REFUSAL TO RAISE MISS SMITH'S PAY

Long Unbroken Term of Registrar Likely to Re Terminated-Supreme Court Cases Argued and Submitted.

LINCOLN, Feb. 18 .- (Special Telegram.) -The athletic board of the university to night authorised the manager of the foot ball team to schedule a game with Missouri university in the forthcoming season in St. Joseph. The board was opposed to playing in Columbia on account of lack financial support. It was also decided that steps should be taken to arrange a basket ball with Minnesota university to be played in Lincoln within a fow weeks.

The refusal of the Board of Regents to grant a raise in salary to Miss Ellen Smith, university registrar, has been taken by some to mean that her unbroken term of fifteen years' service will soon be terminated. Miss Smith asked the board to raise her compensation to that paid executive and other clerks, which is $75 a M. Sunshine of West Point deputy inspecmonth. Good roads required their attention and the future would show a great advance along that line. Questions in regard to ditches and irrigation were also coming to the front and adding to their responsibilities. J. F. Manson spoke in behalf of the Commercial club. He referred to many and varied industries of the city and state and how their growth and development depended to some extent on wise action of the board.

The records of the preceding sessions were read by Secretary Joseph Roberts of Fremont, and the treasurer's report by Commissioner Harte of Omaha. There was $46.35 in the treasury and all bills were paid. The sessions are held in the district courtroom, and fifty commissioners from outside the county were present.

APPEAL TO CONGRESS AND PRESIDENT Want Order to Remove Fences Suspended Until Legislation in Their Behalf Can Be Enneted.

ALLIANCE, Neb., Feb. 18 .- (Special Telegram.)-A special meeting of the Western Nebraska Stock Growers' association was held here today to consider the proposed lease law now pending in congress. Prestdent S. P. Delatour of Lewellen and Secretary Van Boskirk were both present. Prosident Delatour stated the object of the meeting was the consideration of lease and fence questions, giving statistics of he was Mr. Holt's lawyer. He said an acreage and investments of cattle industries and saying all western Nebraska is interested. Bartlett Richards of Ells-worth opened the meeting with an address on conditions as regards grazing in western Nebraska. He said the stockmen are content with matters as they stand, with their fenced bay lands and open ranges, and are prospering. If allowed to retain their holdings they will willingly pay for them. He went on:

We are told that all of us who have 160 We are told that all of us who have 160 acres of public domain enclosed within our fences are criminals—that we must take all such Icnces down. That we are liable to a fine of $1,000 for each such offence. That we may not leave up even drift fences to keep our cattle from drifting far away where we either would recover them at great expense or not at all. That the man who has enclosed 160 acres is as bad off before the law as he who has enclosed more.

Appeal for Relief.

In this dilemma we have appealed repeatedly to our senators and representatives in Washington to use their best efforts to stay the hand of government in carrying out the law. Thus far they have succeeded, which has been done by making use of every influence which had our good at heart, and the good of those whose industries are dependent upon our success. But now when we beg for further extensions the authorities who are entrusted with the carrying out of the enacted laws say:

Articles of incorporation of the C. W. Hull company of Omaha were recorded in the secretary of state's office today. The capital stock of the institution is $5,000 and its incorporators are: Horace Ludington, Jean Schons and Charles A. Grimes. The company will deal in lime, cement and other building materials.

The Stanton Electric Light company of Stanton, Stanton county, has incorporated under the laws of the state. It is capitalized for $10,000 and its principal incorporators are: Harry D. Miller, Arthur W. Forbes, Frank C. Raabe and Frank L. Sanders.

Governor Savage left today for Sargent, where he will give his attention to matters of personal interest. He expects to return government to repeal the anti-fence law, for unbridled grasping contention and feuds will follow.

No industry has less organization than the cattle industry. We have no unity. We stand supinely by and see laws enacted against the cattle growers without complaining against them. We offer our law-makers measures for our good. Some of us raise not a voice to second them, while others cavil at the measures, attribute mean and sordid motives to the efforts of others, and iconoclasts offer nothing to replace that which they endeavor to break down. In this leasing matter will you stand mute while your very homes and livelihood are endangered, or shall we make come strong united effort for the establishment of our industry on prosperous legal lines. Conditions exist here in Nebraska which do not exist elsewhere, which makes it imperative that we either be not obliged to take our fences down or else have a lease law passed. We must impress upon our senators and delegates to congress our necessities and that we must have immediate relief.

In Favor of Leasing.

Frank Currie of Whitney, Neb., offered Resolved. That it is the sense of this meeting that in view of the probable removal of fences on government domain we are in favor of the leasing of the public lands in such manner and under such restrictions as will protect the small stock grower as well as the larger owner. The resolution was adopted with but one dissenting vote in a membership of over

H. H. Robinson of Denver, representative of the American Cattle Growers' associacome in behalf of the city and extended tion, made a short speech and invited members to attend a meeting of that body at Denver, March 4.

Special Agent Lester of the land department of the United States, said the fence matter had been discussed for a year and a half by the department and the decision reached that the law must now be enforced. He read the law and also the order of the department, issued February 6, requiring removal of fences from public lands within sixty days after service of notice to do so.

C. F. Martin, secretary of the Nationa Stock Growers' association, said the plan of leasing public lands has been increasing in popularity, and referred to the action of congress on oleomargarine and urged cattlemen to look after their interests in this means of securing same.

Miscellaneous Business.

President Delatour announced that the annual meeting of the association will take place at Crawford, on Tuesday May 13. resolution was adopted petitioning President Roosevelt to stay the enforcement of the fence law until legislation on the matter can be taken. Also, one deploring the recent action of the Omaha Commercial club against the lease law.

A report was made of the meeting of the Central Nebraska Stock Growers' held at Broken Bow, which had taken nearly the same action as that of this meeting. Resolutions were adopted asking that ar annual livestock census be maded, and that the shody bill in congress be passed. Dr. Thomas, state veterinarian, talked about itch in cattle and said it had been ucceeded in inducing Mr. Lawrence's wife stamped out among step. He suggested to leave her family and follow Woolney to that the bureau of Laimal industry be noti-California, Woolsey having left Elk Creek fied of all sections in which diseases ex-

The department order issued February directing that sixty days' notice be given to those who have fenced public lands for the removal of such fences created a good deal of feeling, but there was nowhere exhibited any intent to ignore the order. Opinions were freely given that the result would be disastrous to those for whose protection it was urged.

Patrick's Alleged Tool Says Former Offered Him a Bribe for His Oath.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 .- After several days of examination and cross-examination o experts new interest in the trial of Albert late William Marsh Rice, was aroused late in the afternoon, when Charles F. Jones, who has been charged of being the tool of Lawyer Patrick in compassing the death of the millionaire, was put on the stand by the state.

Jones said he was employed by Rice in Houston, Tex., and came with him to New York in May, 1897. He did Rice's clerical work and wrote his checks. Patrick, he said, called at Rice's apartment in October, 1899, to see Rice and said his name was Smith. Rice was in bed and the defendant said he would call again. This he did about a week later. Patrick said he thought it would be good thing to have some old friend write a letter to Mr. Rice suggesting a compromise. Led by Mr. Osborn, Jones described the letter Patrick wanted him to write. The letter was to state that Mr. Rice had lost confidence in his Texas lawyer, but that he loved Texas and wanted to return there, and wanted the litigation settled. In reply to Mr. Osborn's question Jones said: 'Patrick was to give me $250 for it, but he would not give me the money unless I would go on the witness stand and swear that Rice signed it. I refused to give him the letter. Patrick told me Mr. Holt had given him $500 and had "romised him $10,000 when a settlement was effected.' "Why did you not agree to earn that
