company against Storey. Appeal from Madison. Judgment. Oldham, C. Division No. 2. Unreported.

When a bill in equity is filed by the creditors of an insolvent corporation for the purpose of subjecting the impaid subscriptions to the capital stock of such corporation to the payment of the corporate debts, it is necessary that each one of the delinquent subscribers to such capital stock be made a party defendant, and unless all are made parties defendant, or some good and sufficient reason appears upon the face of the petition, such as death, insolvency or inability to reach with the process of the court the delinquent subscribers not joined as defendants, the petition is bad because of a non-joinder of parties defendant.
