

BRIGHT BOY IN HARD LUCKBad Story Told by a Waif at the Police Station.*ARTHUR HUSSIE'S ROUGH EXPERIENCE*Twothal Partners in Misery Found Suffering from Cold and Hunger in a Lumber Yard and Given Relief.

Arthur Hussie of Eureka Springs, Ark., aged 13 years, and Nick Worlds of Weston, Kan., aged 12 years, were picked up by the police about 2 yesterday morning in a lumber yard near the west approach of the Douglas street bridge. Both were suffering from hunger, exposure and homesickness, and one was without a coat, having nothing to protect him from the chill morning air save a pair of jeans trousers and a thin cotton shirt.

At the station they were warmed and fed, and then by degrees their story was wrung from them.

The annals of Nick Worlds are brief. He ran away from home ten days ago because his father wanted him to go to school, and since then has been knocking about the country in boy cars. When his spending money ran out he pawned his coat.

Son of Poor Widow.

The story of Arthur Hussie is less complete. His father is dead and his mother is a poor widow living at Eureka Springs, where she supports herself and two small children by taking in washing. Three years ago Arthur, then a lad of 10, was sent to work for a farmer named Herman Herkimer, five miles south of Albion, in whose employ he remained continuously until Wednesday of this week. On that day the farmer drove to Omaha, bringing Arthur with him. When it was time to return Arthur was at the appointed place of meeting, only to learn that his late employer had gone home without him, and then he realized that, like Bob Singleton in De Foe's narrative, he was marooned in a strange land, penniless, without a "charter" and almost without clothes.

Since then he has been looking for work, subsisting on scraps of food given him by kind-hearted housewives. Friday, down on the river front, he fell in with Nick Worlds. The lads compared notes and decided to be "partners." When night came on Nick felt the need of the coat he had pawned and Arthur took off his and gave it to his new pal.

When the policeman ran across them at 8 o'clock in the morning it was Arthur who was shivering in his shirt sleeves.

Breaks Up Partnership.

At the station yesterday morning Desk Sergeant Harvey decided to break up the co-partnership. Long practice has given him a keen eye for the reading of characters and he decided that Arthur's morals would not be improved by association with Nick. Nick's face had a hardened look; his eyes were "shifty," and through his close-cropped hair could be seen innumerable scars and dents, attesting a pugnacious temperament. So Patsey gave him a coat, the sleeves of which had to be turned back about one-half to enable him to use his hands, and sent him back to Kansas. Arthur will be given the hospitality of the station until he can find a job.

The best bargains in the paper are on the want ad page. Don't miss them.

COUNT OF THE COUNTY VOTE

Official Canvass Sees a Little Heat Engendered, but No Change Made.

That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak, Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried.

Stomachs that won't work

Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard part and make them a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like, if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Send to E. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

Quaker Bath Cabinet
5.00 Each

The best cabinet made. The simplest in construction and the most convenient to use. Call and see them.

THE H. J. PENFOLD CO.

Medical and Surgical Supplies.

HER CLOTHING IS HER PYRE

Hattie Billings Burns to Death as a Result of Slight Accident.

Miss Hattie Billings, aged 29 years, was fatally burned yesterday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock at the home of her employer, W. A. Saunders, 2665 North Nineteenth street, while preparing the evening meal.

The young woman, who was alone in the house at the time of the accident, had started the fire, preparatory to cooking supper, when a live coal flew out of the stove and ignited her clothing. Almost instantly she was ablaze and rushed out of the kitchen into the yard. Four young women who were passing in a carriage saw her and immediately went to her assistance. Before their arrival, however, the girl was completely enveloped in flames, her clothing and hair being one solid blaze. One of the strangers took off her own skirt and threw it over the burning girl. Mrs. Little Bryant, a neighbor, who was attracted by the screaming, threw a blanket over the girl and with the assistance of the four young women carried her into the house, where she shortly afterward lost consciousness.

Mrs. Billings' clothing was burned from her body. Her face, limbs and body were one mass of burns. Miss Billings came to Omaha from Missouri several years ago. For the past year she has been employed by the family of W. A. Saunders, with whom she made her home. Her mother is dead and her father is supposed to be in New York.

Mrs. Saunders, mother of W. A. Saunders, said: "Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were away from the house when the accident occurred. I had gone to a neighbor's and had been absent about ten minutes when I heard the screaming. When I came home some women who were passing in a carriage and some of the neighbors had carried her into the house and put out the fire. I have no idea what the accident occurred unless a spark flew out of the stove and set fire to her dress. Hattie has been with us nearly a year and we all loved her. She was a good, kind and faithful girl, and we are deeply distressed at the sad accident. The young women who were in the carriage did not tell me their names, but their action is very commendable and we appreciate it."

CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.Dandruff, Which is a Germ Disease—Kill the Germ.

At the station yesterday morning Desk Sergeant Harvey decided to break up the co-partnership. Long practice has given him a keen eye for the reading of characters and he decided that Arthur's morals would not be improved by association with Nick. Nick's face had a hardened look; his eyes were "shifty," and through his close-cropped hair could be seen innumerable scars and dents, attesting a pugnacious temperament. So Patsey gave him a coat, the sleeves of which had to be turned back about one-half to enable him to use his hands, and sent him back to Kansas. Arthur will be given the hospitality of the station until he can find a job.

The best bargains in the paper are on the want ad page. Don't miss them.

COUNT OF THE COUNTY VOTEOfficial Canvass Sees a Little Heat Engendered, but No Change Made.*That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak, Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried.

Stomachs that won't work

Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard part and make them a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating.

Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like, if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Send to E. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

Quaker Bath Cabinet
5.00 Each

The best cabinet made. The simplest in construction and the most convenient to use. Call and see them.

THE H. J. PENFOLD CO.

Medical and Surgical Supplies.

166 Farnam St. OMAHA.

Woman's Work in Club and Charity

Hattie Billings Burns to Death as a Result of Slight Accident.

Miss Hattie Billings, aged 29 years, was fatally burned yesterday afternoon at 5:15 o'clock at the home of her employer, W. A. Saunders, 2665 North Nineteenth street, while preparing the evening meal.

The young woman, who was alone in the house at the time of the accident, had started the fire, preparatory to cooking supper, when a live coal flew out of the stove and ignited her clothing. Almost instantly she was ablaze and rushed out of the kitchen into the yard. Four young women who were passing in a carriage saw her and immediately went to her assistance.

Before their arrival, however, the girl was completely enveloped in flames, her clothing and hair being one solid blaze. One of the strangers took off her own skirt and threw it over the burning girl. Mrs. Little Bryant, a neighbor, who was attracted by the screaming, threw a blanket over the girl and with the assistance of the four young women carried her into the house, where she shortly afterward lost consciousness.

Mrs. Billings' clothing was burned from her body. Her face, limbs and body were one mass of burns. Miss Billings came to Omaha from Missouri several years ago. For the past year she has been employed by the family of W. A. Saunders, with whom she made her home. Her mother is dead and her father is supposed to be in New York.

Mrs. Saunders, mother of W. A. Saunders, said: "Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were away from the house when the accident occurred. I had gone to a neighbor's and had been absent about ten minutes when I heard the screaming. When I came home some women who were passing in a carriage and some of the neighbors had carried her into the house and put out the fire. I have no idea what the accident occurred unless a spark flew out of the stove and set fire to her dress. Hattie has been with us nearly a year and we all loved her. She was a good, kind and faithful girl, and we are deeply distressed at the sad accident. The young women who were in the carriage did not tell me their names, but their action is very commendable and we appreciate it."

At the station they were warmed and fed, and then by degrees their story was wrung from them.

The annals of Nick Worlds are brief. He ran away from home ten days ago because his father wanted him to go to school, and since then has been knocking about the country in boy cars. When his spending money ran out he pawned his coat.

Son of Poor Widow.

The story of Arthur Hussie is less complete. His father is dead and his mother is a poor widow living at Eureka Springs, where she supports herself and two small children by taking in washing. Three years ago Arthur, then a lad of 10, was sent to work for a farmer named Herman Herkimer, five miles south of Albion, in whose employ he remained continuously until Wednesday of this week. On that day the farmer drove to Omaha, bringing Arthur with him. When it was time to return Arthur was at the appointed place of meeting, only to learn that his late employer had gone home without him, and then he realized that, like Bob Singleton in De Foe's narrative, he was marooned in a strange land, penniless, without a "charter" and almost without clothes.

Since then he has been looking for work, subsisting on scraps of food given him by kind-hearted housewives. Friday, down on the river front, he fell in with Nick Worlds. The lads compared notes and decided to be "partners." When night came on Nick felt the need of the coat he had pawned and Arthur took off his and gave it to his new pal.

When the policeman ran across them at 8 o'clock in the morning it was Arthur who was shivering in his shirt sleeves.

Breaks Up Partnership.

At the station yesterday morning Desk Sergeant Harvey decided to break up the co-partnership. Long practice has given him a keen eye for the reading of characters and he decided that Arthur's morals would not be improved by association with Nick. Nick's face had a hardened look; his eyes were "shifty," and through his close-cropped hair could be seen innumerable scars and dents, attesting a pugnacious temperament. So Patsey gave him a coat, the sleeves of which had to be turned back about one-half to enable him to use his hands, and sent him back to Kansas. Arthur will be given the hospitality of the station until he can find a job.

The best bargains in the paper are on the want ad page. Don't miss them.

COUNT OF THE COUNTY VOTEOfficial Canvass Sees a Little Heat Engendered, but No Change Made.*That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak, Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried.

Stomachs that won't work

Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less trouble the fewer tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear, the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard part and make them a healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them forever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating.

Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like, if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Send to E. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for little book on stomach diseases, mailed free.

Quaker Bath Cabinet
5.00 Each

The best cabinet made. The simplest in construction and the most convenient to use. Call and see them.

THE H. J. PENFOLD CO.

Medical and Surgical Supplies.

166 Farnam St. OMAHA.

Change your Change for a Change of UNDERWEAR right now

W. S. Baldwift
1520 Farnam St.

WARES OF GOLD AND SILVER
165 SOUTH 16TH ST. PAXTON BLOCK.
Special Watch Examiner B. & M. Ry.
Chief Watch Inspector O. & S. L. Ry. O.
K. C. & F. Ry. and K. C. & N. Ry.

Monday evening at the hall, corner of Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue, the Millard Rifles, sixty-one strong, will be mustered into the National guard of the state of Nebraska with the following commissioned officers: T. A. Vaughan, Major; H. Staffor, first Lieutenant; Roy H. Walsh, second Lieutenant. The mustering officer will be Colonel Brown of Wakefield, Judge advocate general of the guard. It is expected that at the services there will be present Brigadier General L. W. Colby, Brigadier General P. H. Berry, Colonel William Hayward of Nebraska City and Colonel Archer of Beatrice. The Thurston Rifles and Omaha Guards will be out in force to welcome the new company into the service of the state. After the muster a dance will follow.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating.

Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other