

MERRY ROUND OF PLEASURE

Social Life in Omaha Takes On an Unusual Deal of Gaiety.

MANY SMALL AND SEVERAL BIG THINGS

Fashionable People Put to the Delicate Task of Making a Choice as to Just Where They Will Show Up.

It has been many a month since the chaperons have enjoyed such a whirl of gaiety as has marked the past fortnight. Every afternoon and nearly every evening there has been something to engage their interest and on a number of occasions of late society has been put to the delicate task of making a choice between affairs occurring simultaneously.

Of course, the reception at the Omaha club on Monday evening took precedence over everything else of the week, but the many afternoon affairs were larger than usual and, perhaps, a little smarter too.

With Thanksgiving ahead, this week promises little abating of the activity. The first assembly, which is to occur Thanksgiving night at Metropolitan club, is to be the prime feature of the week, the following list of patronesses having been announced for it: Mesdames Manderson, Yale, Kountze, Codary, McCord, Peck, Patrick, Burns, Fair, Pritchett, Webster and Davis.

On Wednesday evening the officers of Fort Crook will give a hop to which about fifty Omaha people have been invited and which promises a most enjoyable occasion.

There may be a lull while everyone is preparing for Christmas, but the promise now is for even more gaiety during the holidays than last year and this is saying much.

By far the most interesting event of that season will be the wedding of Mr. John T. Stewart of Council Bluffs and Miss Gertrude Kountze, which is to occur at Forest Hill on New Year's day.

Members of the assembly are advised that admission will be solely by ticket. Tickets will be mailed next Monday to those who have made their remittances to the treasurer. Checks should be sent at once to Mr. N. P. Dodge, jr., Thirtieth and Douglas streets, by all who intend to belong to the assembly this season.

Weddings and Engagements.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Leah Odessa Kirkendall to Mr. Frank D. Hill of South Bend, Neb., on Wednesday, November 27.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rosalie Genevieve St. Geyer and Mr. Harry Edgar Eldson, the marriage to occur early in December.

The engagement has been announced of Mr. Frederick Lyman Smith and Miss Mable Gray, the wedding to be quietly solemnized at 6 o'clock on the wedding of December 3, only the immediate relatives to be present.

Miss Maude Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Buchanan, was married Monday evening, November 18, at the home of her parents, 264 Charles street, to Mr. E. H. McCutchen, jr., of Croton, Wyo. Rev. W. D. Patton, who officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents, performed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McCutchen left the same evening for Wyoming, where they will reside.

Another of the brilliant weddings scheduled for the fall was solemnized at 4:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Miss Mae Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heller, and Mr. David Degen being the contracting parties and Metropolitan club the scene of its consummation. The spacious rooms of the club, decorated with chrysanthemums and smilax and filled with a handsomely-contrived assembly, gave the occasion the air of the home affair of the most brilliant scale. The ceremony occurred in the ballroom, the 150 guests having been seated to form an aisle down the center of the hall, through which the bride party passed to the canopy of smilax under which the marriage was solemnized. The bride was gowned in white tulle and satin crepe over white tulle, with flounces of the crepe. The bodice was of point lace with mousseline yoke, studded with pearls, the veil being caught back with fresh orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Miss Louise Heller, who wore pink tulle with overdress of lace and carried pink chrysanthemums. The groom was attended by Mr. Louis Degen of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Heller and Mrs. Degen, mother of the groom, also stood with them, the ushers, Messrs. George Seligson, Mark Heller, Edward Heller, Edwin Merritt, Arthur Degen, Mannie Buxbaum and Mannie Haslacher of Chicago, taking their places in semicircle back of Rabbi Simon, who officiated. At the conclusion of the service the two little flower girls pulled the ribbons which hung from the wedding bell of pink and white chrysanthemums suspended above and showered white rose petals upon the bride and groom as they turned to leave the room. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, the entire company being seated at the table, and later all participated in the dance which concluded the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Degen left that evening for the west and after a trip to Salt Lake will be at home at Twenty-ninth and Howard streets. Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. E. Buxbaum, the Misses Myra and Louise Buxbaum, Miss Cora Florenstein, Mrs. William Degen, Mr. Louis Degen, Mr. Mannie Haslacher, Mr. A. Haslacher, Miss Millie Haslacher, Mr. Mannie Buxbaum, Miss Meta Buxbaum and Mr. Edgar Well, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Grenthal and Mrs. Arthur Laer and two sons of Millbrook, Mrs. M. Helman and Mrs. Lillian Helman, Mrs. Isaac Becker of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Becker, Mr. and Mrs. M. Degen and Mrs. C. Weis of Sioux City.

Pleasures Past.

Mrs. George Voss was hostess at a luncheon on Friday.

Mrs. Guy French entertained at cards on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Charles Helmer.

The Southwest Dancing club gave its fortnightly hop on Friday evening at Chambers' academy.

Mrs. Guy Howard entertained at a small tea at 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon for Mrs. McClernan.

General and Mrs. Manderson entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick at a dinner on Thursday evening.

The Sewing club met with Miss Webster on Monday and will be entertained by Mrs. C. T. Kountze next week.

Miss Preston of Chicago was the guest of honor at a dinner at Forest Hill on Wednesday evening given by Miss Kounze.

For Miss O'Neal and Miss Marples, Mrs. Thomas McCague entertained a number of young women at a Kensington yesterday afternoon.

Miss Edith Burgess and Miss Hallie Harnden entertained at a Kensington on Saturday afternoon for the Misses Killian of Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. H. D. Neely entertained a luncheon party at the Omaha club, followed by bowling in the club alleys on Saturday in honor of Mrs. Howland.

A very delightful tea was given in the Linger Art gallery from 4 until 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon for the faculty and out-of-town pupils of Brownell hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stromberg celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary with a dinner party for twenty guests on Tuesday evening at their home on South Twenty-eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blanchard entertained the Hawthorne Card club on last Saturday evening at their home on Georgia avenue. Next week's meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bryson.

Mrs. Musick was hostess at a parlor musical at the Iler Grand on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Caroline Baldwin of Keokuk, Ia., who is the guest of Mrs. Charles Selby at Dundee.

Mrs. Edgar E. Hastings entertained about forty women Saturday afternoon at a Kensington. After a prize contest over two guessing games, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Pierce and Mrs. Victor White.

A quiet but most enjoyable afternoon was spent by a number of women on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. F. R. Payne, 212 South Thirty-fifth street, the occasion being the celebration of the 87th birthday of Mr. Payne's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clarkson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster Peck at a dinner on Saturday evening, given in honor of Miss Drummond of Chicago.

Mrs. Arthur English was hostess at a luncheon on Wednesday, complimentary to Mrs. Perkins' guest, Mrs. William Howell. The table decorations were of meteor roses. In the afternoon Mrs. H. Conrad entertained the party at the matinee.

Mrs. Millaugh, Mrs. Barklow, Mrs. John French, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Lorrain, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Peck and Miss Drummond of Chicago were Mrs. Fred Davis' guests on Tuesday at a luncheon given in honor of Miss Drummond.

Mr. and Mrs. Marc Perkins entertained a party of twenty at dinner on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. William Howell, who is their guest. The party was seated at two round tables, effectively trimmed with pink chrysanthemums and asparagus ferns.

The Kensington club, which was organized recently, was entertained on last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Arabians on Poppleton avenue. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the new Wisconsin hospital and later refreshments were served.

A merry crowd of people, old and young friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fiselt, gathered at their home on last Saturday evening to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. A most enjoyable evening was spent at cards and music, concluding with refreshments.

Mrs. Frank Porter gave a series of two very pleasant card parties last week at her home on North Twenty-second street. The first was given on Wednesday afternoon to about forty women, and the second to an equal number of guests on Thursday evening. Six-handed high five was the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins, Miss Webster, Miss Edith Smith and Miss Allen, Mr. Patton, Mr. Benson, Mr. H. B. Joseph, Mr. Baldrige and Mr. George Mayne of Council Bluffs made up a box party at Boyd's on Thursday evening and later were entertained at supper at the home of Miss Edith Smith.

In compliment to her guest, Mrs. Herbert S. Howell, Mrs. Marc Perkins was at home to a large number of friends on Thursday afternoon. Her home was effectively dressed with chrysanthemums and pink and white roses and she was assisted by Mesdames Arthur English, J. H. Conrad, W. B. Bally and Harry Weller.

Mrs. Joseph Barker and Mrs. Joseph Barkham entertained at a very delightful buffet luncheon on Thursday, about sixty women being in attendance. A large chrysanthemum piece was used on the table, the same yellow flowers being used in the decoration of the rooms. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Peck, John Patrick, Miss Peck and Miss Laura Morse.

Captain and Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Howard Baldrige, Mr. and Mrs. C. Will Hamilton, Miss Peck, Miss Mercer, Miss Wakeley, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, Miss Yates, Mrs. Bourke and Dr. Roy Crummer were the guests of the Misses Hamilton on Wednesday evening at an informal affair, during which the company spoke French entirely.

The Friendly Greeting club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lynch on Tuesday evening, November 15. After friendly greetings, cards were indulged in. The special feature of the evening was the draw between five ladies for first prize, they having won the same number of games, namely: Mrs. John F. Daly, Mrs. F. J. Mieding, Mrs. P. J. Corcoran, Mrs. John Keyser and Mrs. P. F. McKenna, in which draw Mrs. John F. Daly was successful. Mr. John Keyser took the gentlemen's first prize. The ladies' consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. H. C. Cook and the gentlemen's consolation prize to Mr. F. J. Mieding, it having been drawn for by Mr. John F. Daly and Mr. Mieding. Luncheon was served, after which music and singing prevailed. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mieding Tuesday evening, December 3.

In celebration of their silver wedding anniversary Judge and Mrs. Ives entertained a party of about eighteen friends at dinner at their home on Thursday evening. White chrysanthemums and maiden-hair ferns were arranged in silver bowls on the table, which was lighted by numerous shaded candles in tall silver candelabra.

In honor of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Helmer, Mrs. Frank Martin entertained at a very pretty luncheon on Thursday. The six small tables at which the guests were seated were decorated in yellow and white and later cleared for six-handed high five, which constituted the afternoon entertainment. Miss Faust, Mrs. Frank Turck and Mrs. M. Blanche Howland were awarded the prizes.

Mrs. Frank Colpetzer and Mrs. Harry Wilkins were hostesses on Thursday at one of the largest and most elaborate luncheons of the fall. The ninety guests were seated at fifteen small tables, each trimmed with pink and white chrysanthemums and around with place cards tied with pink and white ribbons. After the game the afternoon was spent at six-handed euchre. Mrs. Colpetzer and Mrs. Wilkins were assisted by Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. Herbert Wheeler and Mrs. Guiou.

On last Wednesday afternoon the women of the Modern Philia Kensington club met with Mrs. Williams. The fore part of the afternoon was industriously devoted to sewing and needlework, when refreshments were served, and after that each one had an opportunity of composing two lines of original poetry, one person reading them aloud to the amusement of the others. Mrs. Perault and Mrs. Jackson were added as new members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Reveal, December 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Carpenter threw open their home on Monday evening for the entertainment of the Bemis Park Neighboring club and other friends, the company including fifty guests. The early part of the evening was devoted to a program to which Mrs. Sheets contributed two vocal solos.

Mr. G. W. Payne told the story of "The Lives of the Hunted" and Mr. Carpenter retold "Cyrus Townsend Brady's Story, 'The Crisis.'" After the program the little piece of the "wicked uncle," with all the fierceness in which these characters appear to the childish mind. The tallest man in Bemis park, dressed in aingham apron and sunbonnet, represented "Little Sister" and held tightly to the hand of "Little Brother" in the person of a very corpulent Omaha broker, dressed in knickerbockers and sailor collar, the two crying lustily as they realized that they were lost. The climax was reached after the death scene, when two prominent business men, dressed as robin red breasts, hopped in and covered the "babes" with cabbage leaves. The evening concluded with refreshments and a social hour.

Movements and Whereabouts.

Mr. A. Agnew has returned from the east. Mrs. Fred Nash has returned from Denver.

Miss Claudia Urial has returned from Rock Island, Ill.

Mrs. John E. Maurer left last Sunday to join her husband in Chicago.

Dr. Fred Lake left on Tuesday for Philadelphia to take up his hospital work there.

Mrs. Herman Kountze and Miss Cotton are in Chicago, having gone there on Thursday.

Mrs. F. H. Ingram returned from a two weeks' visit in Denver on Thursday morning.

Mrs. D. H. Goodrich and Miss Goodrich have gone to Colorado to spend a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Green have moved into their new home at 2959 Poppleton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lemist spent Sunday at Ames, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leavitt.

Mrs. S. L. Ingram is back from a two weeks' visit to Denver and Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miller left Saturday for Biloxi, Miss., where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Fred Schneider returned the first of the week from Denver, where she has spent the last few weeks.

Mrs. Jacob Gish and Miss Lottie Rothery went to Chicago on Monday to spend a few weeks visiting friends there.

Miss Carlita Curtis left yesterday to join her sister, Miss Lynn Curtis, and spend a few weeks with her in Chicago.

Mrs. A. C. Hunt and Miss Nolan have returned from Rock Island, Ill., and will spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Nolan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whitney and little daughter will go to Chicago on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving. On Friday they will be met by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Munn, who will spend Sunday with them.

Social Chit-Chat.

Mrs. T. B. Cumming will entertain at luncheon on Tuesday.

A son was born on last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Allen.

Mrs. J. E. Christie has invitations out for next Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Love Kelley will entertain at cards on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. S. Love Kelley will entertain at cards on next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nott have moved into their new home at 4919 Farnam street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Bancker expect to take possession of their new home this week.

Mrs. J. E. Baum went to Lincoln on Monday and is expected home the early part of the week.

Mrs. Towle and Miss Towle spent a part of last week in Chicago, returning on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cowgill are occupying their new home at Thirty-seventh and Harney streets.

Mrs. Edith Smith expects to leave this week for Philadelphia, to remain there about two weeks.

Mrs. P. T. McGrath has issued invitations for a card party on Wednesday afternoon, December 4.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Remillard sailed on Wednesday afternoon at Paris and other points in France.

Mrs. E. Seligson and Mrs. William Harris have cards out for two afternoons next week, Tuesday and Saturday.

A number of the old friends of General Grenville M. Dodge have arranged to tender him a luncheon on Monday at the Omaha club.

Miss Mary Livesey will be hostess on Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the Charmante club, formerly called the Mexican club.

Mrs. Frank Hollinger has issued cards for an afternoon card party to be given at her home at Nineteenth and Wirt streets on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wheeler will leave this week for Washington, where Mr. Wheeler will resume his duties as secretary to Mr. Morser.

Mrs. George B. Lake returned from Chicago on Tuesday, fully recovered from her shock and the danger of the dog bite she received a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Milton F. Barlow will give a tea on Wednesday afternoon, December 4, in compliment to her sister, Miss McClellin of Chicago, who is visiting her.

Mrs. John D. Creighton went to Denver on Wednesday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Allison, who have taken a house in one of the suburbs of Denver for the winter.

General Crowder spent the early part of last week with friends in Omaha, leaving on Wednesday for his home in Missouri. Later he will go to Chicago, where he is stationed.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will tender the Sons of the American Revolution a banquet at the Millard hotel on the evening of December 15, in observation of forefathers' day.

Mrs. Horbach and Mrs. Bourke have taken the Louis Reed house for the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Reed having arranged to spend the time with Mr. and Mrs. Balcomb until Mrs. Reed goes east to her sons.

Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith will give a Mother Goose party for her little people and ever so many others on Monday afternoon, December 2, when all will wear fancy costumes to represent the well known characters of the nursery tales. The invitations are issued in the names of Harriet Smith, as Bo-Peep, and Huntington Smith, as Little Boy Blue.

The cadet ex-officers of the Omaha High school will give their eighth annual hop on Wednesday evening, January 1, at the Nelson hotel and all arrangements are being made to make the affair the most elaborate that has yet been given by them. The dining room is to be cleared for the dancing and appropriately decorated. The parlors will be given over to the use of the guests and refreshments will be served. The committee is composed of Mr. Warren S. Hillis, chairman, and Messrs. Harry F. Reed, Arthur Jorgenson, Dwight Cramer, Otis Alvison, Frank Hughes and Frank Bryant.

Out-of-Town Guests.

Mr. Max Meyer returned to Baltimore on Wednesday.

Miss Emma Dresser of Chicago is Mrs. Samuel Burns' guest.

Mrs. Millaugh of Topeka is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Davis.

Miss Agnes Weiler is entertaining Miss Sanford of Covington, Ky.

Mrs. C. M. Boynton of Creston, Ia., is visiting Mrs. H. L. Whitney.

Miss Ella Kennedy of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting among Omaha friends.

Miss Preston of Chicago is Miss Kountze's guest at Forest Hill this week.

Mrs. W. K. Fowler of Lincoln is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur English.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter Peck have as their guest Miss Drummond of Chicago.

Mrs. C. C. Chase of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. E. V. Lewis in Kountze Place.

Mrs. D. Rafferty and daughter of Sioux City are guests at the home of Mrs. E. H. Iler.

Mrs. Arthur Pinto is entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Fisher of Florence, Wis.

Mrs. C. A. Hunter of Rock Island, Ill., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Urial.

Bishop and Mrs. A. L. Williams have been entertaining Miss Wetland of Norfolk as their guest.

Mrs. Joseph Garneau of Chicago has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ringwalt, for the last week.

Mrs. L. L. Thomas of St. Paul, Minn., who has been the guest of Mrs. D. Weaver, returned to her home on Friday.

General and Mrs. O. O. Howard returned to their home in the east on Monday, after a brief stay with relatives in Omaha.

Mr. M. G. McKoon returned to his home in Los Angeles, Cal., on Monday, after a fortnight's visit with his sister, Mrs. Reese.

Mrs. James Henry Waring and Mrs. George A. Baylan of Minneapolis are guests at the home of their cousin, Mrs. James Woodard, 3408 Burt street.

Miss Julia Officer, pianist, Karbach blk.

Mrs. A. C. Mack has located her dress-making and pleating establishment in the Karbach residence corner 17th and Douglas, where she will be pleased to meet her patrons.

Miss Blanche Sorenson, voice, 548 S. 26th avenue.

Ella Crum Hood, public reader and teacher of elocution, 2022 Howard street.

Troops in Pithable Flight.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—A dispatch from Marakesh (city of Morocco) says that the 3,000 troops which form the expedition to punish the mountain tribes for abducting a Spanish boy and girl left the capital in a state of absolute destitution. Many of them are in rags and go uniforms were provided before their departure. The cold, rainy season is beginning. The condition of the soldiers after the mountain march and fording in the course of their journey of 400 miles will be pitiable. Food was

O.K. SCOFIELD CLOAK & SUIT CO.

"SCOFIELD'S"

Ladies' Tailor-Made Cloak and Suit House

High class qualities tailored in first-class way. Retailed at the price of ordinary goods by other houses

OUR GOODS SHOWN YOU FREELY

Look Everywhere Else First, if You Wish, but Come Here Before You Buy

O.K. SCOFIELD CLOAK & SUIT CO.

MRS. J. BENSON KNIT UNDERWEAR

Our underwear department is full of the best goods, for the money, that are made.

Good fleece lined vests, 25c, 50c and 75c. Part wool, 75c up. Nearly all wool, $1.00 up. Union suit, fleece lined, 50c to $1.25. Part wool, $1.00 up. See our Sterling Jenness Miller union suits, $3.00 up. Remember, we are sole agents for Dr. Jaeger's Sanitary Underwear for ladies and children. Children's underwear of all kinds. Black tights for all ages. Price 45c up. Ladies' black wool tights, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00. See the extra quality black tights we are giving for $1.00.

ALL OUR IMPORTED PATTERN HATS

ON SALE MONDAY AT COST

This is a rare opportunity to buy a very fine hat at YOUR OWN PRICE. Come in Monday and make your own selection while there is a good assortment.

We also have just bought $5,000 worth of HAIR SWITCHES and they will be on sale Monday. Pure, first quality hair switches for $1. THEY ARE ABSOLUTELY FIRST QUALITY—not dyed or bleached.

Come in and meet our NEW HAIR DRESSER

MRS. DAVIES 1511 DOUGLAS ST.

Nebraska Cycle Co.'s Great Sewing Machine Sale

We have just received a carload of Wheeler & Wilson ball bearing machines and we haven't the room to store them, so during this week we will sell

100 Sewing Machines These include every make of machines manufactured at prices never before made in Omaha.

If you think of buying a machine don't fail to see us. There will be guaranteed modern drop machines as cheap as $15.00. Box top second-hand machines that we thought were cheap at $15.00, this week only $5.00. The $10.00 machines only $3.00. 33 sewing machine heads that have been repaired and will do good work; get one put on your old stand and you will have a sewing machine—CHOICE $2.00. We rent machines, 75c per month. We repair and sell parts for any make of machine manufactured. Free sewing school every Thursday and Saturday.

NEBRASKA CYCLE CO. COR. 15TH AND HARNEY PHONE 1663

334 Broadway GEO. MICKEL, Mgr. 612 N. 24th Street Council Bluffs, Ia. South Omaha, Neb.

KEELEY CURE One of the best equipped of the Keeley system of institutes, the only Keeley Institute in Nebraska. Cures Drunkenness, Cures Drug Users, Tobacco Users, THE KEELEY INSTITUTE, 19 and Leavenworth, Omaha.

Danderine.

It quickly eradicates all trace of scalp dandruff, which is the cause of hair falling, dandruff and baldness. NO SCALP ITCH, NO REDNESS, NO HAIR CAN BE BEAUTIFUL WHEN CONTAMINATED WITH THESE DISEASE-BREEDING CREATURES; they undermine the hair and devour all the nutrient or life-sap of the scalp, without which the scalp dries up and peels off, forming dandruff and causing the loss of hair. DANDERINE IS THE ONLY REMEDY IN THE WORLD THAT WILL DESTROY THESE GERMS; it penetrates the scalp thoroughly, carrying with it all the necessary properties to quickly regenerate all the impoverished parts. It rebuilds the lost tissues of the scalp and restores the growth of the hair in every case. A few applications will make the hair fairly sparkle with new life and vigor. It makes healthy hair grow twice as fast as it does normally. Three sizes at all druggists, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Knovelton Danderine Co., Chicago, Ill. We have shown the microscope that causes Dandruff, Itching, Hair Falling and Baldness. For sale by Hosten Store Drug Dept.

Presentation Furniture

Those who are familiar with the high degree of artistic excellence established by the "United Crafts" will find that the same degree of excellence has been maintained in our present collection of their products. These designs, which follow no fashion or time, but grow out of constructive purpose, have an individuality that renders them of permanent value in the household. These Chairs, Desks, Bookcases and other specimens of the cabinet maker's art, will stand the test of time and use and their artistic combination of color and finish in wood and leather will satisfy the most critical taste. Many fine specimens of this furniture are now on exhibition on our first floor and afford opportunity for the selection of the ideal holiday gift, which shall suggest some deeper meaning than is to be found in objects of mere transitory value. We are sole western agents and associates.

Shiverick Furniture Co. Booklet Free. 1315 to 1319 Farnam Street.

THE TURKEY WILL TASTE BETTER

If carved with one of our elegant Carvers—a good 3-piece Stag Handle Carving Set for $25.00. A very fine set for $30.00. We have others in sterling silver, white composition and pearl-to suit the price and taste of any one. Come in and take a look at them—whether you wish to buy or not.

Mawhinney & Ryan Co., Jewellers and Art 18TH and DOUGLAS STS. Siall orders given careful attention. Selection packages sent to responsible parties.