Nebraska Court Records Show a Warning from Dawson County.

MASQUERADERS ARE AN ILLEGAL MOB

Platte County Ballot Case Decided in Favor of Republicans-Herdman's Salary Claim Submitted to Court.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 30 .- (Special.)-Persons who are planning for a demonstration of in an opinion delivered by Judge Ragan of the supreme court several years ago. The case was that of Harley Atkinson against the state, now celebrated in Nebraska legal annals. Atkinson was convicted in the district court of Dawson county on the charge of shooting with intent to do great bodily harm. He admitted firing the shots which injured a man, but he insisted that he did as first lieutenant in the United States arso in defense of his property. The trouble tillery, occurred in Cozad on Hallowe'en. The case was appealed to the supreme court and by that tribunal the judgment of the trial court was reversed.

In the syllabus of the opinion Judge Ragan ruled that an assault of men on Hallowe'en engaged in moving, injuring and destroying property, is a mob engaged in violating the law, and the citizens may use such force as is actually necessary to protect his person and property from injury at its hands.

In closing the opinion, which was quite lengthy. Judge Ragan treated the subject in a general way as follows: "We are not justifying the possessor of property for shooting one who is committing a trespass thereon. But here was a man in his own home, in the peaceable and quiet possession of his property. A howling mob of brawlers, masquerading under the name of 'Hallowe'eners,' is parading the streets of his town, injuring and destroying property. threatening to take the property and destroy it; threatening him with bodily injury if he interferes, and this mob takes possession of his property and attempts to take it away. It was for the jury to say whether the prisoner, as a reasonable human being, was justified under the circumstances in making the assault he did for the purpose of protecting his property, for he certainly has the right to protect his own. The fact that this crowd was observing the barbarous custom of committing mischief and depredation on the evening of October 31 did not deprive the prisoner of the right to defend himself and his property against their unlawful attacks, for no matter under what name they masqueraded the crowd was a mob violating the law and the county attorney of Dawson county would do no more than his duty if he caused each member of this crowd of midnight marauders to be indicted and punished."

Mandamus on Platte Ballots. Information was received at the headquarters of the republican state central committee this afternoon that the application for a writ of mandamus in the Platte county ballot case had been allowed by the district judge of that county. The fusion clerk of Platte county threatened to disregard the law in the preparation of the official election ballot and the court was asked to intervene with an order requiring him to follow not only the law, but the instruction of the supreme court, given last week in the Lancaster county case, both of which provide in effect that the per was served. nominees of the republican party shall be that party having polled the highest vote at the last general election. It was also Jacob Smith of Franklin So Seriously decreed by the court that the ballot should be uniform in arrangement throughout the state. The district judge in Platte county ruled according to the decree of the su-preme court and the writ asked for was Herdman's Salary Claim.

The case of Robert E. Lee Herdman, derk of the supreme court, against Auditor Weston to compel the latter to allow his claim for salary as court reporter was argued and submitted to Judge Holmes in the district court this morning. As an inducement for the defeat of several objectionable bills which sought to take away the fees from his office Mr. Herdman agreed to waive the $1,500 salary provided by the constitution for the supreme court reporter. This agreement was made in writing. Mr. Herdman now claims that the waiver is not binding because of the veto of certain items in the appropriation for office help, which he says he is compelled to pay with the fees which would otherwise be his own compensation. Judge Ryan appeared for Mr. Herdman and the attorney general for the state. More School Funds Invested.

With the purchase of slightly over $1,-000 of state warrants yesterday the total uninvested balance of the permanent educational funds of the state was reduced to $108,059.60. One year ago the balance of these funds, then under the administration of the fusion treasurer, amounted to $231,504.58 and two years ago, under the same administration, the balance was $360 .-600.86. Mr. Stuefer now has more trust money invested than ever before in the state's history and, with only one or two exceptions, the uninvested balance is smaller than it ever was under the fusion regime.

Statistical Maps.

The first consignment of the new statistical maps, which were arranged by Deputy Labor Commissioner Watson and Assistant Hodge, was received at the state house today. Over 15,000 copies will be printed, of which 100 will be mounted or ollers. The demand for these maps is larger than expected, many requests coming from other states. Besides showing all counties, railroads, cities and towns and principal waters in the state the map contains a vast amount of statistical information, all got together in an attractive and practical form.

Silver Fades Fast.

Public attention has been called to the almost complete fading out of the silver coating which was put on the state house dome by the fusionists two years ago. In ornamenting the upper and exterior portion of the building the fusionists worked out scheme suggestive of the sixteen-to-one proposition. Today there is scarcely a trace of the silver left, but the gold taimmings stand out as bright and resplendent as when first put on.

FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 30,-(Special.)peculiar complication has arisen in this county over the official ballots. Six of the eight fusion nominations for county offices were certified to the county clerk as democrats and populists instead of democrats and people's independents. The sample and official ballots were being printed accordingly. Yesterday the fusionists discovered their blunder and secured an order from the county court directing the party names to be changed from populists to people's independent. County Clerk Murrell was served with the order last evening and today one of the Fremon printing offices is being rushed getting out ballots, which appear to be satisfactory. The first ballots were printed according to the certificates of nomination filed by the populist parties, each having held a separate convention, and the printing was completed before the error was discovered.

Hardin of Ranchester, Wyo., 150 thoroughtaken to the Wyoming ranch immediately, where Mr. Hardin expects to engage extensively in hog raising in connection with his mammoth cattle ranch. These young sows were raised principally on alfalfa and weigh about 160 pounds each. They were bred by the most noted Poland-China boars in the United States, ter, Klondyke Chief, Woodburn Medium II and Buffalo Chief.

Nine Divorce Cases at Hebron.

HEBRON, Neb., Oct. 30 .- (Special.) -A term of court of more than ordinary interest was closed here this afternoon. Nine divorce cases were disposed of and two of assault and battery. The case against G. N. Thompson for alleged attempt to administer poison was continued. Marshall & Capron, who brought suit against the Piggott estate for $5,100, were given a verdiet for $4,000. A petition for disbarment was filed against Marshall & Capron by E. W. Jones, one of the Piggott heirs. Judge Stubbs appointed C. L. Richards, O. H. Scott and W. J. Christy to investigate the charges.

Ogallala's Home Industry

OGALLALA, Neb., Oct. 30 .- (Special.)-W. A. Barnard, whose drug store was robbed Sunday night of jewelry and cash, sent to David City and got Lilly's two bloodhounds. The dogs made several attempts to follow the trail, but the scent was too old, thirty-six hours having clapsed since the building was entered, and the result was unsatisfactory. However, all the trails taken by the dogs led to the west part of town and suspicion points to some local talent living in that quarter. The dogs have been returned, but the authorities will keep up the search.

Privileges of the Press.

The discussion of press privileges this morning was attended with some surprises. Isaac A. Beamar, vice president and delegate of Peru, made a splendid speech in favor of the amplest privileges to the press, while the Chilean delegates manifested other opinions.

An extra session has been called for tomorrow to finally dispose of the press privileges of the congress. It is expected that a limited number of newspaper representatives will be admitted.

The recommendation to include the Louisiana Purchase exposition among the subjects of general welfare was introduced by ex-Senator Davis, who dwelt on the importance of the fair. John G. Barrett of the United States delegation spoke at greater length on the same subject. He said that when the delegates to the Pan-American congress had passed recently through St. Louis the fair directors had recommended the enterprise to representatives of the several countries there gath-

He also alluded to President McKinley's proclamation bespeaking the attention and support of the whole world for the fair. Mr. Barrett added the hope that Latin America would give its hearty support and participate in the fair as a mark of good will toward the United States.

The congress did not complete the discussion on regulations at this morning's session. The chief feature of the session was the report of the committee on committees. The recommendations for appointment of committees as already reported were approved. One of the principal subjects which the congress will discuss at a future session is the means of suppression of anarchy.

She was a resident of this city about twenty years ago and has wandered over about all the northwest in that time. While most of the oldtime residents say she is the same woman who was the noted character of early days, others declare the original is dead, or that the woman who is here now is not the one of former days.
