NOT SO GOOD AT BOWLING Omahans Are Off Their Game and Luck, and Lose to Kansas City Buffaloes.

Kansas City's champion bowling team, the "Buffaloes," evened things up for the defeat of the shooters from that metropolis by rolling out a victory from the picked team of Omaha men at Clark's alleys last night, the visitors winning by 162 pins.

A great crowd of men, and women thronged the alleys to see this match. The scores were generally bad, and the totals disappointing. Despite this fact, the enthusiasm was intense throughout the contest.

visitors bowled their game of the night right then, rolling 954 and ending the contest with a margin of 162 pins.

Frank Makepeace was the star of the "Buffaloes." He rolled the high score, 13. In the second round Laidiaw played in place of Makepeace, who returned to the game in the third round, against the protest of the Omahans, they asserting that the rule which forbids a man returning to a game after being removed barred Makepeace. The visitors maintained that each round of ten frames was a game, so their man could start in on the third round again, even though he had been taken out for the second. The Omahans answered that when the total score for thirty frames was being counted to determine the victory these thirty frames constituted a game, and not ten. No specification as to the number of frames which shall comprise a game was found in the rules of the American Bowling congress, but Makepeace played.

Kansas City won by superior bowling all through. The strangers were surer than the locals, and seldom missed spares, which the Omahans did repeatedly. The way in which they struck out at the ends of the rounds was also a feature. Emery played the most reliable game for Omaha. Score: KANSAS CITY.

Meet.

Thirty promising young athletes participated in the closed handican track meet at the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association last night, and M. Morrison won first place, with 19 points. Cornwall was a close second, with 18. Morrison had two firsts, two seconds and two thirds. Klein's 10 points took third and Selbert's 6 was fourth.

An enthusiastic crowd of spectators witnessed the contests, of which there were eight. Cornwall's showing was considered especially remarkable, as he has not had the advantages of gymnasium training, but entered as'a raw contestant. Results: Rope skip (100 times): Selbert first. disappointing. Despite this fact, the enthusiasm was intense throughout the contests.

Although the final scores were 2.604 for the visitors to 2.442 for the local men, the Omaha bowlers had at two different stages of the game good chances to win, and they were cheered to their best efforts by their friends. But hearty support seemed unavailing. The locals were off their game and off their luck as well, and although the varying fortunes of the match rested with the Omahans at times, they aiways ended by returning to the side of the "Buffaloes."

At the close of the fourth frame of the first round of ten the Omahas were more than sixty plas in the lead, but in the naxt frame miships came in the shape of four aplits, and from then on the Missourians gained till at the close of the round they were eighty-two pins shead.

Every Omaha player was determined to spoil this lead in the second round, and they starled out to do it. Before seven frames were gone they had regained the eighty-two pins, but then the visitors responded to the strenuous admonitions of Captain Barse and ended up strong, so that the Omahans reduced the lead only forty-four pins eventually.

With thirty-eight pins to make in order to win, "King" Denman and his troupe steamed away for the third round, but the visitors bowled their game of the night right then, roiling 554 and ending the contest with a margin of 162 pins.

The time made, four and three-fifths seconds, was the present record.

In the mile run there were so many competitors that by the time three-fourths of the distance was covered the tail-enders were lapped, so that it was hard to keep correct scores. The judges first decided that Cook of Providence was the winner, but that it was afterward shown that Cornell of Amherst, a scratch man, had finished first, almost in a walk. To him, therefore, the first place was awarded.

Dick Grant, who also was a scratch man, got so hopelessly lost in the field that he stopped running.

Forty-yard dash, novice scratch, final heats: Won by G. F. Hennebery, Harvard; second, J. M. Crowell, M. I. T.; third, W. A. Clark, M. I. T. Time: 9:04-5.

With his famous hammerlock hold, aided by a half-Nelson, Farmer Burns last night Terrible Turk, at the Trocadero, before a crowd that packed the house to the eaves. Then the Farmer tried a double Nelson four times, but he could not reach far enough to make his hands meet behind DR. MIAL WINS CLOSE GAME the Turk's immense neck. Finally Burns grasped the big man's brawny arm and shoved it slowly but surely up his back, twisting as it went. This was the hammerlock that held. The Turk writhed and struggled, but vainly. BOSTON, Feb. 8.—The Boston Athletic association held its winter indoor athletic meeting at Mechanics' building tonight, exceeding all its previous efforts in bringing together well known athletes. While every event was keenly contested, no record was smashed, because the sprints by necessity were broken into in many heats and the track was too crowded in the distance runs to permit any brilliant bursts of speed. The number of men competing was nearly 500 and winning cups were pretty well distributed.

As usual, the team relay races were the most spectacular. An accident stopped the most promising of these, when Phelan of Princeton, in the race with Cornell, fell and sprained his ankle.

For two relays Cornell with the pole had held a slight lead over Princeton. Rogers, for Cornell, had a good start on the third relay, and Phelan started after him with a vengeance. On the second corner Phelan tripped and fell. This stopped the race.

The Harvard-Pennsylvania university race was a disappointment, as the men with the crimson ran away from the Pennsylvania men from the start. Of the other team races those between Dartmouth and Columbia, when the Hanover boys won, and the Amherst and Williams race were the best. Columbia had a good team, but Dartmouth was able to gain one the last two races by the close finishes of her runners. The Amherst-Williams race brought the people to their feet, for at no time were the runners more than twenty feet apart and Thompson, for Amherst, and O'Nell, for Williams, simply staggered to the post at the finish, the latter not over five feet in the lead. The time was only three-fifths of a second slower than the record, made by Harvard last year.

The Harvard class team races were really a feature, because of local rivalry. The freshmen in the final heat gave the juniors their first defeat this season.

In the preparatory school relay Andover had an easy thing with Exeter. The chief sprint, the forty-yard special, brought together three of the best men in the race. Scheuber of Harvard wa

PLANS FOR LOCAL PUGILISTS Shreck-Rhodes Match Put Off Titl March for Gardner-Smith Go.

The match planned by the Omaha Athletic club between Mike Shreck and Billy Rhodes, welterweights, has been postponed until a March date, and on February II will instead occur a go between Haich Smith and Eddie Gardner. Articles of agreement have just been signed and forfeits posted.

It had been feared that this match would never be consummated, because of the fact that it would be practically impossible for Gardner to make 122 pounds, which is Smith's fighting weight. Smith did not care at first to meet Gardner at any more than that, but has finally consented to give two pounds, so the men will meet at 134 pounds. They will go ten rounds at Washington hall.
