RECIPROcity AS THE REMEDY

It Must Be Given Cuba at Once, Says General Wilson.

ANNEXATION, HE SAYS, IS INEVITABLE

Former Governor of Matanzas Says This Policy Is Needed as Stimulus to Cuban Commerce.—Critical Administration.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—"Since our occupation of Cuba, we have not done one thing to repair the ravages of war. We have re-established no families in their homes, nor attempted to restock barren farms and plantations.

These words General James H. Wilson, late governor of Matanzas, and recent appointee as delegate to King Edward's coronation to represent the United States army, charged negligence of Cuba in a speech delivered tonight at the Union League club.

Providence was reached at 7:57 and the private car was shifted to a spur track in the city station, where it remained until the arrival at 9:07 of the Federal Express from Boston, bound for Washington.

While the car was set off on the siding a crowd congregated about it, frequently calling for the president, who did not, however, appear.

At 8:21, the car being attached, the train drew out. Again the president came to the rear platform and bade good-bye to the crowd.

NEW SPECULATION EXCITED

LONDON, Feb. 14.—The statement of Lord Cranborne, under secretary for foreign affairs, in the House of Commons yesterday that the submission of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was submitted to the cabinet before its signing, has excited renewed speculation as to the attitude of the United States.

These speculations are reflective of the anxiety shown by European powers to be on good terms with the United States.

Another point in the discussion is the effect which Australian legislation excluding Japanese immigrants will have on the successful working of the agreement.

TURNER EVADES THE ENEMY

Keeper of Mountain Resort Where Fight Occurred is Escaped.

HIS WIFE SAYS HE WILL NOT SURRENDER

Number of Men Killed in Fight is Placed at Five, but Some Think Fatalities Will Be Doubled.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Feb. 13.—The precise number of dead as the result of the battle at Lee Turner's "Quarter House" saloon yesterday at Sunset is now believed to be five, although there are still reports that ten men were killed.

The last four men were buried this afternoon in the same grave at the old Turner burying ground.

Lee Turner, the proprietor of the fortress and saloon, which were buried, bought such a handsome casket. The men were his staunchest allies.

John Doyle, the townman who was thought to have been mortally wounded, probably will recover. Tom Hopper, an old man who was with Turner's band, was shot three times, but succeeded in reaching his home alive.

Lee Turner is now at the mines. He intends to rebuild his saloon and fort and says he will remain if he has to keep a standing army of 500 mountaineers within his palisades.

All is quiet tonight and it is believed that for the present the trouble is over. Bones were found in the ruins of the burned saloon, but it is believed they are not human. A man named Russell is said to be missing.

It was reported here on the streets tonight that Lee Turner, proprietor of the saloon, had escaped from the palisades with his brother during the battle yesterday. It has been ascertained that the Turner brothers are still in the mountains. The hundreds of mountaineers who were gathered around him men enough to come against the Middlesboro officers who burned his fort and killed his staunchest supporters.

The Middlesboro men are greatly alarmed and have mustered into service all who are available. The band that went after Turner yesterday has remained together all day. Last night ten coal miners from Excelsior went to Mingo mines, where Turner is staying, and offered him their services.

Mrs. Turner, Lee Turner's wife, who lives here, was seen tonight by the Associated Press correspondent. She said that she had not heard from her husband since the battle occurred, excepting once, when Lee telephoned her that he is safe, but she thinks Turner will remain in the mountains and rebuild his place. She also said that Turner is a man who does not know what defeat is and that if it becomes necessary he will put a standing army of 500 mountaineers in his fort.
