INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 13.—James Whitfield, president of the Western league, and W. A. Van Brunt and James Burns, forming the circuit committee, were here today in an endeavor to get the Indianapolis club owners to join their organization and desert the American association.

They were unsuccessful, however. The Western league circuit, according to Mr. Whitfield, has six towns that are assured, as follows: Colorado Springs, Denver, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha and Milwaukee. Des Moines has a franchise, but may not be kept if a stronger pair of cities can be secured.

DISASTROUS DAY FOR BOOKS

Five Favorites and a Second Choice Cut Into Their Profits.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—The new California Jockey club has decided not to transfer racing to San Francisco, as was announced, but will finish the season at Oakland. This decision was arrived at after a vote was taken among the horsemen, bookmakers and betting patrons, strong opposition being expressed owing to the cost of moving horses and the fact that the transportation facilities are not so good.

As five favorites and a second choice won the books here a disastrous day for the track was a heavy holding. George West, a filly owned by China & Corbett, made her first appearance in the 2-year-old event and, played from 1 to 10 to 10 a won easily. Sea Lion, backed from 9 to 10 to 1, secured an easy victory in the 3-year-old.

Amusements

"Arizona"

It is doubtful if there is anything in the drama of today that is more admirable than the play of atmosphere; the play during the progress of which the spectator is, through the combined efforts of the playwright, the players and the scenery, temporarily transported to such a quarter of the globe as the author may have seen fit to choose for the scenes and incidents of his story. Especially pleasing is such a play when the atmosphere is unstinted and the sentiment wholesome. "Arizona," which was produced at Boyd's theater Thursday night, belongs to this class of plays, and when Augustus Thomas wrote it, he made a play that stands today well high up toward the top of the American drama. There is none better, and few furnish enjoyment as nearly commensurate with the value of the time spent as does this interesting mixture of cavaliers, rancheros, Mexicans, pretty women and the always dominant theme—love. While there were vacant seats at the first performance, the patronage was remarkably liberal, considering the fact that this is the third time since the piece was first produced, three years ago, that Omaha theater-goers have had an opportunity of passing judgment upon it. The company presenting it is wholly capable, and while it is noticeable that two of the parts were in the hands of people last night who were not as sure of their lines as is necessary to a flawless performance, it was as satisfactory as could be expected, in view of the fact that owing to the disappearance of the leading actor, yesterday of J. W. Cope, who assumes the character of Canby, the ranchman, it was necessary to substitute an understudy, thereby necessitating other slight changes in the cast. The engagement continues the balance of the week.

The stork had visited both homes at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon of February 11.

BOERS' BRILLIANT ESCAPE

Dazzling Bravery Exhibited in Resisting and Evading Kitchener's Clutches. ATTEMPTS TO BREAK CIRCLE FUTLE When Threatened with Total Annihilation They Split Up Into Three Forces and Make Heroic Escape from Trap.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The detailed accounts which have just reached here of Lord Kitchener's combined movement to drive out the Boers from the enclosure of block-booms lines show that the conflict was very picturesque and the most desperate incident of the whole campaign. Although apparently surrounded by an impenetrable ring of fire and steel the Boers' dauntless bravery and dashing escape ultimately resulted in the majority's escape from the meshes of Lord Kitchener's close guard.

Terrific Fire for Five Hours

The battle at Heilbron raged from 9 o'clock Friday night until 10 o'clock Saturday morning. During the five hours a fearful ring of fire from rifles, cannon and pom-poms swept along the British lines in holding Dewar's Boers, who made repeated attempts to break out of the circle of troops. From various positions, behind rocks and dongs, the Boers kept up a vigorous fusillade, hoping to find a weak spot in the line. Simultaneously others charged, but again were repulsed by the Boers' regular, leaving dead, wounded and prisoners in the hands of the British.
