(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 2 .- (Special.) - The exodus of state officials for their various voting places began today and all official business requiring the attention of the heads of departments will remain at a standstill until after the election of Tuesday. A meeting of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has been scheduled for Monday, but owing to the absence of a majority of the members an adjournment will be taken till Wednesday. Treasure. Acrenge of Winter Wheat. It is conservatively estimated by grain men of this city that the acreage of winter wheat this year is at least 10 per cent larger than last year. The Nebraska Grain docket. Dealers' association has reported that the 40,000,000 bushels and if the yield per acre of the crop now under cultivation is as heavy and the increase in acreage as great as estimated the yield next year will be 44,000,000 bushels, which will be far in excess of any crop produced in the state. "Nebraska has taken a high rank among the winter wheat states," said Charles T. Neal, a local grain dealer, this morning. Until a few years ago it was known as a spring wheat state and very few of the Nebraska farmers were aware that our soil could produce a good winter crop of of the unfortunate inmates of this hospital the cereal. Last year the acreage increased to a marked extent and reports from all over the state this fall indicate that still more ground is sown for the winter crop. Strong Demand for Land.

PIERRE, S. In the two circuits in the Hills, the Sev enth and Eighth, more has been said about the Eighth than the Seventh, as Judge Moore is asking for re-election as a non partisan in that circuit, and he has mad himself more prominent by his radical populism than has Judge McGee in the Seventh circuit. Moore expresses a belief in hi re-election, but the chances are too strongly against him to consider that he has any chance. In the Seventh Judge McGee has not shown radical populism and the undercurrent shows that the danger of re publican defeat in the Hills is more likely in the Eighth than the Seventh circuit. The agents said they represented a Kansas City hall insurance company and told the farmers that their rate would be 50 cents to $1.50 on the $100, according to the nature of the risk. The victims were asked to sign a paper which some supposed was a receipt for their policy and others thought was an obligation to the company for the amount of the premium at the rate agreed upon. About the first of September the farmers received notice from headquarters at Kansas City that the company held notes against them for amounts at the rate of $45 on the $100 of their policies and later the notes were sent to a bank in
