A NEW MEAT MARKET

Open Evenings Until Christmas.

For several weeks past carpenters, painters and workmen have been busily engaged in refitting the room on the corner of 16th and Harney streets (Slitz building) for unquestionably the finest meat market west of Chicago. The doors of this elegant establishment will be thrown open to the public tomorrow. There will be music and a beautiful flower given to each lady. The public are cordially invited to call and inspect this up-to-date market. Only the very choicest corn-fed cattle and the very finest quality of pork, lamb, veal, mutton and the tenderest poultry of all kinds will be sold at this popular place, but the same prices will be maintained as those quoted in our Central Market at 16th and Capitol avenue—as we shall continue that market as heretofora We will appreciate a call from you.
