

SOCIETY IN A QUIET MOOD

Week of No Moment So Far as Smart World is Concerned.

LITTLE THINGS STILL HOLD THE CALL

Tens and Card Parties Make Up the List of Entertainments—Visitors and Visitors Are Also Few.

With Easter only three weeks off, society has become a rather one-sided institution of late, for fashionable femininity is devoting but scant time to entertaining or being entertained these days, and the masculine half has taken refuge in a fresh supply of cigars, "stag" affairs and other things as it wonders why women can have no thoughts beyond their milliners and modistes at this season of the year.

The Kubelik concert last evening was really the one pretense at anything like a representative gathering of the fashionable folk, and in fact the theater promises the only excuse for such assemblies for some time to come.

A member of one of the several local whist clubs that boasts a continuous record of five seasons, with afternoon meetings every week, has a collection of trophies in value to several hundred dollars. The collection consists chiefly of cut glass, silver and bric-a-brac, and to the wonder of some of its successful owner's friends, is kept in a cabinet in the most obscure corner of the library.

Pleasures Past.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer entertained a card club on Sunday evening.

Miss Melona Butterfield gave a studio tea on Saturday afternoon from 3 until 6.

Mrs. Harry McCormick was hostess at Wednesday's meeting of the Cooking club.

Miss Mae Rothschild was hostess at Monday's meeting of the A. O. T. Bowling club.

Mrs. David Degen entertained the members of the Just for Fun club on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Baker entertained a party of ninety friends at cards on Friday evening.

The Hanscom Park club gave another of its very enjoyable dancing parties on Friday evening.

The Misses Hastings entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening for their guest, Miss Marion Carlton of Atlanta, Ga.

The Carnation Social club gave one of its enjoyable dancing parties last Tuesday evening, about 150 couples attending.

Mrs. Albert Kahn was hostess at a very pleasant informal afternoon gathering at Tuesday at which about fifteen women were present.

The Tecumseh club was very pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. C. M. Headrick in her apartments at the Shrine.

Miss Blanche Howland entertained the members of the Charming club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Thirty-second street.

Mrs. G. Stors entertained about twenty women in honor of her birthday Friday afternoon. The house was decorated with ferns and American Beauties.

Miss Richardson, Miss Edith Smith, Mr. Frank Haskell, Mr. Henry Tukey and Mr. Harry Lindsey were Miss Cotter's guests at a box party on Wednesday evening.

For her daughter, Hazel, Mrs. Alfred O. Nichols gave a birthday party to twenty-five children and older friends Monday afternoon at her home, 2215 Farnam street.

One of the pretty complimentary affairs of the week was the entire party given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. G. J. Ingweren for her guest, Miss Ingweren of Clinton, Ia.

Mrs. C. C. Troxell entertained a large party of women at six-thumbed high life on Friday afternoon, her home being effectively decorated with roses, carnations and flowering plants.

Miss Paul Havens entertained a party of young men at progressive crockinle on Thursday evening at his home, 1115 South Twenty-eighth street, the occasion being his 35th birthday.

Mr. Ralph Connell returned last week from his ranch in Mexico.

George Hickerson has gone to New York, Okla., to make his home.

Mrs. C. W. Loman is in Geneva, Wis., with her son, Dr. Harry Lyman.

Miss Myrtle King has gone to Denver to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rosenthal have gone to California, to remain during March.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kountze are expected home from the south on Monday.

Mrs. Clarence E. White is back from a six weeks' visit with relatives in Montreal.

Mrs. Robert Danning and Miss Rita of Ohio, who has been her guest for several weeks, returned on Friday morning from a reception given the Young Men's Christian association basket ball team Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stafford, 2418 Seward street, in honor of their nephew, Messrs. Clarence and George Willard. It was a brilliant affair.

Hardman Pianos

Built for First Class Trade.

From Maker to User.

Beautiful exclusive ART CASES, as well as a complete stock of their regular designs, at prices close to builders' cost.

Our $200 Piano

is a marvelous instrument for the price.

The "Simplex"

makes other piano players sound like machines, for a fact.

FACTORY STORE

BRANCH OF HARDMAN.

Mueller Piano & Organ Co.

North Side 1316 Farnam St.

OMAHA, NEB.

and enjoyed by all. Covers were laid for twenty-four, with a pretty and appropriate souvenir for each guest.

Miss Richardson was the guest of honor at a box party given by Mrs. H. P. Whitmore on Tuesday afternoon, the other guests being Miss Cotton, Miss Edith Smith and Miss Clara Curtis.

Miss Cotton entertained a box party at the Kubelik concert on Saturday evening, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, Miss Richardson, Mr. Earl Marshall and Mr. Frank Haskell.

Miss Irene Harris entertained twenty of her young friends on Thursday afternoon, the occasion being her seventh birthday. Juvenile games were played during the afternoon and later a birthday luncheon was served.

For Rev. and Mrs. Jenkins Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm entertained at dinner on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase and Mr. John L. Kennedy were the guests.

Mr. Millie Ryan entertained a house concert boy party in the home of Miss Ella Ryan of Dunlap, Ia. The guests were Mrs. Charles Higgins, Mrs. Frank Gallagher, Mrs. Brodegar and Miss Carrie Woods Busch of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Whitmore gave a box party at the Boyd's on Tuesday evening followed by a supper at the Omaha Club, in honor of Mr. John Philip Sousa. Their other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crittenton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. C. Kenyon and Mr. Samuel Ritter Brown.

The guests of the Bachelors gave their regular fortnightly party on Thursday evening, tables being arranged for cards and the evening given over to high five. The prizes were won by Mrs. F. H. Jackson, Mrs. E. F. Breidenbecker, Mr. J. B. Shean and Mrs. H. J. Jackson.

Mr. Fred Rustin will entertain the Chafing Dish club on Friday evening, March 25.

Mrs. Charles T. Kountze was confined to her home the greater part of last week by an attack of grippe.

The engagement is announced of Miss Helen Morgan Burnam and Mr. Theodore Butcher Lewis of Philadelphia.

Mr. F. A. Brogan has purchased a lot adjoining the Dickey place, near the Country club, to go up a summer home there.

The Richardson Art club will meet with Mrs. Maude Heim at her home, 2235 Charles street, on Wednesday, March 19, at 2 p.m.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Montgomery and Mr. Grenville Parker of New York will occur on April 28 at the Church of the Ascension in New York.

Mr. P. B. Besen left Saturday afternoon for an extended trip to Europe. While abroad Mr. Besen will visit with relatives in Germany, France and Norway.

Miss Daisy Doane expects to leave Omaha on Tuesday to go to Manila, where she will join her brother, Lieutenant Doane, and remain with him for several months.

Rabbi Simon left Saturday afternoon for Springfield, Ill., for a much needed rest, to be gone three weeks.

His wife and baby accompanied him as far as Chicago and will then go to Toledo to visit her sister.

In honor of her niece, Mrs. J. E. Mosier, Mrs. H. N. Wood gave one of the smartest affairs of the week, a tea, on Friday afternoon, at her home, 1034 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the cloth and mased about the base of the centerpieces of red and yellow tulips. The light was supplied by several shaded candleabra. The places of the men were marked with carnations, while each of the women received a bunch of violets. The guests of the evening were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Melick of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Zabriskie.

Mrs. Charles E. Bryson celebrated their birthday on Monday evening with a dinner at the home of the latter, 1142 South Twenty-ninth street. The table was effectively trimmed with asparagus fern scattered over the