A Letter From Elenor Potter of Montreal, P. Q., Trained Nurse, Graduate of the Woman's Lying-in Hospital of That City.

BOSTON STORE DRUG DEPT., Omaha, Neb.

Dear sir: Understanding that Smith's Green Mountain Renovator has been introduced in the city of Omaha and that you have been fortunate in securing the rights to sell, may I congratulate you most sincerely, and say that I have found it to be a most excellent nerve tonic and recommend it continually to persons suffering from nervous debility and sleeplessness. It purifies the blood and revives the system. I recommend women especially to try it, as it did me a world of good.

FREMONT POSTOFFICE FIGHT

National Committeeman Folmeyer Claims Victory for Hammond.

INCUMBENT TO HOLD OVER INDEFINITELY

Richards and Swanson Refuse to Look on New Deal in the Light of a Compromise.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—While nothing official has been given out on the local postoffice fight situation, Ross Hammond is congratulating himself over the assurance received from his backer, R. B. Schneider, that he will hold on as postmaster indefinitely, even if he does not get a new commission. Mr. Schneider claims to have gotten the pledge from Senator Millard that no new appointment to the Fremont postoffice would be recommended except of a man who should have the endorsement of both Schneider and Richards. As Mr. Schneider's preferred candidate is already in the office this is all he could ask because his refusal to agree upon anyone other than Postmaster Hammond is the same thing as an extension of Hammond's lease of office life.

This new turn in affairs must be recent because Mr. Schneider as national committeeman had mapped out a vigorous campaign in behalf of Hammond which was suddenly dropped. The plan was to secure for him an endorsement of the republican county committee and to that end a number of the leading members were called in to a conference a few days ago, but when they got together they were told that no further action was necessary, as the fight had been settled and that no change would be made in the incumbency of the postoffice.

What Mr. Richards and his proteges, Dan Swanson, propose to do next has not been disclosed, but it is asserted that they will not sit idly by and let the matter rest after it has gone this far. They refuse to see in this latest proposition of Senator Millard's anything that he has a right to call a compromise, especially as the compromise leaves Swanson out in the cold. In the meantime the republicans here who are allied with one faction or the other are waiting for the signal from the leaders for the next move.

Hatch Employee Insane.

MULLEN, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—Fred Quinn formerly harness maker of the 101 ranch at Big Creek, was today charged with insanity and placed into custody awaiting the meeting of the commissioners. He came to this place about three weeks ago and stayed drunk for ten days.

LINCOLN CARS KEEP RUNNING

Traction Company Convinces City Officials that Tax Order Cannot Be Enforced.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—The Lincoln Traction company did not comply this afternoon with the order of the judicial committee of the city council to pay all back taxes, amounting approximately to $100,000, or quit operating its street cars. The company contends that as a case for the collection of the money alleged to be due is still pending in court the city has no right to enforce such an order as issued by the committee. City officials now take the same view of the case and agree that the company cannot be prevented from running its cars.

To Dig for Coal at Dunbar.

DUNBAR, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The people of Dunbar are growing enthusiastic in the belief that under this section of country lies a great vein of coal, and that oil may be found under the coal. A company will be organized and steps taken to find what the earth holds in store.

Some years ago prospecting was done, with the result that coal was found, of good quality and in paying quantities, but the mine was abandoned because of the large amount of water. With the improved machinery the water could be taken away and work carried on.

To Push Construction of Railroads.

ATKINSON, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—Dr. J. L. McDonald and J. E. Deck returned Friday night from Sioux City, where they consulted Abel Anderson, trustee of the A. N. & B. railway, regarding the road. Mr. Anderson assured them that it was the intention to push the construction of the road as rapidly as possible. Mr. Anderson expects to come to Atkinson this week.

Large Mortgage Recorded.

WEST POINT, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The largest mortgage of real estate ever recorded in Cumine county was placed on file this week. It was given for $100,000 by the Nebraska-Iowa Creamery company to F. H. Davis, trustee, and covers numerous pieces of property in this county.

Section of Light Artillery.

Lincoln may be named as a station for an independent section of light artillery. Captain Cosgrave of this city, who is commanding officer of the Bennett company in the First regiment of volunteers, and Captain McCarthy, formerly of Aurora, but now of this city, and several others, have interested themselves in the project of such a section, and permission has already been asked to have it made a part of the reserve military force of the state. If the company is properly organized it will be mustered in and equipped with modern artillery pieces and other paraphernalia.

Celling Falls at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The falling of sixty pounds of plaster Sunday night from the parlor ceiling at the home of J. F. Carrig frightened the family, who were in an adjoining room, and caused alarm among neighbors, who heard the crash. Mrs. Carrig ran out of the house crying "Fire!" in such excitement that she pushed her hand through the glass door in a neighbor's dwelling.

GOLD SEAL CHAMPAGNE

"SPECIAL DRY." "BRUT."

"GOLD SEAL" has been analyzed and tested by the world's best doctors and most eminent chemists in competition with six of the best French Champagnes; the result of the analysis showed "GOLD SEAL" to be purer and more healthful than any French wine, with a more delicate bouquet and flavor. It costs less than one-half the price of imported wine.

SARAH BERNHARDT says: I find the Urbana Wine Co.'s Gold Seal Champagne excellent in fact superior to many French Champagnes. It surprises me that such a fine wine can be produced in America.

Dean Lessey Gets Savage's Approval of the Forestry Reserve Plan.

FERTILITY OF SANDHILLS DEMONSTRATED

Nebraska Academy of Sciences Adopts Memorial Urging Government Control of the Blossoming of Waste Places.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—(Special.)—Dean Charles E. Bessey of the University of Nebraska this afternoon obtained from Governor Savage an official approval of the proposition to have the government create three permanent forestry reserves in this state. This idea originated with Dr. Bessey over fifteen years ago and recently has received not only favorable consideration, but hearty support by the Bureau of Forestry of the Department of Agriculture.

Dr. Bessey first experimented with some sandhill land in Holt county and found that trees could be grown successfully in soil that is generally believed to be worthless. The success of his undertaking was brought to the attention of the Department of Agriculture and after several years of correspondence a representative was sent to Nebraska to investigate the claims made, which seemed entirely too extravagant to be worthy of even serious consideration at that time.

Last year W. H. Hall of the Bureau of Forestry traveled over most of the western and northern sections of the state with a view to determining whether or not trees could be grown in the sandhills. He was assisted by Dr. Bessey and soon became convinced that the sandy portion of the state was capable of producing good trees. Since then the matter has been agitated more vigorously than ever, and it is now proposed to create three permanent reserves, to be started and maintained by the government. Governor Savage has had the matter under consideration several weeks and this afternoon, after an extended consultation with Dr. Bessey, dictated a letter to the Nebraska delegation in congress asking them to support the movement.

The reserve may be created in two ways. One is by act of congress and the other by presidential proclamation. The latter course has been chosen and President Roosevelt will soon be asked to take the necessary steps. The land used will be only that now owned by the government, hence no person will be deprived of his property.

Territory Recommended.

The Nebraska Academy of Sciences has unanimously adopted the following resolution, and the territory proposed therein for the reserves, is the territory that will be recommended to the president:

"Whereas, it is proposed to have several tree-planting reserves set aside in the sand hills of Nebraska by the national government with a view to the forestation of considerable tracts of land in these reserves; and

Whereas, the proposed areas for such reserves are not within the proper agricultural portion of the state, be it

Resolved, That the Nebraska Academy of Sciences hereby endorses and approves of this proposal to establish tree-planting reserves in the portions of the state indicated, viz: In Cherry county, in Thomas county and in Grant county;

Resolved, further, That our senators and representatives in congress be urged to give this proposition their best support."

Contest for Sizer's Successor.

A spirited contest is on over the appointment as chief of inspectors to succeed E. R. Sizer, who has been recommended to the United States senate for the Lincoln postmastership. Governor Savage has promised that he will give the position to a traveling man. This declaration has eliminated all but two candidates from the race. These two are Charles Hayes and J. M. O'Neal. Both have the endorsement of several traveling men's organizations and in addition Mr. O'Neal has presented a petition containing the signatures of over 500 regularly employed drummers who reside in Nebraska.

The governor says the obligation which he is under to the traveling men of the state is a legacy of his office left by former Governor Dietrich, who declared before he retired from the executive office that he would appoint a traveling man to the position of chief inspector. It became vacant by Mr. Sizer's resignation and has generally understood that Mr. Sizer would be appointed postmaster.

Today several delegations of traveling men called on the governor in the interests of one or the other of the two candidates and Governor Savage agreed to make a selection as soon as the incumbent withdraws. Mr. Sizer will not tender his resignation until the senate acts upon his appointment as postmaster. He is confident that he will be confirmed, but as the matter is still in embryo he prefers to retain his present position.

Nebraska May Shine in London.

A communication was received at the governor's office today from the American Society in London asking the cooperation and assistance of the officials of this state in the plan to hold an American exposition in the English metropolis during the remainder of the coronation year. The object is to arrange an exhibit that will give visitors in London a glimpse of the state to the resourcefulness of the United States. Nebraska is asked to contribute to this undertaking. This contribution may be either money or the products of the state, preferably the latter. The communication will be taken under consideration by the governor.

Rejuvenation of South Omaha Cavalry

Adjutant General Colby says the independent company of cavalry in South Omaha has been rejuvenated and that steps are being taken to have it mustered into the state militia service. Captain W. C. Holland and other leading members of the organization will come to Lincoln Wednesday to confer with Governor Savage and General Colby regarding the proposed muster. It is likely that the officials will grant their request. The company is said to be in good condition, fully meeting the requirements usually imposed upon independent companies seeking membership in the National Guard of the state.

FEES NOT AS MUCH AS SALARY

Board of Supervisors Confronted with New Problem While Checking County Books.

BEATRICE, Neb., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The Board of Supervisors in checking up the county offices, and settling with the outgoing officers, has been confronted with a new problem, which has heretofore not been considered. George W. Maurer, the outgoing county treasurer, claims that he is entitled to $3,000 a year as salary, and the fees of the office over this amount are to be turned into the county treasury to be used in paying the clerks and assistants of the county treasurer, and in case the fees of the office do not amount to enough to pay the treasurer $3,000 salary, also the clerks and assistants, the county shall pay the balance out of the general fund of the county.

The board has asked the county attorney for his opinion, and received the following: "Section 42, chapter 28 Compiled Statutes of Nebraska, 1901—is the county liable, and can the Board of Supervisors pay the clerks and assistants in the office of the county treasurer for their services out of the general fund of the county, when the fees actually collected and received by the county treasurer, are not sufficient to pay said clerks and assistants after the county treasurer has retained out of the fees of said office his salary of $3,000?"

Continuing, attorney says: "After carefully reading section 42, chapter 28 of the Compiled Statutes of Nebraska, 1901, and the decisions of the courts of this state, I am of the opinion that under said section, the county treasurer of this county may retain out of the fees of said office the sum of $3,000 as salary, provided the fees of said office shall amount to $3,000, and the surplus fees of said office, if any, over and above said salary of $3,000 should be paid into the treasury of the county. The county would be liable for the salary or pay of clerks and assistants in the office of the county treasurer, provided the Board of Supervisors upon application found the same necessary and the number of said clerks or assistants were prescribed, the time they should be employed, and the compensation they should receive. It is sufficient to pay said clerks and assistants after the said county treasurer had retained his salary of $3,000, but in any event not more than the sum of $2,400 per annum could be paid for the services of all said clerks and assistants, whether they were paid out of the fees of the office, or out of the general fund of the county, or part of each."

"The fees of the office during the four years of Mr. Maurer's administration" said a member of the board today, "will be about $4,000 of paying the salary of the treasurer, and the clerks of the office, and I believe that it is the intention of the law that all county offices shall be self-sustaining. I have looked up the following cases, and I consider them similar cases to this one of ours."

"Case against Wilson, 35 Neb. 158 and 56 Northwestern Reporter, 580 and also same case, 38 Neb. 165 and 56 Northwestern Reporter 810, 26 Neb. 375 and 54 Northwestern Reporter 683; Rogers against Cumming County 46 Neb. 292 and 64 Northwestern Reporter 663; Wolfe against Boyd, Boyle against Webster County 15 Neb. 131 and 24 Northwestern Reporter 457, and the State against Silver, 9 Neb. 85."

"All of those cases held generally that the fees of the office must pay all expenses of maintaining said office."

"This is the first time this question ever arose in this county, and as the statutes provides the treasurer shall have $3,000 and salary in all counties having over 25,000 population and under 60,000."

The question is being freely discussed by the attorneys of the city. The board will probably be reached.

DEFENSE OF JIM HENRY AGER

Lincoln Man Points Out Labors for Humanity Done by Pass Distributor.

LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—To the Editor of The Bee: I see you are "upset" over my article of the 25th. I think it is very unkind of you to do so. You ought to know that he is one of the cleverest fellows that ever hung around a legislature to see that the boys "voted right." You admit that he has been liberal with his passes and his free theater tickets, and that he has been paying them money, setting up the drinks and introducing the members to fascinating ladies, that duty has usually been delegated to others who are a little less anxious to have the appearance of respectability. Hank's line is to smile a sardonic grin, tell smutty stories, present arguments in favor of his party, and to pay the bills. He is not a politician and the political power of the "road," encourage hopes of future preferment and, if the member is not speedily compliant to his masters' wishes, to give him plainly to understand that the road will be closed to him if he does not get out again if he does not "knuckle down." I am sure Hank is just as gentlemanly about it as he can be and obtain the results required of him by his employers, and I don't think you ought to criticize him and hold him up to public contempt.

It is probably true that he has more or less business privately with the different state officials, the members of the supreme court and the court commissioners, but how otherwise could these gentlemen know what his employers want? They cannot meet these officials publicly, for they do not wish to pay the bills. They cannot send them open letters and have them printed in the papers. You ought to know that the only practical course open to them is to employ some discreet and reliable man to slip around in the dark and whisper their orders to these men who are the occupants of seats of authority. You cannot deny Mr. Ager does his work well and with as little scandal as possible.

It is necessary for him to look after state and county conventions also. The same political sagacity that he shows in other departments of his work he exhibits here. He is "in touch" with all the politicians and knows who can be relied upon better than his masters. They are busy with their regular railroad work all the time, while Hank goes slipping around ingratiating himself into the good graces of all officials and waiting for the great work of those in office, reporting to his masters what is done and is doing, arranging combinations and campaigns, making and unmaking statements, and in all respects doing faithfully and well all duties that devolve on him as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the greatest political power in the state, and you criticize him for it. Are you aware that the State Journal job office, being furnished with a large line of railroad work, fully indorses him? You don't seem to know how good and great a man he is. Is your feeling against him so strong that you wish to send word to a judge that if he did not decide a case according to his liking he would pull him down from the bench and be able to do it if the judge did not comply. Whatever your ideas or motives may be, I am sure you are very unjust in your criticism of a very worthy and good man.

OPINION IN OMAHA CASE

Attorney General Files His View of Fire and Police Board.

GOVERNOR SAYS HE WILL FOLLOW ADVICE

While Parport is Not Announced, He is that Savage is Urged to Make the Appointment.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The executive office was the gathering place yesterday afternoon for delegations, candidates for appointment, persons with political axes to grind and numerous others—all intent upon interviewing Governor Savage. The governor returned unheralded Saturday evening from his three weeks' absence. It was known, however, that he was to be in the city Sunday morning and all day yesterday persons were clamoring for admission to his department at the statehouse. The governor spent the major portion of the day in his private office with the door locked against the public. The visitors were back again today and throughout both the morning and afternoon a long line was in waiting in the reception room.

Yesterday the governor attacked the great pile of newspapers that had accumulated in his office since his departure from the state. It is reported that he read carefully all criticisms on the pardon of Barry and then took up a mass of correspondence bearing upon the same subject.

Along in the afternoon the scene shifted and Attorney General Prout was taken into consultation regarding the Omaha Fire and Police board matter. Mr. Prout gave an oral opinion as to the governor's right to make appointments, but upon request of the governor agreed to file a written opinion today.

Will Follow Legal Advice.

The written opinion of the attorney general was delivered to the governor late this afternoon and will be considered tomorrow. "I have talked the case over with several well known attorneys, but I intend to follow the advice of the attorney general," said the governor tonight. "The law makes me the governor, whether they like it or not. I have a legal right to do so, I will make the appointments."

Both the governor and the attorney general declined to divulge the contents of the opinion.

An Omaha democrat who was in Lincoln tonight said he had been told by good authority in Omaha that the attorney general was expected to decide in favor of the governor's making the appointments.

"This is not merely guesswork," said he, "for I have the information from an inside source. The democrats of Douglas county expect favorable action and they will be greatly surprised if the attorney general does not say that the governor has the power to appoint."

Among the callers today was Lee Sprattle of Omaha, who is one of the men mentioned for a place on the prospective board.

BRONCHITIS

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Cures Bronchitis, Grip and All Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

If your throat is weak, or if you are troubled in any way with grip or bronchitis, if you have consumption, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey will cure you. It aids digestion, stimulates and enriches the blood, invigorates the brain, builds nerve tissue, tones up the heart, fortifies the system against disease germs and promotes life.

SURE CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.

Gentlemen: Early last spring I was taken with Chronic Malaria. I began to cough, my chest was sore, and I had all the signs of the air passed followed. I tried most everything, but found no relief, till I took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I commenced gaining strength, and after taking fifteen bottles I had gained 40 pounds, which I had not before. I began taking your whiskey. I would advise all who have similar trouble to take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It has cured me from troubles when nothing else would give me relief.

R. C. HENNING, Coraopolis, Pa. Oct. 17, 1901.

Be careful and see that "Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey" is on the label, and that it is our own patent bottle with the name blown in the bottle. This is the only way to get the real Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. If offered in bulk or in flasks it is a fraud.
