

WOMAN IN THE PLOT

Rathbun Confesses That He Covered In Insurance Policy DENIES ANY PURPOSE TO KILL GO.

Body of Victim Will be Sent to Jeffersonville for Autopsy.

WAR DEPARTMENT SURRENDERS ACCUSED Soldier Will be Turned Over to Authorities of Indiana.

MRS. RATHBUN BELIEVES HUSBAND IS DEAD Her Impression is that Body Sent for Burial Belongs to Former Lieutenant of the Latter.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 13.—Newell C. Rathbun, who was arrested here on suspicion of having caused the death at Jeffersonville, Ind., of Charles Goodman, who was found dead in a hotel in that city last Thursday, daily having resulted, it is supposed, from ipecacuanha poisoning, is tonight in the Clark county (Indiana) jail on a charge of murder. Under instructions from the War department at Washington, Rathbun, who is a deserter from the United States army, was this morning turned over to Indiana authorities and taken across the river.

Rathbun told the Louisville police today that his wife at Little Rock had known of his plan to fraud the insurance company, though not of the murder feature of it.

The other feature of the case today was the decision of the authorities to have the body of the supposed Goodman removed to Jeffersonville from Little Rock for an autopsy and identification and the refusal of the local authorities to send Rathbun to Little Rock to testify at the coroner's inquest over the corpse that was shipped there. A telegram was sent to Little Rock today asking that the body be returned to Jeffersonville.

For the first time Rathbun admitted today that he had a confederate in Little Rock and, when closely pushed by his wife, he admitted that his wife was in part of the conspiracy, although he insisted that she was entirely innocent of complicity in any plot to put Goodman out of the way.

At first Rathbun stated that his only confederate was a deserter from the regular army by the name of Blanchard, but he finally admitted that this was false and that Blanchard was fictitious.

Plot Revealed to Girl. The suspicions of Captain Sullivan were aroused today by news from Little Rock that Miss Corinne Pryor had stated that Rathbun had proposed a similar plot for defrauding an insurance company to her and had said that if she would marry him and carry out her part that he would send a corpse home, that it could be buried as him and that he would divide the insurance. He also learned that Mrs. Rathbun still insisted that the corpse sent from Jeffersonville and now in Little Rock was that of her husband.

After ascertaining these facts Captain Sullivan had Rathbun brought into his private office and interrogated him about this phase of the case.

Rathbun said: "I have only told you part of the truth so far. I arranged this matter with my wife in Little Rock long ago. I told her that I would find a corpse and then collect the insurance, and in time I would desert again from the army and meet her at some place and we would divide it."

After making this statement Rathbun said that his wife knew nothing of his plan to commit murder and set free a hotel.

"Indeed," he said, "no murder was committed, for I did not kill Goodman. I might have killed him if necessary, but he died of natural causes."

Identity of Rathbun. One of the most perplexing features of the case is it now presents itself to the police in regard to the real identity of the prisoner here. That he has been passing himself over the country as Lieutenant Newell C. Rathbun, that he was insured for $4,000 and that he was in the army, the detectives are convinced that it is an alias and that he has never told his real name or his real home.

A telegram has been received from the chief of police of Evansville, Ind., stating that Goodman was a resident of Crispell Creek, Colo., where he was a brass worker. When asked as to the claim made by Mrs. Rathbun that the body sent to Little Rock was that of her husband, Rathbun laughed and remarked: "Maybe it is his corpse." That is all he would say on the subject.

De Beason Donnell of Jeffersonville, who was present at the autopsy upon Goodman's body, says he will swear that Goodman was in Goodman's stomach in large quantities. The Louisville police today began sending all over the United States photographs and a description of Rathbun in an effort to positively identify him.

Holds Wife Guiltless. In the jail at Jeffersonville tonight Rathbun was asked whether his wife at Little Rock was implicated in the plot to collect the insurance. After several moments' silence he replied: "No, there was nobody in it at Little Rock."

In Uncle Sam's Grasp. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The War department has decided to send Newell C. Rathbun from Louisville to Jeffersonville, Ind., under military escort, and there to turn him over to the civil authorities. The military authorities are holding Rathbun on the charge of desertion from the United States army, but believe he will be tried on the more serious charge of murder, preferred against him in Indiana. As a prisoner of the United States government no requisition will be required to take him from Kentucky to Indiana.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 13.—The inquest over the body supposed to be that of Newell C. Rathbun was resumed today. Former Chief of Police Sanders, Durand Whipple, who rented the room which Rathbun occupied as a recruiting office, and William O'Connell, who roomed with Rathbun several weeks previous to his marriage, testified that the body was not that of Rathbun. Detective Chester leaves tonight for Louisville. He will take with him a personal friend of Rathbun's for the purpose of identifying him. Chester represents the insurance company in which Goodman was insured. He is expected to return here tomorrow with a description of the body here will remain in the keeping of the coroner.

HAS A TALK WITH MISS STONE

Bulgarian Clergymen Says She is Confined in the Residence of a Turkish Official.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Ivan Molochoff, a Bulgarian clergyman, who is now in London, has just returned from visiting Miss Stone and is now in consultation with Mr. Dickinson, says a Sofia (Bulgaria) dispatch in the Journal and Advertiser. "Miss Stone," he said, "is in the town of Cereva, Macedonia. I believe she was originally sent to Mr. Dickinson to try to arrange for her release. Miss Stone and Miss Telika are well, but the strain is terrific, and there is danger that Miss Stone may lose her mind. To be always in the same surroundings is likely to drive her crazy; constantly looking at the same objects has semi-memorized her and she has had a presentiment that evil will befall her.

The brigand chief informs me that he will now insist on the full ransom, as the length of time Miss Stone has been left on his hands leaves no margin for bargaining. The name of the brigand chief is Dervish Yunous, and he is an Albanian. Bekir Bey, in whose house Miss Stone is confined, is hand in glove with the brigand chief. Bekir Bey assisted the brigands in keeping Miss Stone for thirty days in the mountains before taking her to his house.

There are about 150 Macedonians imprisoned in connection with the Stone affair by the Turkish officials. I want no personal compensation, but I want the Macedonians released. The American consul at Sofia insists upon Bekir Bey releasing Miss Stone. It will not be necessary to deal with the brigands, and we can get her release without paying ransom."

MISS STONE HAS NO WARNING Missionary Observes Local Precautions and No Criticism Can Properly Be Made.

BORNTON, Nov. 13.—The executive officers of the American Board of Foreign Missions, concerning the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone, issued a statement today intended to be corrective of reports that have been widely published relative to the condition that resulted in her capture by the brigands. This statement says that the missionary, in pursuit of her missionary duties as a missionary when she was captured, the route over which she was traveling is one that is continually used by the missionaries and without reason for apprehending any special danger.

No warning whatever was given to Miss Stone as she was traveling, either by the Turkish or Bulgarian authorities. She had the usual escort of eighteen or twenty people and was accustomed to carry with her a Turkish tesker, or permit to travel.

One of the missionaries acquainted with the region states that the route Miss Stone traveled is one of the safest of any in that region. The statement further affirms that there is no ground whatever for criticizing Miss Stone for want of precaution in making this journey.

BOERS CHARGED WITH MURDER War Secretary Accuses Boers of Hiding Their Tracks by Killing Kafirs Behind Them.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Mr. Broderick, the Boer secretary, tonight at the banquet given in London in his honor by the City Carlton club, declared that the Boers were hiding their tracks by murdering the Kafirs behind them.

Lord Kitchener wired today, he continued, that the cold-blooded murder of natives had become the frequent habit of the two dead natives; their hands tied behind their backs, were found November 10 at the bottom of a mine shaft.

Later in his speech Mr. Broderick said Great Britain now had 42,000 Boers in custody in the concentration camps and on various islands and that 2,500 Boers had been killed and 20,000 had left the country on parole. He added that he believed the number of Boers now in the field to be about 10,000.

Mr. Broderick said he was sorry anything had happened to affect the career of Sir Redvers Buller and he assumed the committee on the execution of Sir Evelyn Wood was not a bar to the work that officer had to do as commander of an army corps.

PEACE IS STILL AFAR OFF Boer Representative Says British Attitude Must Materially Change Before Terms Are Considered.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—The Frankfurter Zeitung today publishes an interview with A. D. Wolmeras, the Boer representative at Amsterdam, in which the latter is quoted as saying that the British attitude in negotiations between the Boers and British are unfounded.

"So long," says Wolmeras, "as the British ministry maintains the attitude outlined by Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Salisbury's last speeches the question of peace cannot be considered. The sea of the cessation of gold fields is absurd."

AUSTRIA IS ALSO PLACATED Turkey Agrees to Pay Sixty Thousand Francs to Armenians and to Adjust Other Differences.

VIENNA, Nov. 13.—Numerous grievances of Austria-Hungary against Turkey have been settled by the agreement of the port to pay 50,000 francs to the Armenian victims and by adjusting financially and otherwise wrongs arising from eight other matters of dispute. These include the claims of the Oriental Railway company. It was the purpose of Austria-Hungary to adopt effective measures had the port not yielded.

COSTLY SHINER IS COMING New Yorker Has Sailed from London with the Hope Blue Diamond in Pocket.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The report that the famous Hope blue diamond is returning to New York is correct. It is in the pocket of a member of a New York firm now on his way there from London. They were prepared for an attack and were in rifle pits. The cavalry attacked the insurgents on the flank, killing sixteen of them, wounding five and capturing nine rifles. The insurgents broke and ran, the cavalry pursuing them.

Two large boatloads of arms are reported to have been landed on the southern part of the island of Mindanao and taken to Durang. Major West, stationed in that locality, is endeavoring to find these arms.

AGUINALDO IS AN ISSUE Steps to Secure His Release from Nominal Captivity Raise Many-Sided Question.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—While the War department has not been advised of the reported step to secure the release of Aguinaldo from captivity through writ of habeas corpus, it was prepared for a move in that direction. A few weeks ago the first application of this kind was made in the case of a military prisoner and, as there was some indication of a disposition on the part of the Philippine commission to uphold the right of habeas corpus in that case, the department was obliged to cable some instructions, both to the commission and to General Chaffee, the result of which was a practical denial of the writ.

War department officials have deprecated the making of an issue of this important point, pending the decision on the supreme court in the "fourteen diamond ring" case, involving the question as to whether the constitution follows the flag. Up to this time there has been no real test of the right of appeal from the Philippine courts to the federal courts here, nor of the right of habeas corpus in the Philippines. As far as Aguinaldo is concerned, it is said that his captivity is only nominal. The only evidence of it consists in the appearance by his side of an army officer when he walks about the town, for he is free to go almost anywhere. Moreover, it is said that this escort is perhaps necessary to protect Aguinaldo from assault, as he has been threatened by the secret societies.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF SCIENCE Association of Experiment Stations and Agricultural Colleges Will Extend Its Work.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Association of Experiment Stations and Agricultural colleges, in annual convention today, decided to establish at Columbus, O., a summer school for the study of agriculture, astronomy, zootechny and dairying. Dr. A. C. Tracy, head of the department of agriculture, will be director of the institution. The Ohio State university will furnish the buildings and equipment. The plan adopted is for graduate students, instructors and investigators. The action is based on a report from the executive committee on a plan proposed at the last convention by Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of the Ohio State university. A motion to change the name of the association was tabled.

The section on mechanic arts, horticulture, botany, college work, agriculture and chemistry held afternoon sessions, at which technical papers were read. The delegates to the convention were given a reception tonight by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson. The convention will close tomorrow.

Prof. Elwood Meade, Dr. W. E. Stubbs of Louisiana and Prof. C. S. Phelps of Connecticut were the speakers. It was their opinion that the interest in irrigation is growing in all parts of the country and that the humid regions can be benefited practically by its application.

President Smiley and Prof. Nelson of the Wyoming State University, Prof. Carpenter of Fort Collins and Prof. Baker of Boulder are among the 200 delegates attending.

Secretary Hitchcock has directed that the Black Hills timber reserve of South Dakota and Wyoming be placed under the sole control of Supervisor Seth Bullock, relieving Superintendent J. B. Prof. Clarence Johnston of Cheyenne reached here today on his way to Italy. Spain and Egypt, where he will make a study and report of the irrigation investigations on behalf of the office of irrigation.

REYES ACTS AS DESIGNADO Columbian Minister Will Succeed to Power if Both President and Vice President Retire.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Colombian government is making a trade offer and in an interesting way to solve the troubles which have arisen in its executive branch. The first official act of the new Colombian congress is to appoint a "designado," an official who succeeds to the presidency on the retirement of both the president and vice president. General Rafael Reyes, Colombian minister to France, now in attendance upon the congress of American republics at the City of Mexico, holds that position.

Information has reached the Colombian legation in this city that a committee composed of three Colombian officials is about to leave Bogota for Mexico City to endeavor to induce General Reyes to accompany it back to the Colombian capital and take up the reins of government.

Notwithstanding the fact that the former president, San Clemente, has been out of the country for some time, it is believed he is still the constitutional president of Colombia and he has yet to tender his resignation from that office. However, San Clemente, it is said, has said he will tender his resignation provided President Marquez, who is constitutionally only the vice president, will do likewise.

A great many of the present complications in Colombia have arisen out of this situation and the strong factions back of the commission see in General Reyes an official with a clean title to the presidency if, as they confidently believe, President Marquez will resign.

Mr. Heran, charge d'affaires of the Colombian legation, received a mail dispatch from the governor of Panama today in which mention is made of continued expedition by Nino Giron, a filibustering expedition entering Colombia.

SENATORS CALL ON PRESIDENT Spooner Expresses Faith in Ratification of Treaty and Passage of Canal Bill.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Senator Spooner of Wisconsin and Senator Bailey of Texas saw the president today and the former, together with ex-Senator Donald Cameron of Pennsylvania, took luncheon at the White House. Senator Spooner, on coming out, declined to discuss the questions of reciprocity and tariff, but expressed the opinion that the new treaty with Great Britain would be ratified and the canal bill passed at the appropriate time.

Senator Bailey, who was for two congresses the leader of the minority in the house, says that so far as he is aware there will be no meeting of the minority senators to decide upon a policy of opposition in the coming congress. He is inclined to think that events will be likely to demand this course. Senator Bailey said that if the new canal treaty was the strong treaty it was reported to be he would gladly give it his support.

A delegation from the Land Grant College association, which is meeting in this city, formally paid the respects of the association to the president today. It consisted of R. E. Fulton of Mississippi, Joseph Swaine and G. E. McLean of Iowa.

FIGHTING BOB GOES TO ASIA Navy Department Purposes to Send Admiral Evans to Relieve Officers Serving There.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Secretary Long intends to send Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans out to the Asiatic station to be second officer in command. Both Admiral Remy, commander-in-chief of that station, and Admiral Kempf, junior squadron commander, will return soon to the United States, having served out the term allotted for service in Asiatic waters. This will leave Rear Admiral Rogers, now in senior command of the squadron, in supreme command. Though it has not yet been decided, it is very probable that there will not be three admirals on the Asiatic station, as at present, for officers of that rank are needed for service at home and two rear admirals, it is thought, will suffice.

LONG SCORE TO BE SETTLED

Seventeen Counts in Indictment of Longbaugh and Laura Bullion.

TRAINMEN HAVE SEEN PRISONER BEFORE

Fireman Identifies Longbaugh as Robber Who Climbed Into Cab and Directed the Management of Locomotive.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 13.—The November federal grand jury today returned indictments against Harry Longbaugh, alias John Arthur, and his companion Laura Bullion. They were indicted on seventeen separate counts each.

Charles H. Smith and Michael P. O'Neill, express messenger and fireman respectively of the Great Northern flyer that was held up last July near Wagner, Mont., arrived here this afternoon and identified the suspect under arrest as Harry Longbaugh, the man who held up the train and took the lead in intimidating the train crew and blowing open the express company's safe, which nearly $100,000 in unsafe bills of the National bank of Helena were stolen.

O'Neill says that Longbaugh is the man who climbed over the tender and held up Engineer Jones and himself and then superintended the blowing up of the safe. His recollection of the episode was so vivid that he could describe the two revolvers that the robbers used. The police say they are the same weapons that were found on the prisoner when he was arrested.

Prisoner Does Not Flinch. Smith and O'Neill came to St. Louis accompanied by D. F. Elliott, general manager of the Great Northern Express company, in whose care the banknotes were when stolen. Longbaugh never flinched when the identification was made. He merely looked at the men and snuffed contemptuously. Chief Desmond asked Longbaugh his real name.

"I will talk when the time comes," was the reply, and not another word could the chief get out of the stubborn prisoner. He "first saw this man when we were about 500 yards out of Malta," said Michael P. O'Neill, the fireman. "I was shoveling coal and I looked up and saw him coming over the tender. He had a big pistol in his left hand and a smaller one in his right. The first thing I saw when he came in, he covered me with his pistol and told me to go on with my work. I complied."

"Then he came on toward me and the engineer, T. R. Jones. He kept one pistol on me and the other on Jones."

"What does this mean?" said Jones. "Head is Explicit."

"It means that this is a holdup, and that it is going through," the fellow said, as he climbed on the seat by the engineer's side.

Fireman O'Neill stated in detail the story of the robbery, adding: "After looting the safe and getting the money, they had horses standing there and they rode away on a gallop, shooting all the while."

O'Neill said that for eight miles he rode in the same cab with the prisoner. He studied his features carefully. He said that when the robbery occurred Longbaugh had a short and stubby moustache. It did not seem so dark then as it does now.

Chief Desmond says that he now thinks that the prisoner's real name is Ben Kilpatrick. A "tall Texan" answering the prisoner's description was implicated in several train and bank robberies in the west and he was known as Kilpatrick.

Messrs. Elliott, O'Neill and Smith will return to St. Louis a day or two. The men may testify in the United States court if it is decided to continue the prosecution here. Since this last evidence has turned up it may be deemed best to take the prisoner to Montana for trial, where the offense of train robbing is punishable by death.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 13.—Governor Jenks tonight ordered the military company at Troy to proceed at once to Ozark to protect Pharaoh Parramore, a negro, from being lynched. Parramore is charged with having committed an assault on Mrs. Jim Saunders, a white woman living two miles from Ozark. He was captured and is in the Dale county jail. The call for the militia was sent to the governor by the sheriff of the county, who telegraphed that he had deputized every reliable citizen of Ozark to assist him in guarding the jail.

BANDIT BURNS BALLOT BOX Georgia Election Officer is Held Up and Returns Are Stolen—Offense Punishable by Death.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 13.—A special from Seale, Russell county, Ala., to the Enquirer-Sun says: S. W. Peppers, returning officer for Crawford precinct, while enroute to Seale with the ballot box containing the returns of the recent election, was held up at the point of a revolver and the ballot box taken from him.

The highwayman wore a mask and his identity is unknown. He retreated to the woods nearby, where a search later revealed the ashes and pieces of the ballot box and papers, which had been burned. This is a capital offense in this state.

Salsbury Bond Forfeited

Indictment of Grand Rapids Attorney on Barton's Complaint Is Not Forgotten.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(Special Telegram) The bond of $5,000 under which L. K. Salsbury, city attorney, had granted K. H. Barton, Mich., has had his liberty since his indictment on the charge of the theft of $50,000 from Guy C. Barton, an Omaha capitalist, was forfeited before Judge Dunne today. The attorneys representing Barton secured a stay of ten days to perfect a bill of exceptions to the action of the court, which was taken in the face of the contention that as Salsbury is now on trial in a criminal case in Grand Rapids the charge against him here could not be called for the purpose of forfeiting his bond.

State's Attorney Ineson said in court that he had no desire to be severe and that he would move the setting aside of the forfeiture when Salsbury was brought into court. He said he wished the bond forfeited for the reason that he had not transferred his property and that a forfeited bond in the sum of $1,300 stood on the records against Abraham Mendelsohn, of the other surety.

No effort will be made to arrest Salsbury on a capias under the bond forfeiture, which, it is understood, disposes of any rights he might have under three demands already made by him for trial at three consecutive terms of court.

IN MEMORY OF CONFEDERACY Women of the South Join in Discussion of Topics Relating to the Lost Cause.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 13.—The eighth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was called to order by the Young Men's Christian association auditorium in this city this morning by Mrs. Edwin Wood of Jacksonville, Fla., the president. About 175 officers and delegates are in attendance. During the morning session Mrs. Stonewell Jackson of Charlotte, who is the guest of friends in the city, was formally introduced to the assemblage and accorded an ovation.

Mrs. Adeline Dunavort, historian of the Confederacy, closed the morning session with an address upon "Principles in Their Relation to Human Action," being an able defense of secession. Mrs. Corneia B. Stone of Galveston presented in behalf of Mrs. M. R. C. Hill Rosenberg of Texas a handsome silk confederate flag as it was first adopted by the confederacy. The flag is surmounted by a Maltese cross, an emblem of Maryland, the native state of Dr. Charles MacGill and Mrs. Ragna MacGill, for whom the flag is designed as a memorial.

Tonight the visitors were guests of the local chapter at a reception.

BOAT APPEARS JUST IN TIME Crew of Schooner is About to Perish with Their Vessel When Difficult Rescue is Accomplished.

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Me., Nov. 13.—The schooner Annie Louise Lockwood, which arrived here today, brought news that the three-masted New York schooner, J. B. Vanuzen, was stranded and sunk in latitude 42.15, longitude 68.48, last Monday. The crew of Vanuzen was saved by Lockwood.

Vanuzen was bound from New York for Camden, Me., with a cargo of coal and when off Cape Cod, Monday afternoon, it encountered a terrific gale and within a few hours was almost a total wreck. Its sails had been carried away, its stern was broken in and its rudder gone. It was rapidly filling with water and was at the mercy of the waves when Lockwood was in sight.

No information was obtainable as to what share, if any, the Vanderbilts and the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul are to have in the new company.

Union Pacific's New Powers Under the new arrangement the Union Pacific railway will have voting rights in the Burlington, the directors being about evenly divided between the Union Pacific and the Hill interests. The suggestion was made today that the Burlington stock may be held in a voting trust, under the agreement between the two interests. In this case J. P. Morgan will be a voting trustee.

As the control of the Burlington road by the Great Northern-Northern Pacific interests followed by the struggle for Northern Pacific shares, caused the affair which reached a settlement today, the disposition of the Burlington naturally is an interesting question. In that regard the Journal of Commerce tomorrow will say that the Burlington is to be restored by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, who now own it, to a practically independent basis and enjoy full and free traffic privileges with all its connections. This independence is to be secured by a lease by the present owners to a new company formed for the purpose. This is the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy "Railway company," incorporated under the laws of Iowa with a capital of $100,000,000.

Lease Not Yet Announced. The lease will be announced after the meeting of the old Burlington company today (Thursday), but it is supposed that it will fully protect the Great Northern and Northern Pacific in their guaranty of the bonds by which the Burlington was purchased.

After the meeting of the Northern Pacific directors J. J. Hill and George F. Baker went to Mr. Morgan's office and had a conference with him. Later Joseph Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and E. H. Harriman called. All declined to be interviewed.

A member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. said the Northern Securities company would be the holding company of the various roads interested, but he declined to say what roads these were on the ground that details are not completed and premature publication might interfere with their consummation.

"You may rest assured," he said, "that
