REFEREE TO HEAR TAX CASE ELLER RUNS AGAINST SNAG

Supreme Court Appoints Judge Robert Byan of Lincoln to Act.

HEARING WILL BE HELD IN OMAHA

By Terms of Court's Order Referee to to Report on Questions of Law as Well as on Evidence.

City Attorney Conneil received a telemessage from Lincoln yesterday that the court had a perfect right to and to the effect that Judge Robert Ryan of that city had been appointed by the supreme court as referee to investigate the merits of Attorney McIntosh's application for a last election, that he had been defeated, writ of mandamus to compel the Omaha that his opponent, Judge Berka, had been city council to reconvene as a board of equalization and hear the complaints of the serving as such magistrate. Judge Baxter Real Estate exchange in the matter of the further cited for Eller's benefit the fact tax levy. The message said that the court had not restricted Judge Ryan as to what phase or phases of the case he should enter, but had left it optional with him to admit such evidence as he saw fit.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Connell. "Judge Ryan will decide this case on law and I hardly think he will order brought before him the books of the corporations. The Bee from Lincoln:

The supreme court this morning appointed Judge Robert Ryan of this city as referse to take testimony in the Omaha tax mandamus case. By the terms of the order he is required to return a report both as to law and evidence by April 16. At a conference this morning the attorneys in the case united in the recommendation that Judge Ryan be appointed. Hearings will be commenced in Omaha without delay. Judge Ryan was a member of the former supreme court commission.

Guilty. A jury has acquitted Mrs. Beder Mina of the charge of murder, for which she was adjected because of her alleged complicity the fatal stabbing of Najaab Saidy by Joe Baardowsel in front of her husband's store at 1462 South Thirteenth street on November 30. The verdict was read shortly after 5 o'clock and there was no demonstration except the defendant's parting handshake with the jury, the judge and her attorneys. The jury had been out since noon. For a trial in which the charge is murder and the defendant a woman, the proceeding has been a surprisingly dull one. Even while Mrs. Mina was on the stand the county attorney yawned repeatedly and ppenly and the court was occasionally deted in the same display of weariness. A interpreter, vivacious and chic, some to relieve the monotony of the pura, but there have been no dramatic features and, even with the defendant's two es playing at her knees, her attor ys falled to coax the lachrymose display which is their specialty. Ranchmen in Wyoming Think an Attempt Has Been Made to Poison Them:

SHERMAN, Wyo., March 5 .- (Special.)-The details of what was undoubtedly a dastardly attempt to commit murder are coming to light here and a sensational arrest may occur at any time. A few weeks ago James Boyle, a ranch-

Boyle though little of the matter, however, until a week had elapsed, when himself and partner be came dangerously iii. The ranchmen had eaten a quantity of canned tomatoes and corn and as soon as they were able to leave their beds they made an investigation, the results of which were somewhat startling. It was found that every can in the case o canned goods had been tampered with. The labels had been carefully removed, a hole made in the tin with some instrument and peculiarly smelling compound pushed through the hole, after which the opening had been plugged with wood and the label replaced. Two of the cans have been sent to Cheyenne, where an analysis of their contents will be made by a chemist
