DEATH RECORD.

Colouel F. J. Turner, Boer Scout. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18 .- Mr. George May Powell of this city today received a cablegram announcing the death at Charing Cross hotel, London, of Colonel Francis J. Turner, a noted Boer scout. For the first six months of the African war Turner was a leading scout of the Boer army He was a civil mining and mechanical engineer and had large interests in South Africa. John F. Knight of the Chicago Record went as his only assistant in the daring feat of blowing up the railroad bridges behind the Boers when the British captured Bloemfontein. This halted the British over two months and gave the Boers a chance to reform lines and plans. Turner also led some of the most daring raids of the war and was severely wounded during the battle of Colenso. Later he went to Holland to recruit in health and to important work for the Boer cause. At the time of his death he was preparing to return to South Africa.

DEFAULTER TAKES HIS LIFE

Postmaster Louis B. Partridge of Kenesaw Commits Suicide.

SHORTAGE RECKONED FIFTEEN HUNDRED

When Postoffice Inspector Detects Embesslement, Culprit Sends Butlet Through His Read.

HASTINGS, Neb.; Feb. 18 -- (Special Telegram.)-Postmaster Louis B. Partridge of Kenesaw committed suicide at 13:30 o'clock this afternoon by sheeting himself in the head. He died almost instantly. The cause of Partridge's taking his own life is attributed to the government's claim that he was nearly $1,500 short in his accounts.

When Mr. Partridge went to the postoffice this morning he seemed cheerful, but when a postoffice inspector took charge of born at Killingly, Conn. He came to this his books he showed considerable agitation and his nervousness increased as the inspection continued. He went home at noon and, going direct to his bedroom, he placed a 32-caliber revolver directly behind his right ear and pulled the trigger. He died a few minutes later.

It is regarded as strange that so large a shortage could exist for any length of time in so small an office. As Mr. Partridge was not a drinking man, nor one who was known to speculate, it is a mystery to his most intimate friends what he did with the

At the coroner's inquest this afternoon a verdict was remdered stating that L. B. West, who died Saturday morning, was Partridge met death by his own hand. The deceased had been postmaster at . Kenesaw of Adams county. He leaves a wife and one

The Oldest and Best.

S. S. S. is a combination of roots and herbs of great curative powers, and when taken into the circulation searches out and removes all manner of poisons from the blood, without the least shock or harm to the system. On the contrary, the general health begins to improve from the first dose, for S. S. S. is not only a blood purifier, but an excellent tonic, and strengthens and builds up the constitution while purging the blood of impurities. S. S. S. cures all diseases of a blood poison origin, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Herpes and similar troubles, and is an infallible cure and the only antidote for that most horrible disease, Contagious Blood Poison.

A record of nearly fifty years of successful cures is a record to be proud of. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever. It numbers its friends by the thousands. Our medical correspondence is larger than ever in the history of the medicine. Many write to thank us for the great good S. S. S. has done them, while others are seeking advice about their cases. All letters receive prompt and careful attention. Our physicians have made a life-long study of Blood and Skin Diseases, and better understand such cases than the ordinary practitioner who makes a specialty of no one disease.

We are doing great good to suffering humanity through humanity through our consulting deyou to write us if you have any blood or skin trouble. We make no charge whatever for this service.
