

A TEST EXPERIMENT.

Peculiar Power Possessed By a New Medicine.

Of new discoveries there is no end, but one of the most recent, most remarkable and one which will prove invaluable to thousands of people, is a discovery which it is believed will take the place of all other remedies for the cure of those common and obstinate diseases, dyspepsia and stomach troubles. This discovery is not a loudly advertised, secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of wholesome, perfectly harmless vegetable essences, fruit salts, pure pepsin and bismuth.

These remedies are combined in lozenge form, pleasant to take, and will preserve their good qualities indefinitely, whereas all liquid medicines rapidly lose whatever good qualities they may have as soon as unopened and exposed to the air.

This preparation is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and it is claimed that one of these tablets or lozenges will digest from 50 to 3,000 times its own weight of meat, eggs and other wholesome food. And this claim has been proven by actual experiments in the following manner: A hard-boiled egg cut into small pieces was placed in a bottle containing warm water heated to ninety-eight degrees (or blood heat), one of these Tablets was then placed in the bottle and the proper temperature maintained for three hours and a half, at the end of which time the egg was as completely digested as it would have been in a healthy stomach. This experiment was undertaken to demonstrate that what it would do in a bottle it would also do in the stomach, hence its unquestionable value in the cure of dyspepsia and weak digestion. Very few people are free from some form of indigestion, but scarcely two will have the same symptoms. Some will suffer most from distress after eating, bloating from gas in the stomach and bowels; others have acid dyspepsia or heartburn; others palpitation or headaches, sleeplessness, pains in chest and under shoulder blades, extreme nervousness, as in nervous dyspepsia, but they all have the same cause, failure to properly digest what is eaten. The stomach must have rest and assistance, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give it both, by digesting the food for it, and in a short time it is restored to its normal action and vigor. At the same time the Tablets are so harmless that a child can take them with benefit. This new preparation has already made many astonishing cures, as, for instance, the following:

NOT AFRAID OF AGNOSTICS

Dr. Russell Conwell Not Alarmed Over Project of Dr. Roberts.

BAYS IT IS HUMAN TO LOVE THE PURE

Some People May Turn Away from Good Book, but They Will Return—Saloon Not Workingman's Club.

"The people should not worry over the contemplated action of Dr. Roberts of Kansas City in lecturing throughout the country and establishing agnostic churches. It is just a spasmodic movement and will soon die out. Nothing like that can survive. The people love the good old book and will always love it. It is human nature to love the good and the pure, and the blessed book will not be damaged and the people will not turn from it. It has always been our comfort and our joy. Some may turn away for awhile, but they will not remain away. They love its teachings too much."

So said Dr. Russell Conwell, who, with Mrs. Conwell, arrived in Omaha yesterday. Dr. Conwell is pastor of the Baptist Temple of Philadelphia, one of the largest Protestant churches in the country, having a membership of over 3,000. He has been on the lecture platform for ten years. At the Her Grand last night Dr. Conwell said: "Omaha is not the same place it was when I first came through the town. It was in '65, I think, and the last spike was being driven in the Union Pacific tracks. The city has had a wonderful growth. The next time I passed through the town was in '69. I was making a trip around the world for the New York Tribune and the Boston Traveler. I am an old newspaper man and still love the work. I started the two papers that were afterward merged into what is now the Minneapolis Tribune."

Dr. Conwell's Busy Life.

For the last twenty years Dr. Conwell has been pastor of the Baptist Temple in Philadelphia. In assuming charge of the church he established a school in the basement of the building, the attendance at the beginning being seven pupils. The school is now known as the Temple college and is founded in its president. Besides the work connected with his church and the school Dr. Conwell delivers upon an average of 210 lectures each year. "I love to be busy," said the doctor, "and find my greatest pleasure when I am the busiest."

Dr. Conwell is 59 years of age and has lead a busy life, though he still has the energy of a much younger man. "I have been a newspaper man, lawyer, preacher and for the last forty years have been lecturing," he said. "It seems a long time when I think of all the men who have been associated with me on the platform that have passed away. There were Beecher, Lowell, Holmes, Curtis and many others. In fact, there are very few lecturers now on the platform that were lecturing twenty years ago."

Dr. Conwell will spend Sunday at the hotel. Monday night the doctor will lecture at Red Oak, Ia., and Tuesday night he will lecture in Omaha under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association.

In Bed Four Weeks with La Grippe.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Roy Kemp of Anglia, Ind.: "I was in bed four weeks with la grippe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable money for treatment with physicians, but I received no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. Two small bottles of this medicine cured me and I now use it exclusively in my family." Take no substitutes.

Father Dowling Entertains Creighton University Students at a Banquet.

Father Dowling, president of Creighton university, entertained the dramatic club of the university at a dinner last night. The dining room of the lodge restaurant was turned into a banquet room for the occasion, was tastefully decorated and handsomely appointed. One of the pretty features of the evening was the menu cards, on which were neatly printed in water colors the characters in the play of "Rob Roy," recently given by the club. Each man had his individual card, decorated with the drawing of the part he assumed. After a carefully chosen menu had been thoroughly discussed, the following toasts were had: Prof. A. C. Fox acting as toastmaster: "As Others Say," W. D. Coffman, '02; "Auld Lang Syne," J. E. Woodard, '02; solo: E. A. Umstead, '02; "Some Possibilities," D. J. Hurley, '04; "Behind the Scenes," L. A. Lilly, '04; "A Glimpse of the Future," P. A. Collier, '05; "Dramatic Personae—A Retrospect," J. M. Fitzgerald, '05; "Character en Masque," W. D. Brown, '04; "Farewell," E. F. Leary, '02.

Father Dowling delighted the hearts of the boys by announcing that as a result of his recent visit to Chicago the new auditorium will be equipped with 1,000 of the latest make of opera chairs. These will be in place by March 6, and thus Creighton university will have the finest auditorium connected with a western educational institution.

A Little at Stake.

If you but knew the splendid merit of Foley's Honey and Tar you would never be without it. A dose or two will prevent an attack of pneumonia or la grippe. It may save your life.

SCHUYLER MAN IS ARRESTED

John Donnelly Accused of Assaulting M. F. Grossman with Intent to Kill.

John Donnelly, an insurance agent of Schuyler, Neb., came to Omaha yesterday morning, and last evening was arrested on information received from the marshal of Schuyler, charging him with assault with intent to kill M. F. Grossman. Donnelly wears a right cut and carries a heavy silver handled cane. He is 35 years old and resides with his family in Schuyler. Donnelly was locked up. The marshal telegraphed he would come to Omaha today to take Donnelly back.

According to Donnelly's explanation of the trouble, Grossman owned cigar stores at the corner of Fifteenth and Dodge streets. Donnelly says domestic troubles resulted in Grossman selling his cigar business and that he returned to Schuyler, where he formerly ran a men's furnishing store.

"The whole story is," he said, "that I gave Grossman a good caning because he taxed my patience beyond enduring. The affair happened Thursday evening, and Friday I made inquiries as to Grossman's intentions, without receiving any information that he was going to prosecute me. I came to Omaha on business and not, as it might seem, to avoid arrest."

IT IS FEBRUARY FOURTH YET

So Far as City Council is Concerned Time is at a Standstill.

The city council is still holding its meeting of February 4, waiting for permission from the court to pass the tax levy ordinance. At 11:30 yesterday morning the roll call showed Hascall, Whitehorn, Trostler, Hoye, Mount and Karr to be present. A recess was then taken until 3 p. m. Councilman Mount thus explained the action of the council: "Our only object in remaining in such close session is that we may be ready to act the moment that the court releases us from that restraining order. We can continue the meeting of February 4 two days yet, but we can't continue it beyond February 10, because that is the date of our next regular meeting. In other words, we can't keep one regular meeting alive beyond the date of the next regular meeting. If the court doesn't release us before next Tuesday, I don't know what the result will be, as the city charter says the tax levy must be made at the meeting of February 4. The council has never been confronted before with a situation like this.

At 3 o'clock the council took a recess until 5, and at 5 another recess until 11 o'clock Monday morning.

SLEIGHBELLS FOR THE DEAF

Superintendent Stewart Insists that Charges Can Feel the Vibration.

Superintendent Stewart of the deaf mute asylum is arranging a sleighing party for his charges. Saturday morning he was discussing it with Dr. W. H. Hanchett, physician for the institution.

"That's an excellent idea," said the doctor, "and if you should need any sleighbells I'll lend you mine."

Several stanzas passed before it dawned upon the doctor what the superintendent was laughing at.

But Superintendent Stewart says all of his wards can hear, or rather feel, sleigh bells. "They feel the vibration, you know," he said. "Now, we have a steam whistle at the institute, that blows a blast for the various meal hours, and those deaf mutes can hear it blow as well as I do. So perhaps Dr. Hanchett's suggestion about the sleighbells is so absurd after all."

AFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Citizens Will Ask for Macadam Road to Fort Crook.

WILL APPEAL TO NEBRASKA SENATORS

Revival of a Former Project to Improve the Eastern Part of the City—General News from Magic City.

An effort is to be made by the East Side improvement club, and in fact all of the improvement clubs in the city, to induce the government to macadamize Thirteenth street from the southern limits of Omaha to Fort Crook. This question was brought up several years ago, but the secretary of war laid the question aside on account of the Spanish war. Now the members of the club and citizens in general propose to send a petition to Senators Millard and Dietrich at Washington with the request that the matter be revived.

At the time the suggestion was first made it was proposed to construct a macadam road sixteen feet in width over the course mentioned. This would, it was estimated, cost about $50,000. It is understood here that money for such work as that proposed is now available, and the united efforts of the two Nebraska senators will be asked in order that the construction of the road may be commenced as soon as possible.

By the building of the Missouri avenue car line the eastern portion of the city is building up rapidly. Then the land company proposes opening a number of streets east of Twentieth street, which will improve this desirable residence section greatly. Another reason for the request to build the road is that the department of infantry will soon be stationed at Fort Crook. Business men have long been demanding a good road to Bellevue, Fort Crook, etc., and now a determined effort is to be made to secure government help for this ridge road.

Stock Yards Matters.

Captain D. S. Parkhurst, president of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, called at The Bee office yesterday and made the statement that no differences of any kind exist between the packers and the members of the exchange in regard to the shrinkage of hogs. "The rumor printed in The Bee," said Captain Parkhurst, "regarding the shrinkage of hogs was an error. The only change that has been made in the standard department by the board of directors of the Live Stock exchange has been the addition of one inspector. Now five inspectors are at work where formerly the exchange had only four. I wish The Bee would correct this rumor and set the public at ease."

Another well known member of the exchange said: "The exchange is running along all right and there is no friction. The relationship with commercial bodies and the stock yards company are entirely satisfactory."

City Attorney Indifferent.

Last Monday night the city council directed the city clerk to advertise for bids for the purchase of a site for a public library, bids to be received up to 5 p. m. on February 17. So far the city attorney has not drafted the usual notice of publication and it was reported at the city hall yesterday that he had decided to do so, on the ground that the council has not yet purchased a site. City Clerk Shrightly, in an interview last night, said that he would comply with the order of the council and prepare the notice himself. This notice will be published during the coming week. Rumor has it that there is going to be some live times in the council before the site is purchased.

Sheep for Omaha Market.

Hon. J. M. Barto, a prominent and wealthy rancher and manager of the Niobrara river sheep ranch, arrived in this city yesterday. He brought down a train load of sheep, 2,45 head, for the South Omaha market, but stopped over at Fremont to let them rest and feed. Mr. Barto says that the company which he represents is feeding 10,000 head of sheep for the South Omaha market in Sheridan county this state, feeding them grain and ranging them. The train load at Fremont will be marketed this week and the balance of the 30,000 head will be placed on the market about April 1.

Evangelistic Meetings.

Evangelistic meetings will be held this week at the First Presbyterian church. Evangelist Smith will have charge of the preaching, while Mr. Colburn will look after the music. These meetings have been attracting considerable attention and will doubtless be largely attended. Next week these meetings will be held at the Methodist church on N street.

Committee Changes.

Ed Halpin has resigned as a member of the democratic city central committee and James J. Fitzgerald has been reinstated as a member. Halpin served for a short time as secretary. When his resignation was accepted Friday night, Frank Burness was chosen secretary. It is understood that the resignation of Halpin was forced on Burness by certain recent actions. The committee still continues to hold secret meetings.

Taxes Becoming Delinquent.

Special taxes assessed for the laying of permanent sidewalks on Twenty-fourth street from A to Q streets, on N street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

T. M. Rudy, editor of the Christian Union, Des Moines, Ia., will deliver an address in the First Christian church on Sunday at 10:30 and also in the evening at 7:30 in the North Side Christian church.

Omaha union No. 2, National Association of Stationary Engineers, will hold an open meeting at 7 o'clock Friday evening, February 7, at William Howard Payne. The speaker will be James H. Payne, mechanical engineer of the American Steam Pump company of East Crook. He will give a lecture on steam pumps. The public is invited.

The Descriptive Skule will be given for the benefit of St. Philip's church. Monday evening at Washington hall. Among those taking part are: Dr. J. B. Smith, Geo. E. Collins, A. W. Parker, William Payne, George N. Johnson, C. N. Wade, James Brooks, J. W. Smith, students Rosney Carter, B. E. Craig, Robert Bryant, William Payne, J. B. Smith and Misses Parker, Singleton, Dickinson and Gettrude Thompson.

James Yates, a blacksmith, who lives with his family at 329 Maple street, was arrested last evening and locked up. Mrs. Yates complains to the police that her husband had come home intoxicated, had driven all the time, except one that was very sick, from 11 o'clock until underlock to give the sick child beer and fruit for their supper. Yates said that it was better to have him kept away from home until he sobered up.

WEAK KIDNEYS AND BLADDER TROUBLE

Had to Pass Water Very Often Day and Night

Cured by the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root

DR. KILMER & CO., Binghamton, N. Y.

About two years ago I had a very severe case of kidney and bladder trouble. The pain in the small of my back was so severe that I could not stand it to stay in one position more than a moment or two, and was obliged to pass water very often day and night. I tried medicines and doctors without getting relief. Noticing an advertisement in the Topeka State Journal of Swamp-Root, I determined to give it a trial and bought a bottle. By the time I had finished the first bottle the pain had entirely disappeared from my back. The pain and frequent desire to pass water ceased. However, I continued to take the medicine, using about six bottles in all. That was over a year ago and I have had no return of the trouble since.
