

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee (without Sunday), One Year, $4.00.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. Daily Bee (without Sunday), per copy, 5c.

OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee Building, South Omaha—City Hall Building, Twentieth and G.

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to Omaha Bee, Editor, The Bee Building.

BUSINESS LETTERS. Business letters and remittances should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha.

REMITTANCES. Remit by draft, express or postal order, payable to The Bee Publishing Company.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss. I, George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, do hereby certify.

Table with 2 columns: Number of copies, and Amount. Rows include Total, Less unsold and returned copies, Net total sales, etc.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1902.

When it comes to doing things right Omaha Bohemians are strictly in it.

Not a disorderly disturbance to mar Prince Henry's tour. Let us have a credit mark.

Prince Henry deserves a smoother return voyage than he enjoyed on his ocean trip this way.

The Commercial club should try to bag a few more new factories before the season gets old, on the theory that a good nest egg will begot company.

One house of congress has passed the bill for another bridge across the Missouri at this point. Omaha needs a fourth bridge about as much as a wagon needs a fifth wheel.

It is to be noted that although it has had no senatorial deadlock to interfere with the dispatch of business, the Iowa legislature is still in session and in the third month of its career.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

THE RATE-CUTTING RAILROADS.

The proceedings to be instituted against the railroads whose officials, in testifying before the interstate commission, admitted wholesale rate cutting, will be civil actions in equity to enjoin the carriers from further violations of the law.

It is stated that the commission had been waiting, before moving further on the same line, for the final decision in the case before the supreme court, but in view of the disclosures made at the Chicago inquiry in January and the necessity for some action which would be prompt, and it was hoped effective, concluded to try the method now proposed.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

attitude on the subject it has probably undergone no change and if that be so it is safe to say that the demands of Canada will never be conceded by the United States.

Of course the present arrangement regarding the boundary cannot be permanent. It has served to maintain peace and for that reason is justifiable as a temporary expedient, but it is a condition that ought to be continued no longer than is necessary to permit the United States and Great Britain to reach an amicable settlement of the controversy.

The suggestion is offered that Commandant Pearce of the High school cadets is a very much abused man, all because of his unfortunate relationship to the superintendent of schools, who happens to be his brother.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Enforcing Anti-Trust Laws

San Francisco Chronicle. In is stated that the president will hereafter insist that the railroads comply with the spirit as well as the letter of the laws, and that he will favor no changes until it is seen what will happen when existing law is rigorously enforced.

But the president says no. He insists that the railroads shall obey the laws as they are until the result is made manifest.

hunting mania that when we reflect calmly on the other mortification for the emperor's fished hangings is drowned in our feeling of congratulation to him that he keeps his yacht.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

IN THE FUSION POLITICAL FOLD.

Kearney Democrat: There has been some talk of making Judge Olham the candidate for congress in the Sixth district. If Bill Neville is not dead, but only sleeping, this ought to wake him up.

Central City Democrat: It will soon be time for the democrats and populists of Nebraska to think about congressional nominations. A good business man considers that the time for a fusion ticket is now.

hunting mania that when we reflect calmly on the other mortification for the emperor's fished hangings is drowned in our feeling of congratulation to him that he keeps his yacht.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

MESERVE'S PLEA IN AVOIDANCE.

Columbus Telegram (dem.): When arrested on charge of embezzlement ex-Treasurer Meserve promised the public, and his attorneys, speaking in his name, informed the democrats and populists that he would not employ the technicalities of the law in order to escape punishment, as did Gene Moore.

Central City Democrat: It will soon be time for the democrats and populists of Nebraska to think about congressional nominations. A good business man considers that the time for a fusion ticket is now.

hunting mania that when we reflect calmly on the other mortification for the emperor's fished hangings is drowned in our feeling of congratulation to him that he keeps his yacht.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

BITS OF WASHINGTON LIFE.

Etchings of People and Events at the National Capital. Membership in the senate has had a softening and soothing effect upon the solemn and picturesque Bailey of Texas.

hunting mania that when we reflect calmly on the other mortification for the emperor's fished hangings is drowned in our feeling of congratulation to him that he keeps his yacht.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

Some ten days ago it was reported from London that the Alaskan boundary question would probably not come up again in the near future.

The persistence of the populists in insisting that they furnish the head of the next fusion ticket in Nebraska is particularly distressing to the democrats.

The lower house of congress will vote today on the proposed transformation of the rural mail delivery into a new star route contract system.

To have more than 1,000 republicans participate in the party primaries at South Omaha is an encouraging sign of the times.

When the testimony of many witnesses showed extensive and long continued violations of the act to regulate commerce, notably in connection with the shipment of dressed meats and packing house products from Chicago and Kansas City and of grain from the west to the seaboard, the commission determined to use every means provided by law for stopping these illegal practices and punishing those engaged in them.

It is announced that one of the deputies of the county attorney is to be employed by the Central Labor union to assist in the prosecution of certain cases for infraction of the female labor law, which has been appealed to the supreme court.

The chances are two to one that the lawyers who are crying loudest for business men on the jury panel would be the first to challenge them off the jury should they be drawn to sit on a case they are trying.

South Omaha republicans are to be congratulated upon the nominations they have made for the city offices to be filed at the municipal election in April.

Several Nebraska counties report unusual transfers of farm lands as well as releases of farm mortgages.

Accounts of the Kubelick concert at Lincoln say that the auditorium was packed with 2,000 people to listen to the performance.

And now William Waldorf Astor is said to be cultivating aspirations to sit in Parliament although his expatriation from this country is but a few years back.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.

The uninvested balance in the permanent school fund has again risen to nearly $95,000 and the treasurer repeats the shallow pretense that this money is being kept in the treasury vault.