

A COSTLY BATH

THE UNENVIABLE SEQUEL TO A DIP IN THE LAKE.

How a Woman from Iowa Took a Summer Cure and the Disastrous Results Which Followed.

An interesting story comes from the little town of Manning, Carroll county, Iowa. The principal figure in it is Mrs. Bertha Addison, who is considered a domestic in one of the well-to-do homes of that place. She was one of a party of young women who went up to Storm Lake for an outing and while there took a dip in the cool waves of that pretty body of water. The day was fine and Mrs. Addison stayed in a long while so long that when she came out she was taken with a chill. The next morning she found herself a stiff in the joints that she could hardly move. "It was a costly bath for me," she continues. "I brought on an attack of muscular rheumatism, which ruined me for several years. My stomach became affected and I was constantly a sufferer from weakness. Every time I ate any meat or anything heavy it made me vomit. My kidneys also bothered me a great deal and altogether I was very miserable. All the time I was getting worse. My knees ached so that I could hardly walk, the stomach was so bad that I could not take any food. My arms and legs were so stiff that I could not move them. I was so weak that I could not get up stairs and I was so nervous that I could not sleep. I was so miserable that I was glad to get home. My mother advised me to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I took three boxes and the result was that I was a stout, healthy woman with no ache or pain. My stomach and kidneys are all right now, and I can get up stairs and I can sleep. I am so well that I can go to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

It's Exhilarating

to be kept busy. We are not a bit afraid of breaking down under the strain. The more business the merrier we feel, and we have a long enough business experience to be able to adapt our facilities to the amount of business we are doing. "Treat every customer so that he will come back." Mr. Paffenrath left these as the only instructions and advice we were likely to need. Why, a business run on these lines is bound to succeed. Perhaps that is why Nicoll has been in business since 1848. Mr. Nicoll's motto was well known: "Give all you can for the money," and it has been faithfully lived up to for over half a century. PRIZE IS DUBUQUE COUNTY'S

Prize for Greatest Republican Gain Moves Farther East.

JASPER IS SECOND AND MADISON THIRD

Former Also Makes Spurt for the Prohibitionist—Where the Losers and the Gains Were Made.

From a Staff Correspondent. DES MOINES, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The county of Iowa showing the greatest republican gain over last year, or greater gain in majority, is Dubuque county, the old stronghold of the democracy, which this year gave a republican majority for the first time in many years. The Tippecanoe job of this state has a banner which is given each year to the county showing the greatest republican gain. It is now held by Monona county, which has had it twice in succession. Last year Dubuque county gave McKinley 4,702 votes but a plurality of 1,005 for Bryan. This year Cummins has 4,361 votes, but the democratic plurality is reduced to 471. The complete returns show several republican losses in the legislature where they were not expected. There appears to be a chance for a contest in the Cass-Shelby senatorial district as both sides are claiming the victory. The democrats, as shown by final returns, elected representatives in Union, Tama, Buchanan and Keokuk counties, but the republicans made unexpected gains in Dubuque, Fremont and Davis. As finally figured out there will be eleven democrats in the senate and fourteen in the house. The county boards will not meet until next week to open the ballot boxes and canvass the returns so that it will not be known until then how much ahead of the ticket Mr. Cummins has or what was the vote on the minor offices. State Will Not Lose. Nearly two years ago a valuable lot was purchased by the state on ground opposite the state capitol for the purpose of erecting a new state historical building. It was decided that the lot would be best for a state arsenal and another lot bought by the state and these became available some time ago. It was feared the purchaser of the lot certificate would give notice and take out a deed, but he has not done so and cannot now foreclose because the legislature can meet and pass a special act to redeem the property from the mortgage. It is therefore certain the state will not lose this lot.

Life Sentence for Oll Green. (This Green, formerly of Orlan and Albia, was today sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of his wife last September. Green attempted self-destruction and succeeded only in making himself blind and he has so recently come from the hospital that his health is precarious. He has a sister living in Corndon and his mother also lives in Leon, but neither was present. Green killed his wife because she had left him and come to Des Moines to secure employment. He believed he will not live long in confinement.)

Dramatic End of Humanitarian. Theodore F. Gatchel, who died suddenly last night while in attendance at a meeting of the board of directors of the Methodist hospital, came to his end in a most dramatic manner. He had just been elected a member of the executive committee. He had been a member of the board from the first and was foremost among the members in furthering the interests of the hospital. The board took up the question of the future policy of the hospital. Mr. Gatchel arose to make a few remarks. He spoke feelingly in favor of greater liberality in the matter of admitting charity patients. He pleaded for more people to be given the benefits of the hospital in all classes. President Mann of the association made a statement as to the number of charity patients who had been admitted and very much. He then fell to the floor dead. He had been engaged in insurance business in Des Moines for many years, but had always been one of the foremost men of the city in philanthropic and charitable work. He was also greatly interested in the work of the humane societies of the state.

Fail to Report. Thirty-seven counties of Iowa either hold neither county nor district fairs or have chosen not to report to the secretary of the Agricultural department in order to secure the $200 each which is allowed by law. One thing which has deterred some of them from reporting is that the music made at the fairs has been permitted on the fair grounds during the fairs. Among counties failing to report are: Appanoose, Bremer, Butler, Calhoun, Carroll, Cerro Gordo, Clarke, Clay, Crawford, Decatur, Dickinson, Floyd, Fremont, Greene, Grundy, Hamilton, Harrison, Howard, Ida, Jefferson, Lucas, Lyon, Mahaska, Monona, Montgomery, Monroe, Osceola, Polk, Sac, Scott, Union, Van Buren, Wapello, Washington, Webster, Woodbury and Worth.

To Help Memorial University. December 2 next has been fixed upon as Memorial University day by the Women's Relief corps of Iowa and in a circular just issued the secretary asks that the day be made one on which the women will give entertainments or otherwise raise money in aid of the Memorial college which is being built under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans at Mason City. The women are taking an interest in this new school and will give it all the help they can.

Will Move Out of Courthouse. The contract has been let for a new court jail, to be temporary in nature, and the old jail will be removed from the courthouse. The new rooms for the county offices in an old store building are being fitted up and next week the courthouse on Des Moines, over which there has been so much contention, will be abandoned and torn down. The county has rented temporary quarters for two years while the new courthouse is being built. Whether the contractors will be allowed to go ahead with their work is not yet known, but as the old courthouse will be abandoned.

ACTRESS' SAVINGS ARE REAL. Member of Village Parson Company Has to Be Taken From Train at Fort Dodge. FORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Struggling in the arms of other actors who endeavored to restrain her, Sadie Claffin, member of 'The Village Parson' company, was taken from the train here this morning. Her clothing had been torn and disordered in her struggles and while she waited in the station for the ambulance to take her to the hospital it required four strong men to restrain her in her frenzied ravings. Miss Claffin was affected suddenly while on the train this morning. Her inability to be considered directly due to morbid ideas in spiritualism which she has manifested recently. For some time past she has suffered from melancholia, but no one anticipated this sudden violent outbreak. She is now under the care of physicians. Miss Claffin took the sobriety role of Gretchen von Crank and had made a hit in the part. Miss Claffin is 27 years old and has been with the company all season. Her home is in New York.

Red-handed Black Men Make Their Latest Escape Under Fire at Clinton.

CLINTON, Ia., Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Two desperate negroes engaged in a fierce duel here during the early hours of this morning with Captain William Dougherty and Constable George Huber. The negroes created a disturbance in an eating house and were arrested. While being taken to the police station they drew weapons and opened fire on the officers. After an exchange of a number of shots the negroes escaped. Today it was learned that negroes supposed to be the Clinton pair held up and robbed A. J. Cox on a freight train near Stanwood, a couple of miles ago. After having the train stopped they took him over the head with a pistol, making a bad wound and knocking him off the train. According to the description of the negroes they are the ones who had robbed a man near Tipton a few days ago. They are desperate characters and are eagerly sought by the police of a number of Iowa towns. A bloody trail shows one of the negroes was wounded. Officer Dougherty, who so narrowly escaped the bullets of the desperadoes, was shot by Joe McNeil last summer, the bullet going entirely through his body.

A bottle of Prickly Ash Bitters kept in the house and used occasionally means good health to the whole household.

DEATH RECORD.

Adolph H. Kraus, Sculptor. HYDE PARK, Mass., Nov. 8.—Announcement was made here today of the death of Adolph H. Kraus, famous sculptor, which took place in a private hospital last night. Mr. Kraus had been receiving treatment at the institution since last July. He was 51 years of age. A widow, four sons and two daughters survive. A pensioner of the Prussian government and winner of the grand prize of Rome, the name of the sculptor was established in Europe before he came to America in 1881. In this country he continued to win fame and it was the disappointment of his ambition to produce a masterpiece which is said to have caused his death. He had partially completed a model in clay of a heroic figure of Belshazzar at the moment of seeing the crumbling and Kraus was compelled to abandon the work. His mind became unbalanced soon afterward.

In the competition for the Iowa state soldiers' monument Kraus won second prize. Captain Redford Sargent. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Captain Redford Sargent, marine superintendent of Cramp's shipyard, died today of heart trouble, aged about 60 years. He had been ill since Tuesday.
