STRONG MEN PUT ON RECORD

Amateur Athletic Union Fixes High Scores in Various Events.

SOUTHERN CLUBS ARE FINALLY ADMITTED

Applicants Will Be Admitted to Amateur Association and Will Be Permitted Later to Form Separate Organization.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—One of the most interesting sessions ever held by the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States took place today at the Waldorf-Astoria, with E. E. Habb of Boston presiding. Among the representatives and delegates present were: John Dixon, Military Athletic League; John Stoll, North American Gymnastic Union; Barrow S. Weeks, Joseph E. Sullivan, F. W. Rinder, Charles Rusa and Thomas Nevins, Metropolitan Association; L. R. Sharpe, Pacific Association; J. C. O'Connor, Western Association; James Pearson, Canadian Athletic Union; Dr. L. Gulick and N. P. Heppner, Young Men's Christian Association of North America; W. H. Lintner and John Marshall, Lachlan, Central Association; Edward E. Babb, David Barry, M. E. Winston, Thomas F. Reddy, New England Association; A. G. Mills, J. F. Harder, J. B. McCabe, G. T. Kirby and C. C. Hughes, delegates-at-large; Harry McMillin, Dr. D. M. Horstman, J. W. Kelly, Jr., and H. W. Strickert, Atlantic Association.

The morning session was taken up with listening to the petition of the twelve southern athletic clubs, which asked that they be allowed membership in the Amateur Athletic Union as is to be able to form a new district to include Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia and North and South Carolina, and to call themselves the Middle Atlantic Association.

Recognition Finally Given.

After long discussion it was the voice of the meeting that the clubs petitioning be allowed to join the Atlantic Association, after which they will be enabled to form a new association to be called the Middle Atlantic. They have been refused recognition by the Atlantic Association for the last three years.

The following officers were elected for the following year: President, E. G. Habb; vice-presidents, W. H. Lintner, R. W. Hopkinson, J. J. Connor, W. E. Hines; manager, secretary and treasurer, James E. Sullivan; delegates-at-large, A. G. Mills, Julius F. Harder, C. C. Hughes, G. T. Kirby, Joseph B. McCabe.

PLACES FOR NEBRASKANS

Senators Dietrich and Millard as Heads of Committees.

QUESTION OF QUARANTINING INDIANS

Cass County's Ambitions for Free Rural Delivery to Every Farm-house—Emanuel Speich in a New Field.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(Special Telegram)—Senator Dietrich, who arrived in the city today, said an erroneous impression prevailed that he was an applicant for the chairmanship of the committee on irrigation and reclamation of arid lands. He denied having expressed any preference for any particular committee and thought that it was but proper to leave that matter in the hands of the committee on committees. The question of committee assignments, however, so far as the Nebraska senators are concerned, will be talked over when Senator Millard reaches Washington and concerted action will be agreed upon to the end that Nebraska will not be behind when the chairmanships are assigned.

Senator Millard is understood to desire the head of the committee on railroads, the chairmanship of which is now held by Senator Clark of Wyoming, who in all probability will be given a more important assignment in view of his length of service. The chairmanship of the committee on the Pacific railroads is vacant, due to the death of Senator Gear of Iowa. Senator Dooliver, his successor, has been appointed on the committee and it may be possible he will succeed to the chairmanship. Should he be given another assignment it is thought Senator Millard would make a bid for the place in view of his knowledge of the subject. The committee, however, under present conditions is almost useless, as there are few government-aided railroads now requiring legislation.

Smallpox Among Indians

Senator Dietrich said he had asked Indian Commissioner Jones to take action upon the complaint of the citizens of Dakota county that rumors of bands of Indians affected with smallpox were permitted to roam through white settlements and that the commissioner had replied that the matter of quarantine rested with the county authorities. Just where the power of government stops and that of the county begins is a question, but lawyers in the interior department are of the opinion that Commissioner Jones has ample authority to quarantine Indians on the Omaha and Winnebago reservations in Dakota county. A warrant against such action and to police the reservation against the spread of the disease.

THE FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

The fifty-seventh congress, and the Pacific cable bill. Mr. Roosevelt is strongly in favor of the canal project and also of the proposition to construct a cable, and he will give both subjects prominence in his message. The canal question has been so strongly discussed that the debate on the bill authorizing its construction will not be a protracted one. The opposition of certain senators has been overcome by the changes in the Hay-Paulsen treaty, so that the prospects for canal legislation are unusually good. There was a fight in the last congress over the Pacific cable and it will probably be renewed at the coming session. The necessity for the cable was recognized, but the committee in charge of the cable bill divided on the policy to be adopted in its construction. A majority favored construction by private enterprise under government supervision, with reservations that would secure right of way for the government and authority to regulate tolls. This started a contest which ended in the defeat of the proposal. The majority leaders say that some kind of a compromise will be agreed upon and the bill passed.

College Men as Presidents.

The list of presidents who were college graduates was extended when Roosevelt became the nation's chief executive. Biographies show that among the presidents, college graduates and those who either did not attend college or did not receive a college degree are: Andrew Jackson, James Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson, James Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson, James Monroe, John Quincy Adams.

Virginia's Early Favorite.

Among the earlier presidents William and Mary college in Virginia seemed to be a favorite. Thomas Jefferson was graduated there in 1762. James Monroe in 1776, the year of the Declaration of Independence, and John Tyler in 1807. The two members of the Adams family, John, the second president, and John Quincy, the first, were graduates of Harvard university, twenty-eight years lapsing between the two. Both of the Adams were of the same age when they were graduated—20 years. James Madison was a graduate of Princeton and James Monroe of the University of Paris.

Department of Commerce.

The movement for a department of commerce seems to be gaining headway and its successful outcome may be reached during this winter's session. In deciding what bureaus are to go into the new department, congress will need to exercise very great care, as some of the bureaus which it is proposed to transfer are much better off where they are. Material enough would be furnished for a new cabinet officer to manage were half the tasks assigned to him that are now proposed. The suggestion that the consuls, since they report chiefly on commercial matters abroad, should be under the department of commerce is of doubtful value; they have commercial duties, to be sure, but very large other interests. Their functions are often half diplomatic, and there is considerable interchange of services between the two branches. Moreover, a consul is accredited to a foreign country, not to the department of State and to it any complaint would come from other nations as to his misbehavior, etc.

Piles Cured

Without Cutting, Danger or Detention from Pleasures or Duties.

Files, when bleeding, lower the vitality. Files, when protruding, annoy and distress. Files, when internal, cause obscure symptoms. Files, when ulcerated, cause reflex disturbances. Files, when acutely inflamed, cause severe suffering. Files, when accompanied with fissure cause intense pain. Files, when attended with chronic inflammation, cause itching. Files, of any kind, are apt to induce sympathetic ailments.

Why Suffer from Piles?

There is an economical, safe and certain cure, that may be bought at any drug store, and self-applied in the privacy of your own home. There is no experimenting, no waiting your turn at a surgeon's office, no indefinite examinations, or barbarous, painful and dangerous operations. You simply go to your druggist, buy the Pyramid Pile Cure, apply it yourself, and get well.

Cured of Piles where Kettle Failed.

Amos Crocker, of Worcester, writes: "After going through a frightful surgical operation and after trying any number of salves and ointments, one box of Pyramid Pile Cure gave speedy relief and it quickly cured me."

Cured After Years of Pile Torture.

James Kenton, Memphis, Tenn., writes: "I suffered the tortures of itching piles for years and everything I tried failed to relieve me. One box of Pyramid Pile Cure cured me entirely."

Cured of Piles After Many Years.

Mrs. D. E. Reed, of Alhambra, says: "I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered for years and it is now in my opinion I used it and not the slightest trace of the trouble has returned."

Cured of Piles, Saved from Knife.

Mrs. Aaron Medron, of Savannah, Ga., writes: "Ever since the birth of my first child six years ago, I have suffered greatly from piles. I could not bring myself to bear the thought of a surgical operation. Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me."

Desperate Case of Piles Cured.

Mrs. Wm. Kennore, So. Omaha, writes: "I suffered many years with protruding piles. Ever since the birth of my first child six years ago, I have suffered greatly from piles. I could not bring myself to bear the thought of a surgical operation. Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me."

Escaped the Knife, Cured of Piles.

Mrs. Hinkley, Indianapolis, writes: "The doctor said it must be an operation costing $500 and little chance to survive. I took Pyramid Pile Cure and in one week I was able to walk when I tried Pyramid Pile Cure. The first application relieved me."
