DOLLY DILLON GETS THE M'DOWELL STAKE

Has to Fight for It, but Proves Game Enough to Outdo Onward Silver-Day's Other Races.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 15 .- Peter Stirling won the $10,000 Louisville prize today without a touch of the whip and holding his gait like a piece of superb machinery. The winner of last Tuesday's $16,000 futurity paced under the wire each heat first with a full length to spare. In the second heat two bad breaks caused Royal Coat to get the flag. Peter Stirling was never headed in the second, though Hawthorne clung to his sulky wheel. Baron More was favorite 6 to the field's 20 in the first and 20 to the field's 5 in the second.

him, was hung an enormous yellow flag, in the center of which was a huge green shamrock.

The reception was over at 7 o'clock and the banquet commenced a few minutes later. The decorations of the banquet hall were of a strictly nautical design, entwined with smilax, laurel and evergreens. A mode of Shamrock II, complete, with all sails set, was placed in front of Sir Thomas.

When the time for the making of addresses had arrived the president, J. K. Armsby, made a brief speech of weicome and then in the name of the club presented the loving cup to Sir Thomas. The presentation was made the occasion of a great demonstration by the guests, they rising to their feet and cheering Sir Thomas again and again. Sir Thomas replied in a brief speech of thanks for the honors that had been shown him in 'hicago and alluded feelingly to the many kind messages be had received from all parts of the country since he had arrived for the yacht races.

The other addresses of the evening were: "The Nation." Herbert Descamp: "The Modern Knight," Alex H. Revell: "The Shamrock," William J. Hynes; "The Real Alliance," George R. Peck.

Sir Thomas will remain in the city for the balance of the week and many other entertainments will be given in his honor, chief among which will be banquets by the Columbia Yacht club and by the Bankers' club.

In his speech Sir Thomas said he was Onward Silver and Dolly Dillon had a bitter struggle in the McDowell stake. Hopes centered on the mare were realized. Before the race Silver was the favorite 50 to the field's 42. In the first heat Dolly Dillon showed the fine condition she was in, while three breaks indicated that Silver was not in good temper. The mare sold at 50 to the field's 52 in the second. She fought with Lita W. around to the three quarters. Silver then took up the chase from third position and Geers made a hard drive down the stretch, but was not able to reduce the dividing length. In the third heat Dillon sold at 50 to the field's 10. Onward Silver was heavily backed in the betting. As in the two previous heats, the field was sent away abreast. Again Lita W., with Toggles lapping, set the pace to the half. Dolly Dillon then forged to the front, Silver pursuing in third place. In the stretch Silver broke, but was on his feet in time to finish second. Each heat was trotted in ten and

For an hour prior to the commencement of the banquet Sir Thomas held a reception in the parlors of the clubhouse and exchanged greetings with hundreds of men prominent in business and professional circles, who called to pay the respects to the owner of Shamrock. The rooms were hung with flags of the international signal code and many American and British emblems were intertwined. Over the head of the guest of the evening, as he stood exchanging good wishes with the long line of men who called to meet him, was hung an enormous yellow flag, in the center of which was a huge green shamrock. CLAIM HE IS LEGALLY DEAD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 -- In the supreme ourt today the appeal in the case of Luigi Storti, an Italian who was sentenced to be Goebel, is now under way in earnest. Acelectrocuted by the superior court of Massachusetts in July, 1900, was set for hearing October 28. This case is unique because of the contention now being set up in behalf of the convicted murderer-that he is already legally dead. Upon his conviction April 7, 1901. A respite was granted until of habeas corpus was applied for on the ground that the punishment sought to be inflicted was unconstitutional "being cruel and unusual" within the Massachusetts declaration of rights. On May 10 the petition was denied by the United States circuit court for the district of Massachusetts, whereupon two appeals were taken to the supreme court of the United States Pending action on the appeals they acted as a stay of execution. One of these appeals was dismissed on the last day of fell wounded. the spring term of the court and it is the other which is to be heard October 28. The contention is now set up by the counsel for Storti that the date of execution, May 11, having passed, Storti is legally dead.

A motion was made before the cour today to restore to the calendar the wellknown Chinese exclusion cases against dismissed at the last term of the court on to print the record as the law provided. The statement was made today that money BOTH FIGHTS LOOK FAKEY had been furnished to print the record, but it had not been forthcoming. The government did not oppose the motion.

The case of A. D. Morgan against the SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—The Carter-Walcott contest tonight before the National Athletic club was a farce and terminated in the seventh round. Walcott fell to his knees after a slight mix up, raising the cry of "foul" and claiming to have been struck below the belt. Pandemonium reighed for a few minutes and the police and spectators crowded into the ring. The club managers summoned their physician, Dr. Edinmuller, at once and the negro was examined in his corner. The verdict was that no foul blow had been struck. Walcott was able to walk from the ring unassisted and it looked as though he was shamming. The blow that really did the work was a right uppercut to the stemach. Up to this point Walcott had much the better of the contest. Twice he had the Brooklyn man going, once in the fifth and again in the sixth round, but the latter's wonderful recuperative powers saved him from defeat. There was much dissatisfaction over the result, the general belief being that Walcott had laid down.

ST. Louis won on a foul from Oscar Gardner, the famous "Omaha Kid," tonight in the third round of what was to have been a fifteen-round bout before the Olympic Athletic club. The go seemed as palpable a fake as was ever pulled off in a ring and the crowd had been worked into a rage long before the culmination of hostilities. They yelled for their money back and when it was not forthcoming left the hall in anger. plication of the government. Morgan was the master of the tug Frank A. A Joke That Paid.

A witty remark does not always result so satisfactorily to the perpetrator as in the case of the young curate who obtained a valuable living in the west of England by means of a pun.

The rector who held the living had died, relates the Youth's Companion, and therewere many applicants for the place, which was worth $10,000 a year. The living was in the gift of an earl, who was surprised at the funeral by the manifestations of grief by the assembled rectors and curates. So he said to the young curate, who had been acting as the tutor of his son:

"Naturally they should feel a proper amount of grief, but I cannot understand why they should weep so frenziedly for the dead."

"I have sent out quite a good many of them (the circulars) and have had a good many responses from attorneys and business men as well as bankers, and they all say they are in favor of some codification of this law. I do not see why the law should not be made in such form that we who would use the information solely for legitimate purposes could use the information especially when we would be willing to pay for it. I do not think we should be classed along with the 'green goods' men and swindlers and shut off from this kind of information on account of such people. Strict regulations could be made as to the people who could secure such information and make them disclose their purpose in each case. Just because stamps and money are counterfeited would be no reason for stopping the issuance of stamps and money neither should the fact that some scalawags might procure such information shut off merchants and lawyers from procuring such information for legitimate purposes.
