Unfinished 218 Trot at Lexington Has Crucial Finish.

COLONEL COCHRAN FINALLY LANDS IT

Una Belle, Alice Carr and Galbator All Give Him Close Company— Lexington Stake Easy for Prelates.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 18.—The 218 trot, three heats of which were trotted Thursday, proved to be the biggest trotting race of the meeting. There were four heat winners, all promising, and at the end of the fifth heat the remaining three were sent to their stables. Galbator was favorite with one heat to his credit. Una Belle, who had won the third heat the day previous, beat him under the wire by a length.

Colonel Cochran won the heat by a length. Neighbor Girl caught her hoof in a boot and fell. Jolly the driver, was thrown over the fence. Neither was seriously hurt. Cochran won the sixth heat with ease, Alice Carr second. He also captured the seventh heat. Benyon was put in the sulky behind Galbator in the seventh, vice Galbagan.

Chain Shot, the favorite, won the 219 trot after three fast heats. The Lexington stake, $2,000, for 2-year-olds was easy for Prelates. She jogged around in front of Hattie Smith in the first heat. In the second she won by an eighth of a mile in five minutes, 21.54.

Best prices were for the 212 trot for six heats, the last being finished in the dusk. Princess finished fifth. David Harum took the second and third by heads from Henrietta and Black Beauty respectively. Red Princess won the next three heats with ease. Weather and track good.

THREE-YEAR-OLDS TRIED OUT

Denman Thompson Supreme Over Other Aspirants in the Special at Worth.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—In one of the most dramatic finishes imaginable Denman Thompson won the special, four-year-old special at Worth today. He spurned over a rival who put his head in front of St. Marcus in the final stride. Less than a length behind the special event winner, among the other contenders in the betting being as good as a 1 to 1 and closing at 8 to 1. St. Marcus, a 1 to 1 favorite, and heavily backed. He opened at even money, was pounded down to 4 to 5, then to 2 to 1, and finally to 1 to 1. Thompson forced him back to even money. Then there came a terrific run on Arrogator that drove his odds from 3 to 1 down to 5 to 2. From a perfect start St. Marcus and Arrogator alternated in setting the pace, until the far turn was reached, when Denman Thompson put in his claim, and through the stretch the three horses raced neck and neck.

First race, five furlongs and a half; Little Boat won, Charlie second, Rag Tag third, Time: 1:08.5. Second race, one mile and an eighth; Prince Blazes won, Miss Liza second, Eighor third, Time: 1:09.5. Third race, six furlongs; Money Mues won, Sevey second, Gontalon third, Time: 1:14.5. Fourth race, one mile and a sixteenth; Worth Full speed; Denman Thompson, 10 (stake), 5 to 1; won; Arrogator, 112 (Winkfield), 5 to 2; second; St. Marcus, 112 (Coburn), even; Time: 1:18.5. Sixth race, one mile and an eighth; Herencia won, Macky second, Jessa farbo third, Time: 1:16.5. Sixth race, seven furlongs; R. G. Fox won, Oliver M. second, Andes third, Time: 1:29.

AT PAIS Grounds, St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—Mark Gambert's same mare Lona beat the once great Wax Taper a nose in the feature event at the fair grounds today in one of the most exciting races ever seen in St. Louis. Lona was a favorite over Wax Taper and Peacock. The mare and Wax Taper hooked up at the last eighth pole and from there to the finish line it was a battle royal, Lona winning by the nose. The prohibitive favorite in the second event, showed a remarkable reversal of form from his last time out. Orleans, an ordinary selling plate and the longest shot to win on the day, taking his measure easily. Three favorites, two second choice and one outsider won. Track good. Results: First race, five furlongs and a half, selling. Ed I. won, Tony Belle second, Sam Lazarus third, Time: 1:09. Second race, six furlongs, purse: Or-beans won, Hite second, Batsy third, Time: 1:12. Third race, six furlongs, purse: Hilarie won, Kirted second, Tremar third, Time: 1:21. Fourth race, one mile, Hustrissa won, Jordan second, Mediation third, Time: 1:40. Fifth race, one mile and seventy yards, purse: Lunat won, Wax Taper second, Albert F. Dewey third, Time: 1:47. Sixth race, one mile and seventy yards, purse: Omelle second, Tracy third, Time: 1:30.7.

GRIDIRON CARD FOR TODAY

Cresthion University Eleven Will Meet the Cresthion Medics on 'Varsity Field.

Cresthion University will line up this afternoon against the Cresthion Medics on 'Varsity field. The game regularly scheduled for today was with the Lincoln Medics, but owing to a death on the part of the Medics the game was postponed. Under the direction of Coach 'Cresthion Medics stepped in and took the game.

Manager Lane promises a good game on the part of the university team and Coach McDonald assures a stiff struggle on the part of the Medics. Under the direction of Coach McDonald, they expect to make a good showing.

The game will be called at 3:30 and Manager Lane looks for a big crowd. The Cresthion Medics will turn out in uniform to cheer their respective teams to victory.

Omaha High school and a team from the York High school will meet this afternoon at the Cresthion Medics' track. The local team has been practicing hard recently and is in much better condition than it was last Saturday, when it played a perfect ball game to the victors. A good game is confidently looked for.

HUSKERS MISS THE MEDICS

Omaha Team Disbands and 'Varsity Has Nothing to Do Today

Nothing to Do Today. The Huskers' team has disbanded and the 'Varsity team has nothing to do today.

LINCOLN, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Owing to the disbanding of the main team, the university football team will have a light practice recreation tomorrow. The exercises will be held on the Lincoln High school to scrap with the gridiron representatives of York Normal school.

Every effort will be made to schedule a game with the alumni veterans, but this cannot be done at present. The heroes of former days were widely scattered and none could be found willing to fill the more important positions on the team.

Coach Booth is now exhausting every resource to obtain a skillful punter. Pillsbury, Bell and Springer are all doing good work, but the trio still seems to be in the experimental stage. The Lincoln High school has been an element in the development of the team that managers were compelled to turn to.

Efforts are being made by several football enthusiasts in Omaha to have the Nebraska-AMES game played at that place. The collapse of the Omaha Medics game leaves without a gridiron contest this year.

Chapman Ties Clay Center.

CLAY CENTER, Kan., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—The first of a series of football games between Chapman and Clay Center was played today at the home grounds. Features were a thirty-yard run by Odie of Chapman and a forty-yard run by Price of Clay Center. The score was 6 to 6, with the ball well in Chapman territory when the whistle blew.

Shaw, Chicago (Panhard), second, Time: 2:11.

Fournier's Fast Ten Miles.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 18.—In the face of a strong wind, which impeded his progress five or six miles, M. Fournier went nine miles against time at Narragansett park this afternoon in 10:49. The best single mile was in 1:07. The attempt was made in the second day of the Fournier ten mile race, but the club to complete its schedule of races postponed from yesterday because of rain. Fifty-five people were present.

Kenneth A. Skinner of Boston won in three classes, those for gasoline carriages and tricycles, and he captured first place in the sweepstakes open to winners of all classes.

Percy Owen of Cleveland, O., won in the class for gasoline vehicles under twelve horsepower.

RAYNER GAINS MORE TIME

Court of Inquiry Gladly Adjoins Until Next Monday Morning.

HE IS OVERSTOCKED WITH WITNESSES

Has So Many that He Doesn't Even Know What Some Are For—Oregon's Navigator Tells of Battle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Just before the Schley court of inquiry adjourned today Attorney Rayner, counsel for Admiral Schley, informed the court that he had not been able to conclude the presentation of testimony for the applicant by the close of next week. He added that thus far he had not had opportunity to consult with witnesses who are still to be heard. He therefore asked that an adjournment be taken from today until Monday. Speaking for the court Admiral Dewey said he was most happy to grant the request. Accordingly the court adjourned until 11 o'clock Monday.

The list of witnesses examined today included eight names, but the interrogations of the last of the witnesses called had not been concluded when the day came to a close. The last witness was Lieutenant B. B. Wells, Jr., who served during the war with Spain as Admiral Schley's flag lieutenant, or private secretary. The other seven persons taken during the day were, in the order in which they were called, Lieutenant Commander Reginald P. Nicholson, who was navigator of Oregon; Medical Director Charles M. Devalin, a surgeon; Captain J. T. Hannum, retired; Engineer Lieutenant Thomas F. Carter, Ensign W. P. Cronan, Carpenter J. H. Warder, all whom served on Brooklyn, and J. L. Hanley, who was chief machinist on Board Texas.

Lieutenant Commander Nicholson told the story of the battle of July 3 as he saw it from the deck of Oregon. The movement of Oregon had not been controlled by signals from Brooklyn, and he expressed the opinion that Oregon was nearer Colon than Brooklyn was.

Mr. Hanley said that the port engines of Texas had not been stopped during the battle of July 3.

To Account for Schley's Whole Time. From the line of the examination relating to the night of July 3 already presented, it is evident that it is the intention of Mr. Rayner to have Lieutenant Wells give a complete history of Admiral Schley's actions during the Spanish war. When the court adjourned he had reached the period of the battle of July 3, having gone quite minutely into other incidents of the campaign up to that time, including the receipt of dispatches from Admiral Sampson.

Ensign Cronan was recalled to the stand when the afternoon session began. He related the details of the battle of July 2 and described the turn of Brooklyn. He observed, he said, that the first ship appeared to be heading toward Brooklyn creating the impression that either it meant to ram Brooklyn or Brooklyn to ram this contingency, however, was averted, both Brooklyn and the Spanish ships putting the helm to port.

Brooklyn's Thirty Bruiers. George H. Warder, who was carpenter of Brooklyn, said that Commodore Schley's conduct and bearing during the battle were that of a fearless officer.

J. L. Hunly, who was chief machinist on Texas during the battle of July 3 and who was on duty at the throttle of the port engine, said in response to a question by Mr. Rayner that he was Alfred Cronan, who had previously testified that on the day of the battle he was standing at the throttle of the port engine.

"Is that true?" asked Mr. Rayner, quoting Clinton.

"No, sir," replied the witness.

"Was the port engine either stopped or backed?"

"No, sir, not to my recollection."

"Was it slowed down?"

"Slowed down, yes, sir."

Mr. Rayner—Who summoned you here?"

"I don't know; I was ordered to come."

Lemly and Rayner Spar Again. Captain Lemly asked Mr. Rayner to state the purpose of the question. He went on to say that this was an imputation which he resented. Replying, Mr. Rayner said he had meant no imputation; that Admiral Schley had not had the witness summoned and that he (the admiral) had accidentally found the witness here.

Captain Lemly replied that he did not relish such conduct with "imputations on one hand and apologies on the other."

Mr. Rayner responded that he was sorry (he Lemly) had been so badly hurt. He said he was not excused and Lieutenant J. P. J. Ryan, who was assistant engineer on Brooklyn, was introduced.

Describing the battle off Santiago the witness said: "I passed ranges from Yeoman Ellis into the fog and turret until I was killed. I was standing alongside of him. A shell from what I thought was the Colon struck him in the face and took his head off. We attempted first to drop his body overboard on account of the blood on the deck, but the commodore said to carry him aft, not to throw him overboard, and that he should be buried on land."

"Did you see Commodore Schley about that time?"

"All the time."

"What was his manner and bearing as they impressed you?"

"Admirable, I thought."

"Was his position one of danger?"

"His position was on a little bridge near the conning tower and he was on the shooting side of the ship all the time, as far as I could see."

"All the time?"

FREMONT HEARS FAIRBANKS

Senator from Indiana Discusses Affairs in the Philippines.

FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Fairbanks of Indiana addressed a large audience in Masonic hall tonight on national issues. C. E. Abbott presided and first introduced Judge Sedgwick, who expressed his gratification at meeting a Fremont audience.

Senator Fairbanks spoke of the vast commerce of this country and of the balance of trade in our favor, which was greater during the four years of McKinley's administration than during the previous 107 years. He took up the money question and showed how the position of the republican party on sound money had been consistently followed and its effect on the general prosperity of the country. He discussed the issues growing out of the Spanish war and the Philippine questions and the spread of American ideas and sentiments in the east. Affairs in the Philippines were being pushed rapidly and our occupation and possession of those islands was bound to be of immense benefit to national commerce and to all classes of people.

GAUNT'S GUN IS PERSUASIVE

Prompts Thief to Return Stolen Harness, Though Not to Surrender Person.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Four thousand Bulgarian and Turkish troops have been occupied in the effort to obtain Miss Stone's release, says a dispatch from Sofia to the Morning Leader. "It is believed here that her release would have been effected but for Mr. Dickinson's refusal to offer her captors more than an ordinary poor bribe. Mr. Dickinson's extraordinary action is regarded as suicidal. A large sum must be paid to the brigands, as otherwise Miss Stone's life will be sacrificed. If Mr. Dickinson desires vengeance the woman must be ransomed first."

Dickinson Held Responsible.

Commenting upon the statement of the Vienna paper regarding the letter from Mr. Saratoff, the Bulgarian minister, to Mr. Dickinson, the Vienna correspondent of the Standard says:

"It may be regarded as convincing proof that Bulgaria is shielding the Macedonian committee and it is believed that Macedonians have kidnaped Miss Stone and a trick is being played upon Bulgarian and Turkish troops on each side of the frontier. The right course now is not to pay ransom but to hold Bulgaria responsible for every hour of Miss Stone's head. Those who know the facts see no reason to anticipate any danger to her life."

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Last night a thief broke into Joe Roddy's barn and stole his harness. This morning after 10 o'clock, a man, who is said to be at the field's crossing, had come to work and was talking with Mr. Robinson, a man came driving a horse and cart across the track. Mr. Roddy at once recognized his harness on the horse and tried to stop the man. The thief applied the whip and started south at a rapid rate. Mr. Gaunt, who drives Field's wagon, was hitching his team when the thief started and he at once jumped on one of the horses and, being supplied with a gun by Mr. Roddy, gave chase. The thief was overtaken in the south part of town and at the muzzle of the gun made to unbar his horse. Gaunt tried to make the fellow return, but he said he had a gun as big as Gaunt's and he guessed not. The deputy sheriff was notified and after securing the south country was unable to locate the thief.

JUST READY A Novel of Tremendous Power

KING MIDAS

BY UPTON SINCLAIR

An American story of today, by a brilliant new writer. Advance copies of the book have won extraordinary praise from many of the ablest critics, some of whose utterances are given below. No novel that we have ever published equals this in the wonderful reception it has received. In advance of publication, in commendations from the critics and in advance orders from the trade.

Prof. Charles Elliot Norton says: "The book shows signs of rare power. I shall present a copy of it to the Harvard Library." Rev. Minot J. Savage says: "I read the book with much interest. It shows a most tremendous power. The opening chapters are to me a perfect delight; the first scene is simply superb, and the heroine is one of the sweetest, truest, and most living characters that I have met with for many years." Col. Thos. Wentworth Higginson says: "The strong point of the book is the intense earnestness with which it is written and the important moral lesson conveyed. It gives decided promise and shows proper and deep feeling." Edwin Markham says: "I find a fine current of feeling throughout with the hues of poetry and the nobility of ideas of life."
