

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

F. J. Lewis Making Another Effort for Opening of M Street.

PROSPECTS FOR SUCCESS THIS TIME

Property Owners Along Street Willing to Pay Cost of Filling in Big Gully Between Twentieth and Twenty-Second.

F. J. Lewis of Rock Island, Ill., is here making another effort to have M street graded. A petition is being circulated and at present has a large number of signatures.

This action is taken at this time for the reason that there seems to be no chance of the city opening M street to the river and with the ferry boat and possibly a pontoon bridge in operation a direct line is desired.

Another idea of property owners in trying to hasten the opening of the street is the rumor which is afloat that possibly the library will be located somewhere on M street, although no definite propositions have been made to owners of property on this street by members of the council.

While the cost of filling the big gully between Twentieth and Twenty-second streets will be high, the expense, if prorated in the district proposed, will not be large as compared with the benefits.

Want Indictments Quashed.

Several South Omaha people who were remembered by the grand jury, including some of the members of the Board of Education, now propose to go before the court and attempt to have the indictments against them quashed.

Frank Burness Married.

At St. Agnes' church yesterday forenoon Frank Burness, deputy tax commissioner, was married to Miss Christina Eggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eggers.

Going After Business.

Recently Iowa has been sending large consignments of hogs to this market in preference to shipping to Chicago, as the shrinkage is less and the prices paid about the same.

Council Meets Tonight.

The city council will meet in adjourned session tonight, when bids for the proposed issue of district improvement bonds will be received.

Are Not Disturbed.

Members of the council are not disturbed over the report that unless the council soon gets down to business and appoints a library board Mr. Carnegie will withdraw his offer.

Proposition for Park.

Since the park board has been appointed and organized Mr. VanDusen is endeavoring to sell Syndicate park to the city.

School Board Candidates.

At the coming election three members of the Board of Education will retire and republicans are casting about for suitable candidates.

Magic City Gossip.

There was a big run of hogs at the stockyards yesterday. Miss Anna Riley will entertain the New Century club this afternoon.

AGREEMENT SEEMS IN DANGER

Transcontinental Railroads Not All Satisfied with Arrangement for Colonist Rates.

Transcontinental passenger circles are in a whirl over differences between various lines and interests that have been multiplying ever since the adoption of a schedule of colonist rates some weeks since.

Anyway, it broke upon Omaha railroad offices yesterday in a shower of circulars from the Chicago headquarters of the Transcontinental Passenger association.

The rock upon which the understanding has split was not a single crag, but a whole reef. One big point of difference has been the apportionment of the fares between the different lines comprising any colonist route.

Another dispute is the time-honored one of comparative total fares from different terminal points, such as Omaha, Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Minneapolis and St. Paul, however, are now dropped altogether from one $25 rate. The Northern Pacific, Great Northern and the St. Joe have by combining, prevailed upon the association to eliminate the fare of $25 from these points to Oregon points between Portland on the north and Ashland on the south.

Railway Notes and Personal.

A. P. Chapman, city ticket agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road at Chicago, was in Omaha yesterday for a few hours, enroute to Salt Lake City. His wife accompanied him.

PLEASES SOME CREDITORS

Injunction Against Enforcement of Judge Fawcett's Decree in Savings Bank Case.

The announcement from Lincoln in yesterday's Bee that Chief Justice Sullivan had issued an injunction preventing the enforcement of Judge Fawcett's decree in the German Savings bank case was gratifying news to V. O. Strickler, who has been in the front of the fight in the interests of creditors of the institution.

"This injunction is what we wanted and all we wanted," he said. "We have appealed to the supreme court for a review of this case, and we only needed this assurance of immunity from interruption or trouble until the supreme court can take it up, which I think will be in less than a month. Things will go smoothly from now on."

In Bed Four Weeks with La Grippe.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Roy Kemp of Angola, Ind.: "I was in bed four weeks with a gripe and I tried many remedies and spent considerable for treatment with physicians, but I received no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. Two small bottles of this medicine cured me and I now use it exclusively in my family." Take no substitutes.
