WANTED-MALE HELP.

WANTED-MALE HELP.

That's the first question that your prospective employer wants to know about you. You must be able to do something, and do not expect a busy employer to teach you that something. If you would be successful in the battle of life, you must know business. It is your fault if you are not able to hold your own or push your way upward to something better. You can learn how. We would like to help you. Will you let us?
