley leads them all in black, Courtauld in lightweight materials, Lupin in cheviote and Bruhms Sochne Gera (in Saxony), Germany, in colors. These are strictly confined to Hayden Bros., and not one yard can be found with small dealers in Omaha.
