MEETINGS AT KNOX CHURCH

Much Interest Awakened by the Revival of Religion in Progress There.

Perhaps never in the history of Knox Presbyterian church has there been such an awakening of spiritual life in its membership as during the series of meetings held every afternoon and evening during the last week. There is nothing sensational about the services, the aim being not so much to add to the church membership as to inspire the present members with renewed zeal and deeper devotion to things spiritual. The meetings have been so gratifying to the pastor and his brother, Dr. B. M. Long of Lincoln, that they will be continued another week, every evening except Saturday and every afternoon at 3 o'clock, except Monday and Saturday. Mrs. E. E. Levers will sing Sunday and special music has been arranged for each meeting. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Acorn Base Burners

It is not too early nor is it too late for you to buy an Acorn Base Burner. Notwithstanding the fact that our sales on the celebrated stove have nearly doubled this year, we still have a complete line and we want you to have one. In fact we cannot see why you should buy any of the cheap imitations of the Acorn when you can buy the genuine at prices ranging from $20.00 to $50.00. Seventy-one years in business has taught the Acorn people how to make a good stove and twenty years selling them has taught us how to care for your wants. Let us show you.

Heliograph from Santa Claus.

The following message was heliographed by the aid of the northern lights from Santa Claus, in his castle at Utopia, North Pole, to his Trans-Mississippi headquarters, Hayden Bros., Omaha:

"SANTA CLAUS CASTLE, Utopia, North Pole, Hayden Bros., Santa Claus Headquarters, Omaha—

"Will arrive Monday at your store, and will make my headquarters with you only. I find I can carry more pretty and useful gifts and distribute them better through you than anywhere else in the whole world. Have all the good children meet me Wednesday evening and Saturday afternoon. Be sure to tell the children to come to your store, as I will not go anywhere else this season. SANTA CLAUS."

A Holdup Case

A professional pianist called on one of the little four rurals a few days ago and asked to have his ounce bottle filled with Witch Hazel. The rural filled it and charged him 25c. The piano man kicked and said he could go down to the Deutsche Apotheker and get the same quantity, a 10c Chancellor cigar and car fare and still have money left. After this harangue the rural handed the piano man back 15c, shaking his head despondently.

A Pretty Girl from Lincoln

Miss Mae Walsh, a popular society belle, says: "I had pimples on my face for two years and took every blood medicine and face preparation I read about. Nothing did me any good until I was recommended to try Shrader's Fig Powder, with a bottle of Victor's Tonic Lotion. After the use of the two medicines in two weeks all my pimples had left me and my skin soft and clear. I wish to say that I have a few freckles, which have also disappeared I think there is no medicine that equals Shrader's Fig Powder and Victor's Tonic Lotion for the face. Very respectfully,
MAE WALSH.

Sold at all drug stores or send 10c for a trial box Fig Powder."
