THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1901.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Keysor SOCIETY IS WHIRLING NOW ton is widely known in Omaha social circles. on Tuesday evening, December 17. having formerly been a resident here.

Last Week One of the Busiest for the Smart Felks.

ENTERTAINMENTS OF ALL SORTS NUMEROUS

No Idle Time During the Six Days and Another Round of Equal Activity Will Mark the Geming Week.

The week past has been distinctly one of large affairs, "large" not only in numbers, but in those respects which have an interest beyond who was there. It has been a week of teas and chrysanthemums, card | tained by Mrs. Rereal. A list of questions parties and dances that have delighted the participants and tax the powers of description. From Monday until Saturday so- given to each guest to answer. After this ciety was kept in a continuous whirl, en- a dainty lunch was served in the parlors tertaining and being entertained. There and then games of a more humorous quality. were out-of-town guests to be met and The club will be entertained in two weeks old-time friends to greet, half the charmby Mrs. Howard. ing young women in society assisting the more staid matrons, and they in their turn lending their dignity to the more friv- gave one of the most beautifully appointed clous affairs of the evening. Even the dinners of the winter at the Omaha club juvenile members of society had their in- on Monday evening. A large bunch of yelning in the charming Mother Goose party low chrysanthemums constituted the center

This week promises to be a repetition of last. There are to be teas, receptions and card parties, especially the last named. Bociety seems to have gone quite daft over whist and euchre and nearly every week sees the introduction of some new variation of the old games. It may be due to this frequent variation that these two games retain their popularity.

of Monday.

Pleasures Past.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum entertained at whist last evening.

The Sewing club met with Mrs. Dan Wheeler on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Horace Burt entertained a small dinner party on Saturday evening. The Just For Fun club met at the home of Mrs. Sam Frank on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Heth was hostess at an informal kensington on Tuesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Windsor.

The Theatre club and the Chafing Dish club were among the parties that heard Mme. Nordica last evening.

Mrs. Henry Hiller and Mrs. H. Mey entertained a large card party at Metropolitan club on Friday afternoon. The Theater club attended "King Dodo" at Boyd's on Tuesday afternoon, going later to Miss Webster's home for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lininger celebrated their forty-fifth wedding anniversary on last Saturday evening with a quiet little dinner party for a few friends.

Mrs. A. L. Williams was hostess at an informal afternoon on Thursday for the wives of the clergymen of the dlocese. It is the aim of the women to meet regularly with the view of promoting sociability.

The Southwest Dancing club gave its fortnightly party on Friday evening at Chambers' hall, about forty couples being present. Punch was served throughout the evening and the time spent most enjoyably by all.

Mrs. Sol Degen gave a whist party on Wednesday afternoon at her home at Twenty-seventh and Dewey avenue in honor of a number of visiting women. There were seven tables of players and affair and the enjoyment of the young peothe rooms were prettily decorated in red. Mrs. B. S. Lockwood entertained the

Mrs. B. S. Lockwood entertained the clous new barns for the occasion. To the members of the Maryville Card club on fine interior finish tall paims and rubber daughter, Miss Ellen Cotton. On Monday evening at her home, 2554 Mander- plants, cut flowers and potted plants were a large daughter party at Metropolitan club.

In compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Will Millard, who came from the west to spend on Tuesday evening at the residence of Thanksgiving in Omaha, Mrs. Guy Barton Mrs. E. S. Rood, her sister, Miss Mabel entertained about fifty women at a most Fray, and Mr. Frederick Smith being the delightful buffet luncheon on Thursday. The contracting parties. Dean Fair officiated, he and Mrs. Fair being the only ones presdining room was prettily decorated with ent outside of the immediate relatives. A saffron roses and greens. Assisting Mrs. Barton were Mesdames W. B. Millard, C. very pretty wedding supper followed, after which Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a wed-E. Yost, E. M. Morsman and Markell.

Miss Louise Heller and Miss Lena Rehfeld entertained the members of the Bowling club and the visiting young women at a bowling party at Metropolitan club on Monday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock. The company included about thirty members and the afternoon closed with a lunchcon, for which a profusion of red carnations constituted the table decorations.

a reception on Thursday in honor of Miss Lomax. On Wednesday afternoon the M. P. Ken-Mrs. R. E. Welch will entertain two card sington club was most delightfully enterparties on Wednesday and Thursday of this concerning the presidents of the United week. States was written on slips of paper and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Penfold will entertain were marked with handsome cards.

afternoon.

and Lacey.

Mrs. Howard Baldrige entertained the French club, "La Causerie," at a charming little French tes on Tuesday afternoon, being assisted by her guest, Miss Ford of Kansas City. In the dining room Mrs.

Webster and Mrs. Kirkendall presided at the tea table with its decoration of spires and violets. The presentation of a number of French selections of the women contributed a most pleasant feature of the late

Mrs. Cornish was hostess at one of the mums, while the pink carnations marked the places of each of the following guests:

Mesdames Windsor, Kountze, Fair, Wakeley,

Broatch, Connell, Munger, Dietz, Hubert

In celebration of the seventh birthday of her little daughter Harriett Mrs. Arthur

Crittenden Smith afforded about twenty-five little people an afternoon of unalloyed enjoyment on Monday in the form of a Mother Goose party. As the youthful guests folks participated in a grand arch, followed by games, and late in the afternoon all were seated at a "feast," the center of the table being occupied by a huge Jack Horner ple, from which each little one was per-

The first of the series of cotiliions to be day evening, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Joslyn contributing greatly to the pleasure of the and ferns, was presided over by Mrs.

Henry T. Clarke, jr., and Mrs. Russell Harrison, while in the other rooms Mrs. Barlow was assisted by Misses Allen, Hamilton, Mae Hamilton, Lomax, Peck, Swens-

Ill., Mrs. John L. Webster entertained a party of about 150 guests at 9 o'clock coffee on Wednesday evening. The rich red and green colorings, so appropriate to the holiday season, were used through the

Mrs. Luther Kountze, serving punch, and Weddings and Engagements.

The marriage of Mr. Robert Melvin Tarl-ton and Miss Mary Livingston Plympton,

Hostetter's

gether with a party of men friends.

Mercer, Moore, Spurgen, Morse,

mitted to draw "plums."

Gates, Arthur Wakeley, Jones, Davidson

the members of the Thistle club on Monday evening. The Theater club will attend the Orpheum Monday evening and then go to the home of Miss Lomax for supper. For their daughter, Mrs. Downing of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jackson have re-Portland, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Baxter turned from Mexico and have taken apartments at the Normandie for the winter. Mrs. M. L. Guckert will entertain a lunchcon and card party on Friday afternoon at their home, 125 South Thirty-sixth street. piece and loose blossoms were scattered Mr. and Mrs. Fred Montmorency have over the cloth. The table lighting was taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. from yellow-shaded tapers and the places and Mrs. Cowgill at 112 South Thirty-fifth street.

A very quiet wedding occurred at 6 o'clock ding trip to New Orleans and the south.

They will be at home after the holidays at Social Chit-Chat.

Mrs. T. L. Kimball and Miss Kimball are

Mrs. Victor H. Coffman has cards out for 428 North Twenty-second street.

at the Her Grand for the present.

Mr. Paul Horbach was in the city a part of last week, having come from New York to attend the funeral of his father, Mr. John Horbach.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Carrier will entertain a neighborhood card club on Monday evening at their home, 1514 South Twentyninth street.

The Thurston Rifle's have issued invitations for a dancing party to be given at their armory on Thursday evening, December 13.

prettiest luncheons of the week on last Saturday, given in honor of Mrs. Windsor Mr. and Mrs. David Degen returned from of Yankton, S. D., formerly of Omaha. The their wedding tour on Wednesday and are house, which is admirably adapted to en- at home in their new residence at Twentytertainment, was profusely decorated with ninth and Dewey avenue. chrysanthemums and carnations, the same

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shelley will give the flowers being used effectively in the table second of a series of card parties on Mondecoration. In the center stood a bowl of day evening at their residence at Thirty-Severs blue china mounted in gold bronze second and Woolworth avenue. and holding a huge bunch of chrysanthe-

The Omaha guards have issued invitations for the second of their winters series of dances, which is to occur at the armory on Monday evening, December 16.

The Sons of the American Revolution will entertain the Daughters of the American Revolution at a dinner at the Millard on Thursday evening, December 19.

The next meeting of the Hawthorn club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mikesell at Thirty-second and Woolworth avenue on Saturday evening. Miss Mayme Hutchinson will entertain a arrivel they were received by Master Hunfew friends at dinner on next Friday eventington Smith, as Little Boy Blue, and Miss Harriett, as Little Bo-Peep, and when the ing, complimentary to her cousin, Jerome wraps had been removed all were delighted | Harrington, who plays with Modjeska. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English and Mr. and to find their nursery rhyme friends in the presence of the every-day playmates. After Mrs. W. R. Bailey have issued cards for a a general inspection of costumes the little large dancing party to be given at the Metropolitan club on Tuesday evening, December 17. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum will entertain two large card parties on Tuesday and Saturday of this week, when the game military whist will be introduced. At the latter of

of the affairs, a large party of Lincoln given during the winter occurred on Thurs- people will be in attendance. Mrs. Herman Kountze will issue cards this week for a large reception at Forrest Hill on Saturday afternoon, December 28, ple by giving the club the use of their spawhen she will formally introduce her

We have the handsomest line of FURS in SCARFS. COLLARETTES, STORM COLLARS, MUFFS and CHIL-DREN'S SETS for the money ever shown in Omaha.

Art Needlework

We are still selling a great many pleces to be made up for Christmas presents in Whisk Broom Holders, Handkerchief Cases, Laundry Bags, Photograph Cases, Scrap Baskets, Match Scratchers, Curling Iron Holders, Telephone Numbers, Glove Cases, Slipper Cases, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Pillow Tops, etc. We have all of these and other pretty pleces ready made, besides our large line of PRENCH HAND EMBROIDERED AND MEXICAN DRAWN WORK IN LINEN.

Centers, Doylies, Lunch Cloths, Table Covers, Handsome Battenberg Pieces, all sizes and qualities.

Christmas Counters

On these we have the best stock of Real Ebony and Ebonoid Goods that are made. Sets of Comb and Brushes in boxes-75c up to $5.00. Sets with mirror-$1.00 up to $6.50, including Manicure Sets-$6.50 to $15.00. Manicure Sets alone, in boxes, 55c up to $5.60; without box, 35c up.

Brush and Comb Sets in leather traveling cases, 75c up to $10.00, for ladies and gents. Military Brushes, $1.00 pair up to $5.00.

Handkerchiefs

Our hankerchief stock is full of choice goods at a bargain-in men's, ladies' and children's handkerchiefs. Ladies' handkerchiefs from an all linen at 5c up to the finest linen that is made, in embroidered, plain or lace trimmed. Special large assortment at 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00. Real lace trimmed $1.25 up to $18.50. Fine French hand embroldered, 50c up to $10.50. Initial handkerchiefs for men, ladies and children in boxes or single. Children's initial, three in a box, 25c.

Jewelry

We carry all the late novelties in jewelry. Beaded Bags a specialty-price $2.00 and up. We carry a grand line of pocket-books and shopping bags, and can please you as to style and price.

derwear and hoslery and satin ribbon girdles make a nice Christmas present.

Dressing Sacques Some are very handsome-prices $1.00 up to $5.00-children's cloaks.

bonnets and hats.

Neckwear

Chiffon Boas-prices $1.25 to $7.50-Handsome Automobile and other late makes in Ties, Real Lace in ties, collars, revers, boleros, etc.

-$1.50 and $2.00. Genuine Dent gloves from 24-in. to 32-in. long. Bisque or kid bodies, dressed or undressed. We have the handsomest pink kid body. double riveted joints and the Kest-ner Head, acknowledged the finest ead made, price with head $1.35 to

Dolls

The best French made ball jointed wood body and Kestner head-price $1.00 to $5.25. White kid bodies with hand riveted hip joint, 60c to $4.50; with plain joint, 35c to $1.75. Small Bisque Dolls, 5c up to $1.00. Dressed Dolls, 10c to $15.00

Kid Gloves Perin leads them all for beauty and durability-price $1.00, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00-in light or heavy weight, dressed or undressed. Mocha gloves, $1.00 to $1.50. Silk lined Mocha gloves

Newest styles in black Taffeta and Peau de Sole-prices $7.50, $9.50, $10.50, $12.50. Black and colored silk Moreens, $4.75. Elegant late make in mohair, price $5.25. The prettiest mercerized skirts that are made, price $1.00 and up. Handsome dress skirts of all kinds.

son street, and after several games of cards the remainder of the evening was de- ration. The harness room was converted voted to music. Later refreshments were served.

The cotiliton was led by Mr. and Mrs. Jos-Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Shelley gave a high five party to about forty guests on Moneph Barker, jr., to whom the dancers were indebted for the majority of the figures, day evening at their home at Thirty-second several of which were entirely new and all and Woolworth avenue. The prizes of the decidedly unique. The favors were of the evening were won by Mrs. H. L. Whitney, Mrs. Ingram, Mr. John Steel and Dr. Campgayest, frivolous tinsel, paper flowers, taretan and like perishable materials. For bell. real enjoyment the cotillions promise

Mrs. P. T. McGrath was hostess at a rival the assemblies. high five party on Thursday afternoon, at

Mrs. Milton T. Barlow was hostess at which about fifty guests were present. Her one of the smartest affairs of the week on home on South Thirty-second street was handsomely decorated with American Wednesday afternoon, when from 4 until beauty roses and a number of prizes were 6 o'clock she entertained about 300 guests at a tea in honor of her sister, Miss Mcswarded.

berg.

Clintock of Chicago. Through the rooms The Forest Hill Card club is one of the there was an elaborate floral decoration, most recently organized clubs for sixhanded eachre, being composed of about the parlor in La France roses and the library in American Beauties, added to which twenty members. The members were enthe handsome gowns of the women comtertained on Friday at the home of Mrs. R. pleted the brilliant coloring. In the din-R. Ringwalt and will meet this week with Miss Edith Cooley. ing room the prettily appointed table, with its center piece of hyacinths, narcissus

For Mrs. Windsor of Yankton, S. D., but formerly of Omaha, Mrs. Phillip Poter entertained at tea from 5 until 8 o'clock on Thursday, the guests being chiefly from among Mrs. Windsor's former friends. Mrs. Potter was assisted by Mrs. Llewellyn Jones and Mrs. Robert Ege.

Mrs. W. E. Palmatier entertained a party of women at cards on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 2216 Maple street. Sixhanded euchre was the game, the guests being seated at nine tables. On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Palmatier entertained an equal number of guests in the same manner.

A most delightful event of last was the high five party given by Mrs. C. Linzendorfer of 1906 North Twenty-fifth street. After the game a dainty lunch was served and music and dancing enjoyed for an hour. The prize winners were Mrs. W. H. Ogden, Mr. W. W. Connoran, Mrs. Carl Bergstrom and Mr. A. M. Bushnell.

Mrs. Arthur Gulou was hostess at two very delightful eachre parties on Thursday and Friday afternoons, which are the first Lindsey, Balcombe, Lomax and Millard. of the series that she will give during the winter. On Thursday afternoon she was assisted by Mrs. S. G. Strickland and Mrs. Wilson Lowe and on Friday by Mesdames Cowgill, Isaac Cole and Harry Wilkins.

daughter of Mr and Mrs. Gilbert M. Plymp-Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Meiding of 4129 La- ton, was solemnized at noon on Tuesday fayette avenue entertained the Friendly of last week at the home of the bride's Greeting club on Tuesday evening. Mrs. parents. West Fifty-second street, New P. J. Corcoran and Mrs. E. W. Norris se- York City. Only a few friends witnessed cured the first prizes and Mrs. P. F. Mc- the ceremony. After a short wedding trip Kenna and Mr. John F. Daly the consola- Mr. and Mrs. Tarleton will be at home tion awards. The next meeting will be at 114 East Seventy-first street. Mr. Tarlelarge dancing party at added, completing a rarely beautiful deco Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Weller will go to Chicago Tuesday evening to attend the into a punch room, while the large, smoothannual reunion and dinner of the N. W. floored carriage room was used for dancing. D. A. Social club, which will be given at the Athletic club. This organization is purely social in its character. Mr. Weller is president of the club and will preside at the meeting. On the evening of December 18 the doors of the new "University Hall," on Twenty-fifth and California, will be thrown open to the people of Omaha for the first time, the occasion being the annual entertainment of the Creighton Dramatic circle, whose members have been busy for the last month rehearsing "Rob Roy," a dramatization of the popular novel of Sir Walter Scott. The proceeds of the play will be devoted to the maintenance and better equipment of the students' library. That the event will be a success, socially as well as dramatically, is evidenced by a glance at the names of the following prominent women, who have kindly consented to act as patronesses: Mesdames: J. N. H. Patrick, C. E. Yost, C. F. Manderson, Thomas Kilpatrick, T. J. Mackay, G. W. Holdrege, Samuel Burns, Charles Kountze, Z. T. Lindsay, Harry McCormick, G. W. Lininger, A. B. Smith, Charles Green. J. E. Summers, J. H. Evans, F. L. Haller, J. D.

Ethel Morse, Millard, Towle, Martin, Cot-Creighton, E. A. Cudahy, J. Dougherty, E. L. Lomax, F. P. Kirkendall, T. B. Cumton, Holdrege, Brookings of California, Mrs. McClintock and Mrs. Brooks. The tea was mings, J. I. Woodward, Thomas McShane, followed by a 7 o'clock dinner, at which G. A. Joslyn, H. Cartan, Clement Chase, Guy Barton, V. H. Coffman. the assisting women were entertained, to-Out of Town Guests In honor of Miss Nellie Law of Henry,

Miss Lillian Race of New York is a guest of Mrs. J. B. Raum. Miss Forpaugh of St. Paul is Miss Mc-Kenna's guest this week. Mrs. S. Love Kelley is entertaining Miss rooms and on the dining table with ferns and green-shaded candelabra. Assisting Sherwood of Fontanelle, Ia. Mrs. Webster were Mrs. Harry Wilkins and Miss Conrad of Grand Island is Miss Dalsy Rogers' guest this week. Mrs. Franz Shenkberg of Sloux City is

Mrs. Cowgill and Mrs. Kenyon, serving coffee. Assisting through the rooms were the guest of Mrs. H. C. Cheney for a few Misses Towle, Swensburg, Allen, Smith, days. Miss Caldwell has returned to her hom in Chicago after a short visit with Miss Lomax. Miss Nellie Law of Henry, Ill., arrived on Monday, to be the guest of Miss Webster. Mrs. Windsor of Yankton, S. D., is a guest at the home of her son, Mr. Harry Windsor. Mr. Gordon Clarke will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Clarke, jr., this week. Mrs. L. B. McKeen of Terre Haute, Ind. s the guest of Mrs. Burt and Mrs. F. H.

McWhorter. Miss Higgins of Chicago is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gentleman, on Sherman avenue.

Miss Hene, who has been Miss Lena Rehfeld's guest for the last three weeks, left for the west on Monday. Mrs. John A. Sargent is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. C. McShane, and will remain here until after the holidays. Mrs. Edward Smith and children of St. Joseph came up on Saturday, to be the weeks in Omaha with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Barton. Lieutenant and Mrs. James L. Bevans were guests for a part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McWhorter while enroute from California to Illinois where they will visit Lieutenant Bevans' at $3.50 Always

Their Economy is Their

Wearing Qualities

OROSIS

You may have had a pair of shoes that looked well when new, but how did they look later? Probably cost you more money, too. Soroais wear well, fit well, lool well

The price never changes. Fifty different styles of Sorosis-not at fifty different prices-but all at one and the same-$3.50 always. We carry no machine-sewed shoes.

father. Until recently they have been stationed at Fort Davis, Alaska, and are spending a brief time visiting friends before going to the Philippines, where Lieutenant Bevans will be stationed for the. next three years. Mrs. Bevans was widely known in Omaha as Miss Bessie Millikin.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Clapp have returned to their home in Missouri after spending Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Mathewson, on North Nineteenth street.

Movements and Whereabouts.

Miss Cotton returned from St. Joseph or Tuesday evening. Mr. Fred Hamilton is back from an ex ended eastern trip. Miss Bessie Yates spent a part of last Monday!

week in St. Joseph. Mr. Clement B. Shaw has returned from his summer's trip abroad.

Miss Coad returned on Tuesday evening from a three months' visit in the east. Mrs. H. S. Jaynes and Miss Jaynes went o Chicago on Wednesday for a week or so Mr. and Mrs. Porter A. Sarson are back rom Chicago, where they spent Thanksgiving with relatives. Mrs. H. L. Whitney and Mrs. J. W. Munn returned from Chicago on Sunday, having spent Phanksgiving in that city. Mrs. Thomas J. Rogers has gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo., and from there will go to St. Louis to visit her sister. Messrs. C. S. Elgutter, J. H. McIntosh W. S. Poppleton and A. C. Smith are in Milwaukce, having gone there to attend the annual meeting of the Associated Harvard lubs Mrs. A. C. Mark has located her dressmaking and pleating establishment in the Horbach residence, corner 17th & Douglas, where she will be pleased to meet her patrons

Robbers Tap Bank and Escape.

Joseph came up on Saturday, to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates. Mrs. C. H. Gere of Northampton. Mass., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates at Thirty-second and Woolworth avenue. Mrs. Will Millard will leave tomorrow for Montana, having spent the last two weeks in Omaha with her parents, Mr. and Orders taken for home-made mincement plum pudding and fruit cake; wedding cakes a specialty. Estella E. Fead, 223 S. 29th avenue.

Miss Capitola Williams, plano, Davidge blk.

SCOFIFI D

Articles That Will Add Comfort to the Pleasure of Possession.

Our low prices this week will make it possible for your Christmas money to go further.

We invite you to look, with the warning that you will be inclined to buy, but with the assurance that you will be shown cheerfully, whether you buy or not.

> Japanese silk quilted house robes Furs of all kinds Silk and wool waists Silk petticoats Mercerized petticoats Cloth cloaks Fur cloaks Jackets, Raglans, Newmarkets, Handsome Three-Quarter Cloaks, Ladies' Suits, Dress Skirts.

$7.50.

PRESENTS.

Time and Labor Saved by Using the Ball Bearing No. 9.

This is the Twentleth Century Sewing Machine. Faster and easier running than others. If you want a cheap machine, no difference what make or price machine you want we can save you money.

OUR FREE SEWING SCHOOL.

Open every Thursday and Saturday all day and evening. We teach Battenberg embroidery and all kinds of fancy work. No difference where you bought your machine nor how long you have used it you are welcome to take advantage of this school and no expense.

During this week we will sell secondhand machines cheaper than ever.

Good Machines from $1.00 to $12

Modern drop head machines, slightly used at one-half regular price. We rent machines at 75c per week or $2.00 per

We are going to slash and month. These are modern up-to-date macut the prices on all our hats. chines, with complete attachments. We Every Hat from $10 up goes at sell needles and parts for and repair every sewing machine manufactured.

Every Hat from $7.50 to $10 goes at $5.00-

500 Hats worth $5 to be sold

Tomorrow

at $2.75. Any Untrimmed Hat 50c.

Our Hair Department

is the only one in the city carrying a complete line of Switches, Wigs, Bangs, Toupees, etc. The best $1.00 Switch in Omaha. A Hair Watch Chain makes a nice Christmas present.

Mrs. R. H. Davies,

1511 Douglas Street.

Christmas Suggestions-No. 1-Articles for Women.

Bead Necklaces, Bon Bon Boxes, Brooches, Combs, Brushes, Cuff Buttons, Emerics, Floss Boxes, Glove Stretchers, Hairpin Trays, Inkstands, Lockets, Belt Buckles, Bracelets, Card Cases, Chatelaine Bags, Cologne Bottles, Flasks, Garters, Hat Pins, Hair Pins, Jewel Trays, Lorgnettes.

J. L. ROACH, 1515 FARNAM ST.

PHONE 1663.

GEORGE E. MICKEL, Manager

Branch Offices,

612 N. 24th St., Phone 2174. South Omaha, Neb.

334 Broadway, Council Bluffs, Iowa,

Roach's New Book Store

Special Book Sale.

To each one returning this ad within the next ten days I will sell one copy of "Graustark," "Bath Comedy," "Elissa," "Pine Knot" and many other $1.50 books for 87c each. A fine selection of Juvenile Books at prices that are right.