PRINCE REGRETS TO LEAVE UNITED STATES

Expresses Deepest Appreciation of Hearty and Enthusiastic Reception and Wishes for Another Visit.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Prince Henry of Prussia called for Germany on board the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland. His last day in America was spent in a ball on board Deutschland, which was filled with guests.

The prince breakfasted early, but at 10 o'clock began to receive officials and guests, including representatives of the United States government.

At the close of the luncheon, when it came time to say good-by, the prince, taking a rose from the table, said: "This is the badge of that which I have been admiring during my entire trip to the United States, American Beauty."

Major General Corbin said: "We have all enjoyed the trip, and the memory of it will abide with us forever."

Then the real farewells began. The final farewells were said by members of the German embassy.

Germany Sing for Prince. Shortly before Deutschland sailed the United Singing societies of Hudson county, New Jersey, appeared on the deck of Princess Louise, which lay alongside Deutschland.

Deutschland reached the Narrows at 4:35. Fortis Wadsworth and Hamilton Brad saluted, which were answered by Deutschland's whistle and the gunnery at Fort Wadsworth lined up on the bluff until the steamer passed out into the lower bay.

Washington, March 11.—The following exchanges took place today between Prince Henry of Prussia, who called for Europe on Deutschland, and President Roosevelt:

AIM TO PROTECT AMERICAN PRODUCERS

Declare Method Advocated by Ways and Means Committee Would Satisfy Another Development of Home Concerns.

LONDON, March 11.—Expressions of steadfastness have today succeeded those of humiliation which were generally heard here today on the publication of the news of General Methuen's disaster.

Lord Rosebery struck the popular note today in a speech before the Glasgow students. He admitted that it was heart-breaking after all the expenditure of life, time and money, he added:

It will not do us to say: "We have got to see this thing through. We must take the blows which fortune deals us with equanimity, showing ourselves worthy of better fortune."

Lord Rosebery expressed the hope that more prosperous times were in store, and that in the future "it would be our proud memory that when our country passed through the storm we did not for a minute flinch and were not for a moment dismayed."

RESERVE PROSECUTION FAILS

Judge Baxter Sustains Motion to Direct Verdict of Acquittal.

DEFENDANT WINS ON TECHNICALITIES

Court Holds that State Has No Valid Claim on Interest Paid to Former Treasurer by South Omaha Bank.

While confessing from the bench that he deprecates the law that compels him to do it, Judge Baxter decided that the prosecution in Douglas county of John B. Meserve, former state treasurer, on a charge of embezzling $5,000 interest on $40,000 of the permanent school fund, which he deposited in the Union Stock Yards National bank of South Omaha, must stop, and the jury was instructed to return a verdict of acquittal.

The principles announced by Judge Post in his dissenting opinion in the case of State against Hill to the effect that the treasurer ought to be held liable as trustee of funds in his possession ought to be the law and to the judge's views on this opinion I give my hearty concurrence.

INTEREST NOT THE STATE'S

In Approaching the Other Principal Contention, Raised by Attorney C. J. Smyth, to the Effect that the Interest Accrued did Not Belong to the State.

As to the question of venue, raised by Attorney W. S. McKee, the court said that the crime had been committed, it must have been in Red Willow county, where Meserve first obtained the use and control of the interest on the fund.

SENATE URGES ITS AMENDMENTS

The Senate, at the request of Mr. Cullom of Illinois, one of the conferees, disagreed to the conference report on the bill providing for the carrying into effect of the stipulations of article 7 of the Paris treaty.

WANTS SPEEDY ACTION

He was being pressed constantly, he said, by correspondents to know when a vote would be taken on the question by the senate, and he desired to inquire of the chairman of the committee whether the senate could not have a vote upon the resolution before the close of the present session.

VITAL CHANGE IN CONSTITUTION

This is a proposition to change the principle upon which the constitution is founded and it is a matter of historical fact that without the incorporation of this principle the constitution never would have been agreed to.

OTHER BILLS WERE PASSED AS FOLLOWS

To reform the national pledge district of Arkansas, amending the act of February 2, 1901, to increase the efficiency of the permanent military establishment, so as to provide for the transfer of officers from the line to the staff for four years' service.

EXPENDITURE NOT WARRANTED

Referring to Mr. Fry's argument in support of the establishment of an auxiliary navy, for which the pending bill provides, he did not believe there was sufficient justification for the extraordinary expenditure proposed by the bill.
