IEUTENANT WELLS IS THE DAY'S WITNESS

WASHINGTON Oct 21 -Lieutenant B W. On his direct examination he continued his parrative of the Cuban campaign. Lieutepant Wells was under cross-examination for about two and a half hours, largely at the hands of Mr. Hanna, whose questions were directed mainly to the dispatches received and sent by Admiral (then Commodore)

Schlev. While this line of investigation was be ing exploited Mr. Rayner, speaking for Admiral Schley, said that the admiral was willing to admit that he had received the "Dear Schley" letter on Dupont, which arrived at Cienfuegos on May 22, but he added that no duplicate of this dispatch had ever been received by Admiral

He also said that the admiral admitted the receipt of two copies of No. 8, Admiral Sampson's dispatch, saying that the Spanish fleet was probably at Santiago and telling Commodore Schley, "if satisfled that it (the Spanish fleet) is not at Clenfuegos, proceed with all dispatch to Santiago," one of these being receimed by Hawk May 23 and the other by Marblehead May 24. Licutenant Wells was still on the stand when the court adjourned for the day and will continue his testimony tomorrow.

Peter Bell Rewarded for His Sine Years' Search After Gypsy Band.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 21.— Peter Bell, a miller of St. Mary's, O., has recovered his daughter after a most remarkable search. Nine years ago the girl failed to return home from school. Her father spent his meager savings searching. Last August a band of gypsies camped near the Bells' mill and one of them, out of revenge, told Bell that his child had been abducted by a gang of gypsies that had camped near the place nine years ago. He said he had come all the way from Mexico, Mo., to inform the father of the whereabouts of his long-lost child. Bell at once made preparations to go in search of the girl and with Mrs. Bell and their other daughter started for Indianapolis by wagon. There they sold the wagon and began the journey on foot. They walked to Peoria, Ill., from there to Quincy, to Keokuk, In., and finally traced the gypsies, headed by a man named Henry Lee, to Arriving at Carthage last Saturday the Bells found Lee and his band in camp. When Lee was confronted by the father of the girl and local officers he attempted a gun play, but the officers covered him and he gave up the girl. The young woman says she has been compelled to beg for food and clothing for the entire band, who have at all times treated her cruelly.

The camp was composed of about twentyfive people and they roved all over the middle west. Mr. Bell will try to have the abductors indicted and extradited to Mercer county, Ohio, for trial. Bell has spent his every cent in the search for his girl.

DECISIONS GIVES

Sustains State Law of Tennessee in Making Store Orders Redeemable in Cash.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 .- In the United States supreme court today two opinions were handed down by Justice Shiras, sustaining the state law of Tennessee, making store orders redeemable in cash. The titles of the two cases decided were the Knoxville Iron Company against Samuel Harbison and the Dayton Coal and Iron Company against T. A. Barton.

The cases were appealed from a decision of the supreme court of the state and that decision, which sustained the law, was upheld by today's opinion. One of the opinions upheld the law as applied to state corporations and the other as applied to foreign corporations. Justices Brewer and Beckham dissented in both cases.

The court denied the application of the government for a rehearing of the case of Frank M. Fairbanks against the United States, involving the tax on export bills of lading under the war revenue act. Application was made for hearing the case of the State of Kansas against Colorado on February 24.

The court decided to hear the Alaska gold mining cases involving the constitutionality of the Alaskan criminal code and the Alaska Treadwell mining case together. Owing to the constitutional question involved Assistant Attorney General Beck asked that the case be heard before a full bench. Two weeks' additional time was allowed the government in which to prepare. Counsel on both sides will confer as to the date.

The agent referred to, Mr. Myton of the White Rocks agency, already is in Colorado investigating the reports that his Indians were trespassing on Colorado lands, but has not reported the result of his investigation to the department. It is said at the bureau that there may be a few Indians there as reported, but that the same report is started every year. SCHLEY WAIVES CONTENTION STOLEN CHILD FINALLY FOUND LIPTON'S PARTING PROMISE

On Eve of Sailing Says He Will Not Challenge Next Year.

NEITHER WILL HE MARRY YET AWHILE

Message to American Girls is that He Must First Lift Cup, Which He Hopes to Do In Future Years.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 .- Sir Thomas Lipton will not be a challenger for the America's cup next year. In an interview Sir Thomas also denied that he had any intention to build a new boat to compete for the cup next fall.

In an alleged interview Sir Thomas was quoted as having said he would consult Mr. Watson as soon as he arrived home with the idea of building a new challenger for the cup in 1902. This afternoon he said: "I did not see a reporter that day, as I know of, but be that as it may, I certainly did not say what I am quoted as having said. "Is it your intention to build a new boat and challenge for the cup next year?" "Not at all. I am not desirous of holding monopoly in the matter of challenging for the America's cup. I propose to wait a reasonable time after I get back to the other side and see if any of the other British sportsmen desire to enter a challenge. As a matter of fact, it takes months to prepare designs for a new boat and then, even when challenging with a new boat, ten months must be given. It would now be well nigh impossible to challenge in behalf of a new boat for a race next yearthat is, 1902.

Gives His Plans.

"What I intend to do is this: I will leave Shamrock II on this side. It will remain here all next summer and will race with any and all boats that care to meet it, and I will come over myself."

While Sir Thomas denied that he intended building a new challenger for next year, he would not deny that he would ultimately build a new boat. On this subject he said: "I was beaten by a better boat than Shamrock II. Under the circumstances I do not see how I can ever expecto lift the cup with my boat. Nobody ever saw Sir Thomas Lipton put on his coat in the middle of a fight and the fight for that cup has only begun. I certainly mean to have another try for it-maybe several. The whole trouble is that you Yankees have a designer that is entirely too clever for

"The only way I can see is to go up to Bristol and see Nat Herreshoff and buy him off." jokingly declared Sir Thomas. "I think there are no girls like American girls, but you may say for me that I will never get married till I lift the cup."

Sir Thomas is highly pleased with his reception in America this year. "I thought I had a royal time when I was here before," he said, "but I really did not know what a good time was until the present trip. I am deeply grateful to those who have made my poor efforts to lift the cup so pleasant. Sir Thomas will leave for England on Celtic. He originally planned to leave Wednesdaw on the White Star liner Teutonic, but changed his plans and will go tomorrow. Sir Thomas was the guest of John D Crimmens at an informal dinner tonight.

The navy made the first score. Belknap kicked off from midfield to Howard. Howard fumbled and Soule fell on the ball. Pennsylvania was penniized five yards for offside play, thus bringing the ball on Pennsylvania's five-yard line. Pennsylvania was held twice for downs. The ball was then on the four-yard line and Nichols was shoved over for a touchdown. Strassburger kicked goal. Soon after this Pennsylvania scored. Belknap was called upon to punt, Pleckarski blocked and the ball rolled behind the navy's goal and Snook fell on it. Reynolds failed at goal. They went carefully over the 1,200 requests which have been received for invitations to the electrocution. There will be but twenty-six witnesses admitted. The prison physician will be assisted in the autopsy by Dr. Carlos McDonald, former president of the state commission in lunacy and one of the greatest experts on insanity in the country. There will also be a number of other physicians in attendance when the final mandate of the law is carried out. Superintendent Collins is silent as to whom he will invite, but it is learned that the sheriff of Eric county will receive an invitation. Because of the small attendance that can be had under the statute here will be but a limited number of repesentatives of the press present. The details for the execution have been practically completed and while the prison authorities guard with great secrecy all facts, it is believed that the execution will take place before 6 o'clock on the morning of October 28, or, if everything cannot be gotten ready on that day, at a similar hour on October 29. The work of selecting the jury to sign the death warrant of the murderer has been completed, but their names are withheld from publication. They will not be known until the morning of the electrocution.
