

SHOOT FOR MEYER TROPHY

Principal Event of Omaha Gun Club's Live Bird Contest.

PARMELEE, LOOMIS AND FOGG TIE SCORE

Trophy Goes to Parmelee, Who Wins in Closely Contested Shoot-Off—Three Men Divide Prize in Ten-Bird Shoot.

The first live-bird shoot of the season of the Omaha gun club was held yesterday afternoon at the club grounds.

Before the contest was begun rules were adopted providing for handicaps, the trophy to be the property of the winner of the event.

The contest was close and exciting from start to finish. The day was perfect, not a breath of air stirring, and the birds were generally in good condition.

Following is the summary, showing the handicap: Parmelee, 22 yards; Loomis, 20 yards; Fogg, 20 yards; Tucker, 20 yards; MacFarland, 20 yards; Loomis, 20 yards; Gallagher, 20 yards; McDonald, 28 yards.

McDonald's score above was made after the others had shot out their birds. Beginning with the intention of shooting fifteen straight he missed two birds and dropped out.

Following the trophy shoot was a ten-bird contest for a purse, $2 to enter, including birds, money divided 60 and 40 per cent.

The score and handicap: Fogg, 20 yards; Loomis, 20 yards; Tucker, 20 yards; Lewis, 20 yards; Parmelee, 22 yards; Taylor, 20 yards; "Redd," 28 yards; Townsend, 20 yards.

SAMPSON MAY NOT TESTIFY

Appearance as Witness Depends Upon Decision of Schley's Counsel.

ONLY ONE SESSION OF INQUIRY COURT

Rayner Questions Commander Hodgson to Bring Out Applicant's Conduct During Entire Santiago Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Lieutenant Commander Hodgson, formerly navigator of Commodore Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, continued his testimony before the Schley court of inquiry today after some of the witnesses of yesterday had been given an opportunity to correct their testimony.

When the court adjourned last night Commander Hodgson was in the hands of Judge Advocate Lemly, whose examination of him partook very largely of the nature of a cross-examination.

This was due to the fact that Mr. Rayner began a series of questions intended to present the Schley side of the conduct of Brooklyn during not only the battle of July 3, but of the entire Santiago campaign.

Mr. Hanna's inquiries were devoted partly to developing the details concerning the bombardment of the Spanish ship Cristobal Colon on May 30.

The correspondence between Commander Hodgson and Commodore Schley was also put in as evidence.

Only One Session of Court. The court began its session today with the understanding that there would be only one sitting.

This agreement was reached yesterday and was brought about by the fact that the court and counsel find themselves greatly fatigued by the exacting nature of their work and the continuous sessions of the court.

There is much interest in yesterday's episode concerning Admiral Sampson, and there is still doubt as to whether he will be a witness.

It will remain with Admiral Schley and his counsel to say for what day, if for any, he shall be called. The controversy as to the admiral's meaning in his "Dear Schley" dispatch of May 29 has in "Dear Schley" been abated by the tentative agreement as to his being summoned.

Counsel on both sides this morning had before them copies of the dispatch and each was trying strenuously to bring the other to their view of the case.

Doyle Corrects Testimony. The first of the witnesses of a previous day who were recalled to correct testimony was Lieutenant Doyle, who was on Brooklyn during the battle of Santiago. He made a number of changes in phraseology. His attention was called to an error in his former testimony in stating the distance Brooklyn stood out from Mesa at Santiago in reply to a question from the court.

BEAUMONT OIL NEWS

CHEAP FUEL COMING

In its issue of Sept. 7 the National Oil Reporter, published at New York, devotes several pages to "Stories of Men and Women Who Have Suddenly become Rich through Oil."

The stories were doubtless read with interest by thousands of people throughout the United States, and the journal summarizes some of them so that its readers will be able to identify some of the money who have become millionaires as the result of the "Lucas Geysers."

Clarence H. Williams, who owns 1,000 acres somewhere in Jefferson county, according to the story he received a commission from the land and considered himself much richer in being president of the Ketchikan-Oil company, with the said land as assets.

D. H. Beatty is given a whole page, and the money crop is created with his having bought the Beaumont oil field aggregating several millions. It is claimed that he reached Beaumont with $100,000.

J. N. Price is credited with owning the United States' top which he sold for nearly $500,000. Mr. Price is a resident of Beaumont and is being for land on the same top that formerly belonged to the Cleveland hills.

R. P. Wolfe, one-time shoe maker at Salinas, Cal., is now president of the Wolfe Brothers Shoe company, Columbus, Ind., and is being for land on the same top that formerly belonged to the Cleveland hills.

There are hundreds who hear nothing of the oil who have made millions independently rich in the Beaumont oil fields.
