Trickett had testified that this firm was the representative of the Santa Fe railway and Hoose was asked if this were a fact. Witness declared he did not know of have any intimation of any arrangement by which his firm received any special advantage or concession from that railway. He admitted that of 2,000,000 bushels of grain handled by his firm in Kansas City home during the last year, the Santa Fe received all but 250,000 bushels. But this was simply because the Santa Fe ran through better state bank examiner.

grain country. He knows of no records of business transacted between Robinson & Co. and the Santa Fe railway. H. G. Kaill, assistant general freight agent of the Union Pacific railway, the first witness of the afternoon session, was accompanied by H. L. Loomis, who represented the railway as attorney.

Thinks Statement Preposterous.

Mr. Kaill was questioned about the Midland Elevator company of Kansas City, Grain consigned to the Midland elevator, he said, was billed to Kansas City, Kan., with the right to be shipped on eas into any state and went forward at the proportionate rate. Commissioner Prouty thought this statement preposterous, say ing that it forced the consignor to pay the arbitrary rate in force in Kansas City unnecessarily.

The commissioners tried to bring out the fact that the existence of the Midland Elevator company was a subterfuge to evade the interstate commerce law and that eastern destination was intended when grain was first consigned and that a layover here means the application of the arbitrary rate of 1 cent on 100 pounds, which justified the suspicion that an underhand motive existed.

Attorney Loomis here interposed to say that such conclusions were unfair and to declare that his road was acting in good the Burlington and Santa Fe railroads. The faith. He announced that he felt it his duty to instruct the witness to refuse to answer further questions until the matters at issue were judicially determined.

Road Pays Transfer Charge.

The commissioners informed Mr. Loomis that he and his witnesses must assume the responsibility, and Mr. Kaill continued answer questions, admitting that his road paid to the elevator 1% cents per 100 for all grain unloaded, but said this was for unloading the cars expeditiously when cars were in great demand. It was transfer charge, he said, that they paid to all elevators.

J. E. Seaver, manager of the Midland Elevator company testified that of 18,000,-000 bushels of grain consigned to Kansas City over the Union Pacific last year 6,000,-600 bushels went into his elevator, but de nied that that railway favors this particular elevator. All of the 6,000,000 bushels
