

GETS AFTER SOUTH OMAHA

Grand Jury Takes Up Investigation of Magic City Affairs.

SCHOOL BOARD FIRST ON THE CARPET

Charges of Corruption Made Against the Members Are Being Inquired Into by the Grand Jurors Now.

Judge Baker's suggestion to the grand jury that it was time to drop petty cases and investigate matters of importance has borne fruit. The investigation of the charges of corruption made against the South Omaha school board has begun.

BOOM IN HORSESHOE MARKET

Shipping Weather Starts Demand for New Underpadding for the Horses.

The snowstorm has brought business to the horsehoes and every shop was crowded yesterday morning with horses waiting to have their shoes sharpened or winter shoes put on in place of the smooth shoes used in the summertime.

Announcements of the Theaters.

The bill on at the Orpheum this week is not marred by a single bad act and with uniformly good attendance the usual rule of delight prevails.

A Pretty Girl from Lincoln

Miss Mae Walsh, a popular society belle, says: "I had pimples on my face for two years and took every blood medicine and face preparation I read about. Nothing did me any good until I was recommended to try Shrader's Fig Powder, with a bottle of Victor's Tonic Lotion. After the use of the two medicines in two weeks all my pimples had left me and my skin soft and clear. I wish to say that I have a few freckles, which have also disappeared. I think there is no medicine that equals Shrader's Fig Powder and Victor's Tonic Lotion for the face. Very respectfully, MAE WALSH."

Sold at all drug stores or send 10c for a trial box Fig Powder. W. J. Shrader Medicine Co., New York—Room 10, No. 26 East 14th St. or 162 N. 24th St., Omaha, Neb.
